RAISING MONEY FOR THE HOME
Plea for It Made in Central City Churches.
The attempt to save the money pledged conditionally on securing $10,000 for the Home for the Friendless debt was continued yesterday, when many of the churches took up a special collection for this worthy object. Rev. Dr. Israel, Rev. Dr. Robinson, Rev. Dr. Pierce and Rev. Dr. Giffin, of the central churches, made pleas for aid in lifting the debt. St. Luke's church made a great record in a collection of $225. At the Second Presbyterian church $70 was reported. Returns from the other churches have not yet been made. The amount necessary has not thus far been secured.

WORK AND WAGES INCREASE.
More Men Are Busy and More Money Paid Than in 1896.
For the purpose of clinching the freepresser's claims made apropos to prosperity, says Bradstreet's, a few data compiled by the New York state bureau of labor statistics cannot be of interest. For statistical purposes we take the reports of 3,533 New York state establishments for the year 1899, and the following results are apparent:

UNITED AFTER MANY YEARS
BROTHERS WHO KNEW NOT OF EACH OTHER'S EXISTENCE.
Scranton and Philadelphia Join in Furnishing a Reunion Story That for Affecting Interest is Seldom, if Ever, Surpassed in Real Life.

WHY HE FAVORS HIM.
John M. Kemmerer, an ex-president of the board of trade and one of the leading business men of the city, in telling why he favors the re-election of President McKinley, said last night:

THE MYSTERY OF HIS LIFE WAS ASKED to let him know if he or she should ever hear anything that might give him a clue to the solution of the mystery.
The day about three weeks ago he was talking with the brakeman of a Belvidere and Philadelphia train on the platform at Manunka Chuk junction, and repeated to him the oft told story of his life, when another one of the hands on the Belvidere and Philadelphia train happened along and joined in listening to the latter part of the story.

AT LAST RE-UNITED.
The meeting of the brothers was witnessed by several thousand persons, who of the vast throng that constantly passes to and fro in the immense Broad street station, had their attention attracted to the two men in an engine cab wrapped in each other's embrace, and to their joy in each other's embrace, there was no mistaking. The resemblance, while not what would be called strong, was sufficiently marked to leave no doubt of their kinship, and if there was any lingering doubt, the recurring attraction, each confessed he felt for the other, the very moment they met, removed it as far as their minds are concerned.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES.
Mrs. Susan E. Fossenden, of Boston, the celebrated temperance lecturer, delivered a splendid sermon last night in the Second Presbyterian church on "Christian Citizenship."

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH
QUESTION DISCUSSED BY REV. W. J. FORD AND OTHERS.
Special Service Held Yesterday Afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church and Presided Over by A. W. Dickson—Rev. Mr. Ford Said That the Observance of the Sabbath Was Necessary to a Man's Moral, Mental and Spiritual Welfare—Remarks of W. W. Lathrope.

SABBATH FOR ALL MEN.
Rev. Mr. Ford, in beginning his remarks, said that Christ said that the Sabbath was made for all men, whether Jew, Gentile or unbeliever. "So long," said he, "as man has a body to care for, a mind to develop and a soul to save, so long is the Sabbath binding on him. No nation can long exist that does not maintain the Sabbath day. This can be proven by history." Taking up the question of laws compelling Sabbath observance, he said:
