JOHN MITCHELL HERE TONIGHT

The President of the National Mine Workers to Speak from the Anthracite.

President Mitchell, of the National Mine Workers of America, fresh from the great victory he has won for the toilers in the bowels of the earth, the greatest in many ways ever achieved by any organization of union men in this country, will be in Carbondale tonight.

The mine workers of the city will not to be the only ones to greet him and give him a great welcome. The business men and all classes of workers will be glad to see the man who has been the Moses of the anthracite toilers. Great, preparations are being made and last night Locals No. 844 and No. 877 met in the St. Rose nall and outlined a programme for his recep-
