FUNERAL OF M. H. BURGUNDER.

Services Were Held at the Home of His Father, in Wilkes-Barre.

The funeral of Moses H. Burgunde: ook place yesterday afternoon at 2 'clock from the residence of his father, Bernard Burgunder, on Northampton street, Wilkes-Barre, and was largely attended. The remains lay in the front parlor in a handsome black cloth covered casket, and from 12 to 2 were viewed by hundreds of people of all nationalities, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow-townsmen. Rich and poor alike passed around the bier and many a tear was shed as they took the last view of the remains. The features presented a very natural appearance and it was difficult for many to realize he was

About the casket was a profusion of ut flowers sent by friends of the famlly and numerous handsome floral designs, among which was a Masonic emblem from Landmark lodge, No. 442, Free and Accepted Masons; a design from Shekinah chapter, No. 182; a floral clock, with the hands pointing to 11 'clock, from Lodge No. 109, B. P. O. E., and a handsome design from the employes of the Nesbitt theatre and Grand opera house bearing the words, "Our Manager." A beautiful pillow was sent by the attaches of the Academy and Lyceum of this city. After the friends had viewed the remains, Rev. Maurice Salzman, rabbi of the B'nai B'rith synagogue, read a brief funeral service, and the remains were then taken to the Jewish cemetery at Hanover, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were members of the Masons and Elks, as follows: Charles cumenthal, E. F. Bogert, Edward Gunster, Leo W. Long, August Constine and Abram Marks. The services at the grave were conducted according to the Masonic ritual.

Moses Reis, of New York who was Mr. Burgunder's partner in his theatrical business, was present at the funeral, as were also A. J. Duffy, manager of the Lyceum, and Harry Brown, nanager of the Academy of Music, of his city.

IVORY ARRESTED BY DAYTON POLICE

He Is Wanted Here For Shooting Harvey Irving Last September. Telegram Received Last Night.

Chief of Police Robling received a lelegram late last night from Dayton. D., announcing the arrest of William Ivory, who is wanted in this city on the charge of attempting to kill Harvey Irving on September 4.

Both men are colored, and on the night of September 4 became involved n a general fight in Raymond court. Ivory, it was alleged, struck Irving over the head violently with a chair, and, as the assaulted man made a bull-likrush at him, hurled him back, drew a revolver and fired.

Irving was removed to the Lacka wanna hospital, where he recovered from his injuries, and Iyory made his escape from the city, nothing being heard of him until last night's telegram was received.

GRAND JURY MADE RETURN

FIRST REPORT OF THE SESSION SUBMITTED YESTERDAY.

After Receiving It, Judge Edwards Specially Charged the Jury on Their Duties in the Matter of the Half Dozen Bridge Petitions on Which They Were Called to Pass. Rehearing in the Lisk License Case-Monument Contractors Sued for $5,000 Damages.

At the opening of court yesterday morning, the grand jury, which began its session Monday, came in with its first report. Judge Edwards, after re ceiving it, specially charged the jury as to its duties in the matter of passing upon bridge petitions, a half-dozen of which have been presented. The mater of the annexation of lands to Taylor borough, which was also to have been considered yesterday by the jury, was put over till the January session by agreement of counsel, that the exceptions filed by Lackawanna township may be disposed of before the petition goes to the jury. The exceptions will be heard at the next term of argument court.

Yesterday's returns contained findings in a few cases of more than passing importance. As is usual, the true bills were in the minority:

Rehearing in Lisk Case. A re-hearing was yesterday had before Judges Archbald, Edwards and Kelly on the rule to show cause why the liquor license of John Lisk, of the Eighth ward should not be revoked. Lisk is one of the licensed dealers, charged by the Men's Union, with selling on Sunday. When the matter came to be heard at the last term of argument court Mr. Lisk did not put through Attorney E. C. Newcomb, he petitioned for a re-hearing saying he was inadvertently absent and that he had a good defense to make. Court agreed to hear him and fixed yesterlay as the time for the hearing. Mr. Lisk went on the stand and explained that on Sunday, September the day on which, it is charged, he sold liquor, his bar room was closed tight, but along in the afternoon be came down stairs and opened the side door to watch a fight that was in progress in the alley, and that while thus engaged some one got in and in clearing the barroom, to let him have some beer. This intruder, Mr. of the Men's Union who reported him for a seeming violation. The Men's Union witnesses did not deny that Mr. Lisk's story was true except in that they did not observe any excitement in the alley when they were going in or coming out of They further said that while they were there another man came in and bought something that was probably liquor for which he tendered a $2 bill in payment. Court took the matter under advise-The petitioner was represented by Attorney E. C. Newcomb. Col. F. L. Hitchcock and F. E. Beers opposed
