Gleaners' Successful Venture.

The Little Gleaners of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, who have taken upon themselves the pleasant task of raising funds to help defray the church's expenses, conducted a very novel and interesting affair last evening at the homes of W. W. Davis and W. C. Williams, on South Hyde Park avenue.

They conceived the idea of making pillows and selling them, in addition to providing entertainment and refreshments, and the manner in which they succeeded was fully attested by the liberal patronage accorded them. The programme presented was thor-enjoyed and included vocal and instrumental numbers, recitations and drills. Each participant was accorded a full measure of applause for their efforts. Thirty-nine little girls recited "The Shepherd Boy" and another dozen gave a 5 o'clock tea cup drill. Miss May Davis recited eleverly and Virgie and Virona DePuy sang a

Miss Marie Becker rendered a very pretty solo and Ruth Bryant and Marjorie Utt sweetly sang a duet. Blanche Thomas, Minnie Thro and Gene Mun-son also sang and recited, and an instrumental trio was composed of the Misses Saxe.

Ice cream was afterwards served by the little misses and the guests voted the affair one of the most successful and pleasurable events of the season. In all probability similar entertainments will be provided during the winter.

Initial Suppers Popular.

The question has been asked "What is an initial supper?" And The Tribune correspondent has been requested to define this popular means of raising money. In several of the churches, notably the Simpson Methodist Episcopal, Plymouth Congregational, Jackson street and First Baptist churches, the ladies have banded together to raise money for church work They select a number of workers in he congregation whose names begin with certain initials and delegate them to provide a supper for several hundred people. Mrs. A. B and C furnish the linen and dishes, Mrs. D. E and F

Effects of the High Winds.

The unusually high winds of yesterhad the effect of causing many residents to return indoors last evening, and Main avenue was practically leserted as early as 8 c'clock. Many of the stores were closed earlier than usual and the usual crowd that gathrs on the street corners were conspicuous by their absence.

The Ringgold band, the popular musical organization of South Scranton, was presented last evening in Athletic hall with a handsome silk banner, the gift of Miss Keegan, of Pittston avenue, the presentation speech being neatly made by William Miller.

It was responded to in hearty words by Leader John B. Chase of the band, who accepted the banner in behalf of the organization. The banner, which is four feet wide by six long, is a splendid example of woman's skill and ingenuity in fancy needlework. The one side is of purple silk, with the words "Success and Prosperity to the Ringgold Band," ingenuously worked on with small gold

The other side hears the motto, "Eat, Drink and Be Merry," which the large assemblage did immediately after the ceremony, partaking of choice viands prepared by the ladies. The banner which is all hand made is valued at Gentlemen:—Eight years ago I suffered greatly with kidney trouble. I consulted several physicians, but their medicines did me no good. A friend or mine in the drug business suggested that I try Warner's Safe Cure. I followed the suggestion and after using a couple of bottles I noticed a slight improvement. I continued its use for about 18 months and am happy to say that it completely cured me. I have waited several years before giving this testimonial in order to see if my cure was permanent.
