TRUE BILLS OF THE GRAND JURY

Mayor Moir and Councilmen Indicted for Not Keeping Ransom Road in Good Repair.

court on Saturday by the grand jury was one indicting Samuel Billiot, of Carbondale, for murder. Billiot is charged with the murder of Edward Herbert, of that place. A most peculiar indictment was returned with the others. It indicts Mayor Moir and each and every one of the forty-two councilmen with maintaining a public nuisance. The prosecutor is Constable Joseph Dean, of the Twenty-first ward, who alleges that the road leading to Ransom township, on account of its deplorable condition, is a public nuisance, and the councils and he mayor are to blame in not appropriating money to keep it in repair. The list of true and ignored bills fol-

Funeral Services Over the Body of

Rev. Dr. Ransom Dunn. The funeral of the late Rev. Dr. Ransom Dunn was held yesterday afternoon, with services at the residence of Dr. L. M. Gates, at 309 Madison venue. The remains were removed to Hillsdale, Mich., for interment. arge number of the friends who loved and reverred the departed clergyman were present at the home at 4 o'clock, and took their last look at the face of the deceased. The remains rested in a front parlor, in a somber black casket and were surrounded by beautiful roses, lilies of the valley and other of the fragrant blossome, which Dr. Dunn loved so well. Rev. Richard Hiorns delivered the invocation, and Rev. Dr. C. E. Robin-son, of the Second Presbyterian church, then delivered an address, in which he paid a most beautiful testimonial to the memory of the deceased by saying that he was practically led into the ministry by hearing an address delivered by Dr. Dunn at Hillsdale many years ago. Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan also told of his life-long acquaintance, and the es-teem in which he held his departed They were associated with Avenue Baptist church, was in charge of the services, and in his address chose as his theme the following pass-"I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness." He gave a brief outline of Dr. Dunn's life, his birth in 1818, his call to the minstry when about 18 years of age, and of the way in which he began his life work, with a determination to win success, by the grace of God.

"He was an organizer of colleges, a preacher of righteousness," said Dr. Pierce, "and nothing speaks more of his grand life than the beautiful tes-timonials we have already heard, by those who knew him for so many years. He was a leader in his denomination, made so by his sound judgment and logical mind, and throughout his life was greatly blessed in pastoral and educational work."

Dr. Pierce concluded by quoting those lines, so applicable to the sub-ject upon which he discoursed: "Life's race well run; life's work well done; life's crown well won; now comes

Mrs. Frank Brundage, of the choir of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, sang in fine voice, "The Rock of Ages" and another selection.

The funeral procession then took its way to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station. The pallbearers were: Dr. D. A. Capwell, F. M. Horton, J. L. Stelle, Charles Henwood, S. F. Weyburn and H. A. Browning.

BURGLARS AT WORK ON SPRUCE STREET

Entry Was Made Into Places of Business of W. H. Davis and Reisman Brothers-A Small Haul.

The places of business of W. H. Davis, florist, at 427 Spruce street, and Reisman Brothers, newsdealers, at 405 Spruce street, were broken into yesterday morning by burglars, who, however, only secured a small booty, taking about $2 at Reisman's place and $4 or $5 at Davis' establishment. In each case entry was effected early yesterday morning by the intruders breaking in the panel in the door with a large brick. Through the hole thus made in the voodwork they slipped their hands and easily turned the locks. On their entry they broke open the cash drawers and rifled them of their contents. Florist Davis' money, however, was in a re-cently purchased safe, and the Reisman Brothers had already removed their day's receipts.

The burglars were in noways easily suited, as they evidently were after cash and cash alone. Many valuable pipes and boxes of cigars, cigarettes and other very portable articles were untouched.

The broken doors were discovered about 5 o'clock by Patrolman Schmidt who reported the matter to the central station. No clue has been, as yet, discovered to the identity of the burg-

AN OPERATIC CARNIVAL.

It Will Be Given Under the Auspices of Recital Club.

The arrangements for the operation carnival to be given for the Recital club, under the management of Madame Timberman-Randolph, are rapidly reaching completion. It will be the great musical and social event of the terest of the community. The Recital club is composed of many of the leading vocalists of the region and proposes to make itself into a permanent organization, which will hold a similar place in the field to that occupied by the Symphony orchestra. This will be its first appearance before the public, and the programme offered is to be one that will afford more pleasure than most of the professional operatic performances since it will embrace the best portions of several operas together with other pleasing features. Rehearsals, under the direction of Mrs. Dixie, are held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Already many of the boxes have been sold to prominent citizens, among them, E. L. Fuller, Colonel H. M. Boles, T. H. Watkins, C. S. Weston, C. R. Connell, Henry Belin, jr., J. B. Dimmick, T. E. Jones, W. W. Scranton, E. B. Sturges.

Among those who have tickets for sale are the members of the Recital club, Mrs. T. H. Watkins, Mrs. C. H. Welles, Mrs. Henry Belin, jr., Mrs. George Sanderson, Mrs. G. B. Smith, Mrs. A. M. Decker, Mrs. Mrs. J. A. Robertson, Mrs. L. S. Oakford, Mrs. H. M. Boies, Miss Richmond, Mrs. H. B. Ware, Mrs. J. W. Coolidge, Mrs. F. D. Brewster, Mrs. Lindaberry, Mrs. Berlinghoff, Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Mrs. F. W. Lange, Mrs. Surreth, Mrs. Mc-Dowell, Dr. Anna Clarke, Mrs. M. H. Holgate, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. W. G. Watson, of Pittston, Mrs. Priscilla Bennett and Mrs. Bullard, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. C. M. Lee and Mrs. J. E. Burr, Carbondale.

Tickets will also be on sale tomor row at Sanderson's Drug store and J. D. Williams & Bros., in Scranton and the West Side. It is expected that they will be in great demand for both performances, and so large is the probable advance sale, that many patrons have signified their intention of buying a large number as soon as the sale opens.

MR. ATHERTON'S SCHEME.

The last few meetings of the board of rade have not been very well attendd and Secretary Atherton has accordingly decided to entice the members to next Monday night's regular meeting by the announcement that an in-formal luncheon will be served at its close. This has generally had the effect in the past of bringing out a goody attendance and it is expected that b will do so tonight.

No especial business is expected to come up, though a report from the committee on legislation and taxes on the matter of the transition of Scranon to a second class city is looked for.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure only positive cure now known to the it fraternity. Catarrh being a constitumedical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitu-tional disease, requires a constitutional treat-ment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous sur-faces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprie-tors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testi-monials.

Jacob Fries gave a striking illustration of man's ingratitude Saturday night and paid a 83

fine as a result yesterday morning. He was sitting on a Penn avenue curbstone with the blood flowing from a small cut in his head. On Karius asking him where he received his injury, Fries surrily responded that it was none of his business, and then became so abusive that he was finally put under arrest. George Meade was fined $2 yesterday morning by Mayor Moir, on the charge of violating the city ordinance by selling jewelry without a license. He was arrested by Patrolman Day, who discovered him hawking a cheap ring on the street for which he asked $1. Two other rings were found in his pocket. Samuel Costigan, while in an intoxicated con-dition, early, yesterday morning approached a dwelling house at 339 South Washington avenue, and raised a window. The man who lived at the place noiselessly made his exit and in-formed Patrolman McMullen that a burglar was paying him a visit. On the patrolman's arri-val he found costigan lying at the door in a drunken stupor. He was fined $5 yesterday
