

The Modern Hardware Store. The Gem Safety Razor. You can be perfectly secure when shaving if you use a new Gem Safety Razor. Absolutely no danger of cutting yourself. No practice required to cut the hardest beard.

Foot & Shear Co. 119 N. Washington Ave. L. R. D. & M. A SHOE SAIL. People who count on proper shoes necessary to correct dress will be delighted with our new Fall and Winter Shoes now on exhibition.

LEWIS, RUDDY, DAVIES & MURPHY. 330 Lackawanna Avenue.

F. L. MEYER PICTURE FRAMING. 511 SPRUCE ST.

Lackawanna Laundry. THE Laundry. 205 Penn Avenue. A. B. WARMAN.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY. Local data for Nov. 11, 1900. Highest temperature 41 degrees. Lowest temperature 26 degrees. Humidity 75 per cent.

PERSONAL. Attorney and Mrs. Willard M. Bunnell have returned from a trip to Bloomsburg.

DEATH OF JOSEPH BIRTLEY. He was a District Engineer of the Fire Department.

A CONSPIRACY ALLEGED. Robinson and McDonald sue to Recover on Lacey Company Stock. B. S. Robinson, S. B. Robinson and Aaron McDonald, all stockholders in the old Scranton Lacey Company...

CONDENSED MILK. Dr. Hand's 18c; 3 for 50c. E. G. Coursen's Condensed Milk, 12c per can; $5.50 per case. Eagle Condensed Milk, 15c per can. Red Cross Condensed Milk, 10c per can.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

HORAN'S GREAT WORK ON LAFAYETTE'S TEAM. In Saturday's Game Against the University of Pennsylvania He was the Star Feature of the Game and Philadelphia's Experts Proclaim Him a Great Guard—Dr. John W. Hunter, the Junior Resident Surgeon at the Lackawanna Hospital.

Every season Scranton is represented on the gridiron by some one bright particular star who manages to make a showing that puts him easily up among the candidates for the "all college" eleven which the critics are wont to organize when the year's play is at an end. This season it looks as if John A. Horan, the ex-high school player, now at Lafayette, is the man who is to be relied upon to retain this distinction for the Electric City.

PRISON DOOR WILL OPEN FOR BEZEK. Board of Pardons Has Recommended That He Be Released from the Eastern Penitentiary.

The Philadelphia Press man seemed to be particularly attracted to Horan's great success in getting on to the ball after a fumble. These are some of his comments on that particular thing: "There were features galore to the game and fumbling was one of them. Hare fumbled, so did Potter, Hodge, McCracken—in fact, the list of men who handled the pliskin cleanly would be much shorter than a list of the fumblees. There was a man on the Lafayette team named Horan. He played left guard and just doted on fumbles—never seemed to tire of eating 'em alive. No matter where they came from, Penn elected to make a fumble, that man Horan was there ready and anxious to hug it to his moleskin heart. He was the most happy-go-lucky individual in this respect that ever wore a football suit."

Dr. John W. Hunter, the junior resident surgeon at the Lackawanna hospital, was one of the patriotic Republicans who had regard enough for his party's welfare to leave the city and journey to Philadelphia to cast his imperial ballot. With Dr. Charles W. Wunder, his colleague, he visited the City of Brotherly Love, exercised his right of citizenship, and has now returned.

Dr. Hunter, like both Dr. J. W. Busch, the senior house surgeon, and Dr. Wunder, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, having left college with the class of '96, of which Dr. Gengenbach and Dr. Welsberg, two ex-surgeons of the hospital, were also members. Dr. Hunter is a young man, and has been exceedingly well prepared for his profession. For four years he was a student at the Pennsylvania Military Academy at Chester, and from there entered the University of Pennsylvania. For three years he pursued the straight academic course and then began a course at the medical school.

He had three years in each of these departments, and at the splendid Pennsylvania medical school received magnificent grounding in the axioms and rules of the study of medicine. He is a man who is bound to make friends in the world by reason of his affable and genial nature, and his pleasant ways and cordiality have already earned him scores of friends here, who can foresee future laurels adorning the brow of the young physician.

TEDIOUS TASK NOW FINISHED

COUNT OF TUESDAY'S VOTE WAS COMPLETED YESTERDAY. Official Footings Give McKinley a Plurality in Lackawanna County of 2,035 and Congressman Connel Emerges from a Three-Cornered Fight with a Plurality Only 97 Less Than the Head of the Ticket. Upwards of 32,000 Votes Were Polled—Previous Records Broken.

Following are the official totals of the vote cast in Lackawanna county at last Tuesday's general election: PRESIDENT. McKinley, R. 16,763. Bryan, D. 14,728. Woolley, Pro. 806. McKinley's plurality 2,035.

VICE PRESIDENT. Roosevelt, R. 16,763. Stevenson, D. 14,728. Metcalf, Pro. 806. Roosevelt's plurality 2,035.

AUDITOR GENERAL. Hardenbergh, R. 14,954. Meek, D. 12,974. Gill, Pro. 773. Hardenbergh's plurality 1,980.

CONGRESSMEN-AT-LARGE. Grow, R. 15,601. Forrester, R. 14,903. Grim, D. 13,149. Edwards, D. 13,088. Hague, Pro. 723. Grumbine, Pro. 709. Grow's plurality 2,452. Forrester's plurality 1,804.

CONGRESS. Connell, R. 15,536. Conroy, D. 13,998. Richmond, Pro. 753. Spencer, Ind. Cit. 1,392. Connell's plurality 1,938.

JUDGE. Watson, R. 12,676. Kelly, D. 17,537. Smith, Ind. Cit. 273. Kelly's plurality 4,861.

SHERIFF. Fellows, R. 14,397. Schadt, D. 16,375. Davis, Pro. 659. Schadt's plurality 1,978.

TREASURER. Scranton, R. 15,434. Boland, D. 14,504. Carr, Pro. 785. Scranton's plurality 930.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY. O'Leary, R. 16,380. O'Malley, D. 13,828. Wedeman, Pro. 800. Lewis' plurality 2,554.

PROTHONOTARY. Copeland, R. 15,637. Norton, D. 14,011. Bedell, Pro. 707. Copeland's plurality 1,626.

CLERK OF THE COURTS. Daniels, R. 15,643. Law, D. 14,508. Robinson, Pro. 709. Daniels' plurality 1,135.

RECORDER OF DEEDS. Bonn, R. 15,941. Warnke, D. 14,184. Loveland, Pro. 752. Bonn's plurality 1,757.

REGISTER OF WILLS. Beck, R. 14,260. Koch, D. 15,651. Neuber, Pro. 714. Koch's plurality 1,391.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

HORAN'S GREAT WORK ON LAFAYETTE'S TEAM. In Saturday's Game Against the University of Pennsylvania He was the Star Feature of the Game and Philadelphia's Experts Proclaim Him a Great Guard—Dr. John W. Hunter, the Junior Resident Surgeon at the Lackawanna Hospital.

Every season Scranton is represented on the gridiron by some one bright particular star who manages to make a showing that puts him easily up among the candidates for the "all college" eleven which the critics are wont to organize when the year's play is at an end. This season it looks as if John A. Horan, the ex-high school player, now at Lafayette, is the man who is to be relied upon to retain this distinction for the Electric City.

PRISON DOOR WILL OPEN FOR BEZEK. Board of Pardons Has Recommended That He Be Released from the Eastern Penitentiary.

The Philadelphia Press man seemed to be particularly attracted to Horan's great success in getting on to the ball after a fumble. These are some of his comments on that particular thing: "There were features galore to the game and fumbling was one of them. Hare fumbled, so did Potter, Hodge, McCracken—in fact, the list of men who handled the pliskin cleanly would be much shorter than a list of the fumblees. There was a man on the Lafayette team named Horan. He played left guard and just doted on fumbles—never seemed to tire of eating 'em alive. No matter where they came from, Penn elected to make a fumble, that man Horan was there ready and anxious to hug it to his moleskin heart. He was the most happy-go-lucky individual in this respect that ever wore a football suit."

Dr. John W. Hunter, the junior resident surgeon at the Lackawanna hospital, was one of the patriotic Republicans who had regard enough for his party's welfare to leave the city and journey to Philadelphia to cast his imperial ballot. With Dr. Charles W. Wunder, his colleague, he visited the City of Brotherly Love, exercised his right of citizenship, and has now returned.

Dr. Hunter, like both Dr. J. W. Busch, the senior house surgeon, and Dr. Wunder, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, having left college with the class of '96, of which Dr. Gengenbach and Dr. Welsberg, two ex-surgeons of the hospital, were also members. Dr. Hunter is a young man, and has been exceedingly well prepared for his profession. For four years he was a student at the Pennsylvania Military Academy at Chester, and from there entered the University of Pennsylvania. For three years he pursued the straight academic course and then began a course at the medical school.

He had three years in each of these departments, and at the splendid Pennsylvania medical school received magnificent grounding in the axioms and rules of the study of medicine. He is a man who is bound to make friends in the world by reason of his affable and genial nature, and his pleasant ways and cordiality have already earned him scores of friends here, who can foresee future laurels adorning the brow of the young physician.

Assistant City Clerk Evan R. Morris is a man about whom little is ever heard, but he is one of the most energetic and efficient employees drawing a salary from the city. He is City Clerk Lavelle's right hand man and is nearly as well informed on local municipal affairs as is that city hall veteran. Mr. Morris is a Republican. Mr. Morris is elected every two years because council members realize that it would be difficult to

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

HORAN'S GREAT WORK ON LAFAYETTE'S TEAM. In Saturday's Game Against the University of Pennsylvania He was the Star Feature of the Game and Philadelphia's Experts Proclaim Him a Great Guard—Dr. John W. Hunter, the Junior Resident Surgeon at the Lackawanna Hospital.

Every season Scranton is represented on the gridiron by some one bright particular star who manages to make a showing that puts him easily up among the candidates for the "all college" eleven which the critics are wont to organize when the year's play is at an end. This season it looks as if John A. Horan, the ex-high school player, now at Lafayette, is the man who is to be relied upon to retain this distinction for the Electric City.

PRISON DOOR WILL OPEN FOR BEZEK. Board of Pardons Has Recommended That He Be Released from the Eastern Penitentiary.

The Philadelphia Press man seemed to be particularly attracted to Horan's great success in getting on to the ball after a fumble. These are some of his comments on that particular thing: "There were features galore to the game and fumbling was one of them. Hare fumbled, so did Potter, Hodge, McCracken—in fact, the list of men who handled the pliskin cleanly would be much shorter than a list of the fumblees. There was a man on the Lafayette team named Horan. He played left guard and just doted on fumbles—never seemed to tire of eating 'em alive. No matter where they came from, Penn elected to make a fumble, that man Horan was there ready and anxious to hug it to his moleskin heart. He was the most happy-go-lucky individual in this respect that ever wore a football suit."

Dr. John W. Hunter, the junior resident surgeon at the Lackawanna hospital, was one of the patriotic Republicans who had regard enough for his party's welfare to leave the city and journey to Philadelphia to cast his imperial ballot. With Dr. Charles W. Wunder, his colleague, he visited the City of Brotherly Love, exercised his right of citizenship, and has now returned.

Dr. Hunter, like both Dr. J. W. Busch, the senior house surgeon, and Dr. Wunder, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, having left college with the class of '96, of which Dr. Gengenbach and Dr. Welsberg, two ex-surgeons of the hospital, were also members. Dr. Hunter is a young man, and has been exceedingly well prepared for his profession. For four years he was a student at the Pennsylvania Military Academy at Chester, and from there entered the University of Pennsylvania. For three years he pursued the straight academic course and then began a course at the medical school.

He had three years in each of these departments, and at the splendid Pennsylvania medical school received magnificent grounding in the axioms and rules of the study of medicine. He is a man who is bound to make friends in the world by reason of his affable and genial nature, and his pleasant ways and cordiality have already earned him scores of friends here, who can foresee future laurels adorning the brow of the young physician.

Assistant City Clerk Evan R. Morris is a man about whom little is ever heard, but he is one of the most energetic and efficient employees drawing a salary from the city. He is City Clerk Lavelle's right hand man and is nearly as well informed on local municipal affairs as is that city hall veteran. Mr. Morris is a Republican. Mr. Morris is elected every two years because council members realize that it would be difficult to

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

HORAN'S GREAT WORK ON LAFAYETTE'S TEAM. In Saturday's Game Against the University of Pennsylvania He was the Star Feature of the Game and Philadelphia's Experts Proclaim Him a Great Guard—Dr. John W. Hunter, the Junior Resident Surgeon at the Lackawanna Hospital.

Every season Scranton is represented on the gridiron by some one bright particular star who manages to make a showing that puts him easily up among the candidates for the "all college" eleven which the critics are wont to organize when the year's play is at an end. This season it looks as if John A. Horan, the ex-high school player, now at Lafayette, is the man who is to be relied upon to retain this distinction for the Electric City.

PRISON DOOR WILL OPEN FOR BEZEK. Board of Pardons Has Recommended That He Be Released from the Eastern Penitentiary.

The Philadelphia Press man seemed to be particularly attracted to Horan's great success in getting on to the ball after a fumble. These are some of his comments on that particular thing: "There were features galore to the game and fumbling was one of them. Hare fumbled, so did Potter, Hodge, McCracken—in fact, the list of men who handled the pliskin cleanly would be much shorter than a list of the fumblees. There was a man on the Lafayette team named Horan. He played left guard and just doted on fumbles—never seemed to tire of eating 'em alive. No matter where they came from, Penn elected to make a fumble, that man Horan was there ready and anxious to hug it to his moleskin heart. He was the most happy-go-lucky individual in this respect that ever wore a football suit."

Dr. John W. Hunter, the junior resident surgeon at the Lackawanna hospital, was one of the patriotic Republicans who had regard enough for his party's welfare to leave the city and journey to Philadelphia to cast his imperial ballot. With Dr. Charles W. Wunder, his colleague, he visited the City of Brotherly Love, exercised his right of citizenship, and has now returned.

Dr. Hunter, like both Dr. J. W. Busch, the senior house surgeon, and Dr. Wunder, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, having left college with the class of '96, of which Dr. Gengenbach and Dr. Welsberg, two ex-surgeons of the hospital, were also members. Dr. Hunter is a young man, and has been exceedingly well prepared for his profession. For four years he was a student at the Pennsylvania Military Academy at Chester, and from there entered the University of Pennsylvania. For three years he pursued the straight academic course and then began a course at the medical school.

He had three years in each of these departments, and at the splendid Pennsylvania medical school received magnificent grounding in the axioms and rules of the study of medicine. He is a man who is bound to make friends in the world by reason of his affable and genial nature, and his pleasant ways and cordiality have already earned him scores of friends here, who can foresee future laurels adorning the brow of the young physician.

Assistant City Clerk Evan R. Morris is a man about whom little is ever heard, but he is one of the most energetic and efficient employees drawing a salary from the city. He is City Clerk Lavelle's right hand man and is nearly as well informed on local municipal affairs as is that city hall veteran. Mr. Morris is a Republican. Mr. Morris is elected every two years because council members realize that it would be difficult to

The hange. Of season on the calendar of sport is, "Off with the old and on with the new." That's what we say: Off with the old and on with our Green Valley Rye.

Give it a trial. We feel sure you will be pleased with the change.

2 and 2 Are 4. As sure as 2 and 2 are 4, so sure are you of securing an up-to-date hat at our store.

Low Priced Dress Goods. These cotton and wool stuffs have a decided style to them—style that almost equals their aristocratic brethren.

CONRAD'S. 305 Lackawanna Ave. 10c, 12c, 15c, 23c and 25c.

Plain Golf Skirting. There's an ever increasing demand for these very desirable skirtings. We offer for the first time a new lot of Plain Oxford Grey Skirtings.

The House Beautiful. Ever realize how important the CARPETS are in the furnishing of your home?

P. McCrea & Co. 427 Lackawanna Ave. RUGS, WINDOW SHADES.

Jewett Typewriter. D. W. WAGNER, 215 Board of Trade Building.

The Oriental. Oriental Pottery. The reigning novelty in bric-a-brac, sold by us exclusively.

Foot & Fuller Co. MEARS BUILDING, 140-42 Washington Ave.

Thanksgiving Day Fixings. Look to the Dining room—it's the most sought for on that day.

See Us. by all means before re-furnishing any part of the home.

Credit You? Certainly! THE ECONOMY. 221-223-225-227 Wyoming Ave.

ON THE SQUARE. 803 Washington Ave.

C. F. BECKWITH & CO., DEALERS IN Mine and Mill Supplies, Machinery, Etc.

W. H. Pierce, 19 Lackawanna Ave. 110, 112, 114 Penn Ave.

Pierce's Market, Penn Avenue. Receiving daily. Fancy Domestic Grapes, Concord, Wards, Niagara, Delaware, and other varieties.

Gruener & Co. 205 Wyoming Avenue. SPECIAL. To facilitate the introduction of this exquisite ware, we offer a beautiful Oriental vase for $1.00.