war than by the boys of this state. "Even after the monument itself has crumbled away," he emphatically announced, "the memory of the men for whom it was erected will remain fresh and green."

HISTORY OF MONUMENT.

The contract for the erection of the monument was let to the Harrison Granite Company, Nov. 23, 1899, by County Commissioners Giles Roberts, S. W. Roberts and John Demuth, who derived the authority to erect the monument from an act of assembly approved May 25, 1895.

CAMPFIRE FOR VETERANS

Last night all the Grand Army veterans and visiting guests who remained in the city were entertained at the rooms of the Grand Army post, by a roving, enthusiastic camp fire reception. The handsomely decorated rooms were thronged with local soldiers of the Rebellion, sons of veterans, Spanish-American war veterans, and guests from Wilkes-Barre, Nicholson, Condonville, and other surrounding places.
