RITOZ AND THE VEST.

Youth of Sixteen Is Accused of Larceny.

Tony Ritoz, a 16-year-old lad was prested Saturday afternoon, on a warrant issued by Alderman Millar, charging him with the larceny of a vest from a Spruce street tailoring establishment. When taken into cus-tody, the boy had on the vest in question, and Alderman Millar hebi him in $300 bail for his appearance at pourt.

Ritoz isn't of an age which might be called mature, and he therefore created a small furore in the alderman's office when he made a casual remark about being the victim of marital troubles. "Wh-a-at," gasped one of the by-standers, "you aren't married, are you, boy?" "Yes," was the calm rejoinder, "mo

> SERVANT GIRLS IN GERMANY. The Government Takes a Hand in Solving the roblem.

From the Chicago Record.

In Germany the government takes hand in the servant girl problem, as it does in almost everything else, and it has succeeded in partially solving at least one phase of the difficulty. It has reduced the servant girl's "flightiness" to a minimum; she cannot change places once a week the year round. For, when she moves the government, represented by the police, must know all about it, and if there is any difficulty or dispute disagreeable questions may be asked. Indeed, the process of employing
