By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Savannah, Ga., Nov. 19.—City Detective Jerry Shea was shot and instantly killed tonight by John Hart, in front of Carson's livery stable, of which Hart was the manager. The tragedy resulted from the infatuation of both men with a variety actress named Lizzie Johnson at the Alhambra Music Hall.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Warrant Out for the Arrest of Rev. D. C. Stuart, Former Pastor of Wyoming Baptist Church.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 19.—A sensational murder mystery has developed at Wyoming, near here, and the principal figure in it is Rev. D. C. Stuart, a former pastor of the Wyoming Baptist church. The pastor's wife died suddenly two weeks ago at the home of her daughter in Plymouth. She had been married but three months, and was ill only ten days. Her illness was not considered serious, and she died suddenly one day after her husband had carried dinner to her bedside. An empty bottle having the label of "carbolic acid" was found near the bed and suicide was suggested.

Stamens, suspicious circumstances have been brought to light, and the body was exhumed and an autopsy will be held on it. The reverend gentleman was asked to account for some money belonging to the church, which he failed to do, resigned his pastorate and fled to Philadelphia. A warrant has been issued by Squire Hess, of Wyoming, for the missing pastor, charging him with murder and abortion. Constable Kulp has gone to Philadelphia to locate the man.

BROWN LIVED HIGH.

Cashier's Salary Was $1,500 a Year, and He Often Spent That Amount in One Day.

Cincinnati, Nov. 19.—The experts who have been working to-day with Receiver Tucker on the books of the German national bank at Newport, Ky., place the shortage of Frank M. Brown, the missing assistant cashier and individual bookkeeper, at $191,500. According to reports from those who were with Brown when he left last Tuesday night he had less than $50 with him. Brown's salary was only $1,500 per year. Cases are now cited where he spent more than that amount in one day. His bond was for $10,000 and it is now as high as it goes.

WOMEN'S BICYCLE RACE.

Miss Gast Holds the Lead in Brooklyn Contest.

New York, Nov. 19.—At the conclusion of the fourth hour of the women's six-day bicycle race at the Clement avenue rink in Brooklyn, at 10:30 o'clock tonight, Miss Marguerite Gast, of Brooklyn, held the lead with 82 miles and 15 laps to her credit. Seven of the eight women who entered held the track. Miss Gast was closely pursued by Miss Lottie Brundton, of Canada, who was only two laps behind. These two fought hard for the lead, and there was continuous excitement during their sprints for the place. They were about equal when Miss Gast was nearest. Mrs. Emma Bayne, of Brooklyn, was the racing to continue from 2:30 to 4:30 each afternoon and from 8:30 to 10:30 in the evening. The track is seventeen laps to the mile.
