Resignations of Two Men Employed at the Lackawanna Station Accepted—Notes from the Cliff Works—The Board.

There were two changes made yesterday in the personnel of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad employees, owing to the resignations of Night Ticket Agent Alfred C. Schreiber and Special Agent Philip Goerlitz. Another new face was also seen in the freight office, where Frederick A. Bradley yesterday began his duties as stenographer for Division Freight Agent C. W. Ten Hoeck.

At the Cliff Works. The locomotive works of the Dickson Manufacturing company on Cliff street, are the scene of a hive-like activity these days. Work is being hurried on the big order recently given by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company and several other large jobs are being handled.

Regarding Air Brakes. An order was yesterday posted for engineers and trainmen of the Jersey Central railroad, governing the mode of handling air in connection with braking trains. It was signed by General Air Brake Inspector C. C. Farmer, superintendent of Motive Power W. McIntosh and others, and approved by General Superintendent J. H. Olhausen.

A Future for Nanticoke. According to the statements of several prominent gentlemen engaged in mining, Nanticoke, Luzerne county, has a greater future as a coal center than any other settlement or town of its kind within the entire anthracite region. The real work of developing this territory has just commenced.

It's Time Wasted. And strength wasted, to try to push back the rising tide with a broom. It's just as great a waste of time and a far more serious waste of strength to try to push back the rising tide of disease with the "nervines," "compounds" and "nerve foods" which simply drug the nerves into a drunken stupor.

eight per cent. of the annual output, and for two years have not been factors in the coal market. The railroads settled the recent strike without consulting them, and now practically control the policy of every mine.

BIDS FOR SCHOOL WORK.

Figures on two jobs for the School District. The board of control met in a brief special session last night to open bids for the erection of an annex to No. 35 building, and a retaining wall at No. 16.

LOCAL FOOT BALL.

The Eclipse and the Scranton High school scrub team played a very interesting game of foot ball yesterday afternoon at the Athletic park, in which the High school scrubs came out victorious by the score of 11-0.

The laborers employed at the Ashley shops who went out on strike several days ago, have been discharged and the officials will arrange to place men in their places. So far, they have not succeeded and the strikers say that the officials will have some trouble in getting men, as the majority of the laborers are affiliated with labor unions.
