

THE MODERN HARDWARE STORE
ODOR and SMOKE
Two things you do not have with the B. & B. Oil Heater. We mention a few things below which you do have: Extra large burner, seamless brass oil tank, bale to carry it, and best of all, heat.
Prices, $4.50, $5.00
Foote & Shear Co. 119 N. Washington Ave

L. R. D. & M.
A SHOE SAIL.
People who count in proper shoes necessary to correct dress will be delighted with our new Fall and Winter Shoes now on exhibition. A store full of new styles and every shoe a prize. For a full list of styles see the store.

LEWIS, RUDDY, DAVIES & MURPHY
330 Lackawanna Avenue.
L. MEYER PICTURE FRAMING
31 SPRUCE ST.

Lackawanna "THE" Laundry.
268 Penn Avenue. A. B. WARNAN.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.
Local data for November 23, 1906:
Highest temperature, 58 degrees
Humidity, 86 per cent
9 a. m., 64 per cent
5 p. m., 60 per cent

OLD MAN THE VICTIM OF BRUTAL ASSAULT
J. Rosenberg Was Cruelly Beaten by a Gang of Young Hoodlums on Capouse Avenue.

John Nicholsko, a 31-year-old lad living on Nichols street, was last night arraigned before Alderman Millar and held in $300 bail on the charge of being one of a gang of young hoodlums who yesterday assaulted and brutally beat J. Rosenberg, an old and inoffensive Hebrew glazier.
The old man was plying his trade on Capouse avenue when Nicholsko and the remainder of "the gang" caught sight of him and at first confined their abuse to calling him vile names and hailing him with various derisive epithets. There were fully ten persons in the crowd of persecutors, some of them mere boys and others men old enough to know better. After awhile they hurled stones at him and followed this up by falling upon him in masses and giving him a very severe drubbing.
They left him with his face cut in several places, his one arm hanging limp and stiff and altogether in a very badly bruised and injured condition. He painfully made his way to police quarters, and then, in company with City Detective Mohr, went back to the scene of the assault, and there identified young Nicholsko as one of his assailants. The later was then taken before Alderman Millar and given a hearing. Warrants will probably be served on the other boys and men to-day.

Reisenberg is a man well advanced in years and lives in Raymond court.
"Something New."
Have you seen the Jewett Typewriter, the Quigley Typewriter Desks, the Davis Spring Back Typewriting Chairs which D. W. Wagner is selling? It will pay you to call and see them even if you do not need them in your business at present. You can examine them at any time you call at 215 Board of Trade Building. No office is complete without these three articles. "The Jewett" was awarded the First Gold Medal and Diploma of Honor at the Manufacturers' Exposition held at Manchester, Eng., during October.

Excursion to New York City.
Ticket agents of the Lackawanna railroad will sell excursion tickets to New York City, good going on any regular train Dec. 6, return limit to and including Dec. 11, at rate of $5.35.
Mahon's Are Leaders
in ladies' fine footwear, 508 Lackawanna avenue. Open late Saturday night.
Dr. Shumway, Rectal Specialist.
Piles, fissure, fistula, ulceration, etc. Office at residence, 206 Jefferson avenue.
Steam Heating and Plumbing.
P. F. & M. T. Howley 231 Wyoming ave.
Men's English Enamels
at $2.00, $2.50, $4.00 and $5.00. Mahon's shoe store, 508 Lackawanna ave.

DEATH OF JAMES SWAN.
Was the Husband of Mrs. Frances Swan, Formerly of Scranton.
A telegram was received in this city yesterday announcing the death of James Swan, of Pasadena, Cal. Mr. Swan is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Bloom Swan, who is now alarmingly ill with congestion of the brain. Mrs. Swan was cast a few weeks ago to place her son, Frederick, in college, and on her return found her husband seriously ill.
Mr. Swan has not been in good health for some years and soon after his marriage to Mrs. Swan removed from Chicago to Pasadena, where he bought a magnificent home. He was a man of the intellectual and personal gifts and was secretary and treasurer of the Eckhardt-Swan Milling company, of Chicago, the greatest milling firm in America, whose rating is of the highest. He leaves a vast fortune. He is survived by two brothers, Samuel and Clarence, of Bridgeport, Conn.
Mrs. Swan, whose sudden illness is occasioning the deepest solicitude among her countless friends in this city, was a former member of the Scranton poor board, and is a lady whose great beauty and accomplishments, united with a wonderful charm of personality, made her a leader in social and philanthropic circles in this region.

SERIOUS RESULTS OF PLAYING SPOOK
Woman Receives a Serious Possibly Fatal Injury While Attempting to Scare Off an Undesirable Tenant.

As a result of playing spook, Mrs. John Noone, of Clover Hill, in the Third ward, lies in a critical condition with a wound on the head which, it is feared, may prove fatal, or at all events cause insanity.
Three months ago Mrs. Noone sold a small house to Stephen Doyle, her neighbor. He paid down $5 to bind the bargain and agreed to pay the balance in monthly installments. As the time for stated payments went by twice in succession without any remittance from the purchaser, Mrs. Noone sought to recover possession by ordering Doyle to quit the premises, but he stolidly refused and bade Mrs. Noone wait for her money.
Being desirous of recovering her property and undesirous of going to law about it, Mrs. Noone hit upon the novel expedient of scaring the occupant away.

Doyle was known throughout the neighborhood as being very superstitious and a firm believer in ghosts. Tuesday night, at the hour when graves are said to give up their dead, Mrs. Noone enshrouded herself in a white sheet and sallied forth to the Doyle home. By tossing small stones on the roof, rattling windows and shaking the doors she succeeded in not only arousing the ghostly terrorizing Doyle and his household, but also in seeing that she had them in a great state of consternation, Mrs. Noone thought to cap the climax by hurling a few stones through the window. This, however, proved her undoing.
The school of ghostology which the Doyle's professed taught that spooks could do no material damage. Some one of them, it does not develop which, was so firmly entrenched in this tenet that he or she was emboldened to open the door. Just at that moment Mrs. Noone was standing on the doorstep. The terrorized member of the Doyle household which had opened the door was more terrorized at coming face to face with the apparition on the door-step, and in the fit of terror with which he made the weapon raised a club or some other weapon and brought it down on the head of the figure in white. The blow caused a depression of the skull, and Dr. Sullivan, who is attending her, hesitates to say what the consequences will be. The Doyle's are still in possession of the house.

STAFF OF THE HOSPITAL.
Chosen by Directors of the Hahnemann Institution.
The directors of the Hahnemann hospital held a meeting last night at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. J. H. Miles. At the conclusion of the session a supper was served to the guests.
The hospital staff was reorganized, as follows: Dr. J. W. Coolidge, Dr. F. D. Brewster, Dr. G. J. Berlinghoff, Dr. H. E. Wagoner, Dr. J. L. Peck, Dr. P. D. Heller, Dr. L. Lipidary, Dr. C. W. Roberts and Dr. Purcell.
Dr. Coolidge was elected surgeon-in-chief; Dr. F. D. Brewster, chief of medical staff; Dr. H. B. Ware, eye, ear, nose and throat; Dr. J. L. Peck, resident physician; Dr. J. P. Fursell, consulting physician on nervous diseases. The need of enlarging the building now occupied was discussed.

Scranton Business College.
Students are securing positions almost at the rate of one a day.
Resists to file for four bookkeepers and stenographers, one of whom being for a young man bookkeeper, salary $75 per month. No one to send.
Herman Schmalz, sent to act as time-keeper and assistant bookkeeper in the office of the N. Y. E. and W. R. R., at Stroudsburg. This is the third student sent to that office.
Clayton Pegley, sent to Passenger Agent Smith, of the D. L. and W. R. R.
Frank Hildebrand secures a position with Auditor Baker, of the coal department, D. L. and W. R. R. This is the fifth student in this office.

Ladies' Garments.
The largest selection of Ladies', Misses' and Children's ready to wear garments ever shown in this city, at special prices today.
Mears & Hagen.
Important Changes
in Delaware and Hudson time table Nov. 25. See table in this paper.
Miss Mickle will add two new classes in Physical Culture—a ladies' class on Tuesday and Friday at 3; children, 8 to 10 years, Saturday at 10.
A Seventy-five Dollar Position.
Principals Buck and Whitmore, of the Scranton Business college, have on file a request for a young man bookkeeper, salary of seventy-five dollars per month. No one to send.

KILLED BY A WOMAN'S HAND
Mrs. Pasquale Bevalacqua Fired Two Shots Into the Body of Mrs. Antonio Rose.

A COLD BLOODED MURDER
The Crime Occurred in the Kitchen of the Home of Mrs. Lucy Moresco at 1226 Capouse Avenue, Where Mrs. Rose Was Visiting—The Murderess Arrested and Will Be Given a Hearing Today—The Affair Was the Culmination of a Series of Suits and Cross Suits Brought by Both Parties—Verdict of Coroner's Jury.

For the first time in the history of Lackawanna county, one woman has deliberately and with apparent malice aforethought, killed another.
The crime occurred yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, when Mrs. Pasquale Bevalacqua fired two shots at Mrs. Antonio Rose, killing her almost instantly. The murderess made no effort to escape. She is now in the central police station and will be given a hearing this morning.
The women are Italians and investigation shows that bad blood existed between them for some time past, yet the affair being the culmination of a series of suits and counter-suits brought first by one and then by the other.

SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY.
The scene of the crime was a two-story frame dwelling at 1226 Capouse avenue, occupied by the grand floor by Mrs. Lucy Moresco and on the second floor by Mrs. Bevalacqua herself. The only eye-witness of the affair was Annie Moresco, Mrs. Moresco's 17-year-old daughter.
The murder was committed in the kitchen of the Moresco home, where Mrs. Rose was visiting. Mrs. Bevalacqua came into the room, quarreled with Mrs. Rose, and finally, drawing a revolver, shot the latter. Mrs. Rose gathered enough strength to rush toward the front of the house, but got no further than a bedroom, which is the second room from the kitchen. There she fell, and there she died almost instantly.

CAUSE OF TROUBLE.
On September 22 last, the Bevalacquas had Mrs. Rose arrested on the charge of assault and battery and malicious mischief. The warrants were issued by Alderman B. W. Cooney, of Dunmore, who held Mrs. Rose under bail for court. The case came before the grand jury at its last session and a true bill was found against her.
On September 28, or four days later, Pasquale Bevalacqua had Mrs. Rose arrested again charging her with breaking the door of his home and throwing his furniture out of the house. The grand jury also returned a true bill against her in this case.
On September 22, Mrs. Rose had the Bevalacquas, both husband and wife, arrested. She charged Mrs. Bevalacqua with assault and battery, and with pointing a revolver, threatening to kill her with it. She did not appear before the grand jury until it was too late, and the bill was accordingly ignored. Her attorney, M. P. Cawley, claims that she had the Bevalacquas arrested before they had her taken into custody, and that theirs were the cross suits.

CAUSE OF TROUBLE.
The fact that at that time Mrs. Bevalacqua pointed a revolver at Mrs. Rose and that yesterday when she came into the house she had the weapon in her pockets leads the police authorities to the belief that the murder was premeditated.
The last case in which the two parties were involved was one before Alderman Millar on Nov. 8. At that time the Bevalacquas sued Mrs. Rose for damage done their furniture, which they, the Bevalacquas, charged her with throwing out. The alderman gave them a verdict in the sum of $80, but an appeal was taken and is still pending.
The alderman stated to a Tribune man yesterday that the meeting was an exceedingly lively one and that the two women kept passing back and forth vile epithets at one another.

Scholarships.
The combined scholarship (a contract entitling the holder to both complete courses), now offered by the Scranton Business College for $100, is so liberal a contract that very many are purchasing it. This offer will soon be withdrawn.
Spend Your Evenings Profitably.
Young men and women who are employed during the day should qualify themselves to earn larger salaries by spending their evenings at the Scranton Business College night school.

Corn.
We offer today our new pack Maine Corn under our private label, which we guarantee better than fresh corn on the cob, 15c per can.
Coursen's Sweet Blossom Maine Corn, $1.50 per dozen.
Souvenir Corn—Fancy York State Corn, 10c; $1.00 doz.
E. G. Coursen
429 LACKAWANNA AVE.

PHONES ARE BEING PUT IN LACKAWANNA CO. IS PUSHING THE WORK.
Installing of the Enlarged Switch-board Will Delay Date of Opening Up the Lines for Service—Line Between Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Finished and in Two Weeks the Line to Carbondale Will Be Completed—Long Distance Connections That Are Arranged For.

THE WORK OF INSTALLING THE telephones of the Lackawanna Telephone company has started with a click and is progressing rapidly. Three gangs of men are at work and in three weeks' time it is expected that all the telephones in the central part of the city will be ready for use.
The company's poles, with their white cross-pieces, are now up in every part of the city where the lines will run and the work of stringing the aerial cables has been commenced. Still another gang of men is employed in putting in the underground cables, and already some 50,000 feet have been laid down through the conduits.

WILL TAKE TWO MONTHS.
The electrician in charge of the work, stated yesterday to a Tribune man that it would take two months to put the lines together and get it in proper working order, so it may be inferred from this that it will be along about February 1 before any of the company's system can be used.
General Manager Wayland stated to the Tribune man that the original order was for a switch-board with 2,400 drops, but that the company had received so many contracts that 600 new drops had to be ordered. The augmented switch-board, he said, represented an outlay of nearly $50,000.
The line between Wilkes-Barre and Scranton has been finished, while the line between this city and Carbondale is nearing completion. Two gangs are working on it from both directions and it is expected that they will come together at Blakely in about two weeks. The city lines are connected to the Dunmore line, but no farther, but the company has strong hopes of being able to secure a franchise in that borough.

DEATH OF SIR ARTHUR SULLIVAN.
Sir: Seeing in your issue of this morning an account of the death of Sir Arthur Sullivan, I may not be amiss for me to contribute a word of regret at the death of England's child of fame. His going, the world will acknowledge in a more or less degree. As a composer his works will inspire when they have long forgotten. The world has been benefited by his presence upon this planet, and his compositions have enchanted and lent an uplifting influence wherever they have been heard. His labors in the field of his God-given talent have added another jewel in the already illustrious Victorian era.
His passing to join the immemorial Chorus will awaken a keen regret to lovers of music of every land. England's loss is this country's sorrow. The world can ill afford to lose such a musical genius. Such intrinsic side as add to the art and merit the world's praise. Public and royal recognition he received.
—Frederick Barnell, Scranton, Pa., Nov. 23, 1906.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.
[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when appropriate, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.]
Death of Sir Arthur Sullivan.
Editor of the Tribune:
Sir: Seeing in your issue of this morning an account of the death of Sir Arthur Sullivan, I may not be amiss for me to contribute a word of regret at the death of England's child of fame. His going, the world will acknowledge in a more or less degree. As a composer his works will inspire when they have long forgotten. The world has been benefited by his presence upon this planet, and his compositions have enchanted and lent an uplifting influence wherever they have been heard. His labors in the field of his God-given talent have added another jewel in the already illustrious Victorian era.
His passing to join the immemorial Chorus will awaken a keen regret to lovers of music of every land. England's loss is this country's sorrow. The world can ill afford to lose such a musical genius. Such intrinsic side as add to the art and merit the world's praise. Public and royal recognition he received.
—Frederick Barnell, Scranton, Pa., Nov. 23, 1906.

For a Cold in the Head
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets.
To Knot or Not to Knot.
New neckwear, displayed today in all its glory. New shapes, narrow four-in-hands, New Tecks, Bows, Strings, Imperials and Butterflies.
All the colors of the rainbow, and a few reigning colors that the rainbow never had.
50c.
"ON THE SQUARE"
803 Washington Ave.

The Oriental
White Chinn
We are now unloading a large invoice of French "Elite" and German white novelties—the china decorator's delight. Stock not yet in order—but those in haste may have their wants gratified. German white china at about one-half the price of the French articles.
We attend to the firing, too.
SPECIAL.
A blue-and-white, of German White Chinn, is offered during the balance of this week at 35c
This ware sold exclusively by Gruener & Co.
205 Wyoming Avenue.

Pierce's Market, Penn Avenue
Receiving daily, Fancy Domestic Grapes, Concord, Wordens, Niagaras, Delawares, and other varieties. Also Malaga and Tokay Grapes, Pears, Pound Sweet Apples and Quinces, Cauliflower, Lima Beans, Spinach, Boston Head Lettuce, Celery Etc.
Strictly New Laid Eggs, Fancy Creamery Butter.
W. H. Pierce,
19 Lackawanna Ave. 110, 112, 114 Penn Ave.

It's All Over
And it's no news to our regular customers that we are selling the BEST GOODS IN TOWN
We Want Everybody to Know It.
CASEY BROS
216 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, Pa.
PHONE 212.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.
John Altman's Horse's Wild Dash Down Lackawanna Avenue.
John Altman, a South Washington avenue junk dealer, met with an accident yesterday afternoon, which luckily had no serious results, when the horse-drawing his wagon suddenly took fright and dashed down West Lackawanna avenue and over the bridge at a rate of speed which endangered life and limb.
After making its wild rush down the hill, the animal crossed the bridge and collided with a huckster's outfit in front of the Columbia hotel. Altman was thrown from the wagon and was almost buried under a miscellaneous collection of bones, rubbers, old iron, etc., while his horse dashed up the avenue in its Mazepa-like career, leaving the outfit behind it.
A number of spectators came to Altman's rescue, and as he arose and gazed ruefully at a badly bruised hand and felt the cut skin over his one eye, he anxiously queried in broken English: "Und vere is der horse?" The animal was captured after it had gone a short distance.

CONRAD'S
305 Lackawanna Avenue
For Sale or Exchange
The Well-Known
Modern Residence 605 Clay Ave.
Lot 80 feet front by 160 feet deep.
FRUIT, SHADE TREES, BARN
One of the finest resident properties in the city.
A. N. KERR,
129 Wyoming Avenue.

Moritz Moszkowski
WRITES TO Mason & Hamlin
REGARDING THE
Mason and Hamlin Pianoforte
The eminent musician, composer, teacher and pianist, now in Paris, writes in a recent letter warm words of praise in regard to the new scale Mason & Hamlin Pianoforte. Moszkowski says, among other things, "It has a full, singing tone and a most satisfactory action. As a whole, the instrument I believe to be of the very first rank."

The Full Dinner Pail
Will never present appetizing allurements equal to our Wicker Lunch Baskets which cost but little more. Prices 25c to 75c. Mail orders receive prompt attention.
Foot & Fuller Co.
NEARS BUILDING,
140-142 Washington Ave.

Lace Curtains
This morning we place on sale 200 pairs of lace curtains at an extremely low figure. This is a sale of an importer's broken lots and they won't last long at the price, 49c pair.
A very effective low-price curtain, in white or ecru, three yards long by thirty-four inches wide.
Lively selling while they last.
CREDIT YOU? CERTAINLY!
THE ECONOMY
231-233-235-237 Wyoming Ave.

Pierce's Market, Penn Avenue
Receiving daily, Fancy Domestic Grapes, Concord, Wordens, Niagaras, Delawares, and other varieties. Also Malaga and Tokay Grapes, Pears, Pound Sweet Apples and Quinces, Cauliflower, Lima Beans, Spinach, Boston Head Lettuce, Celery Etc.
Strictly New Laid Eggs, Fancy Creamery Butter.
W. H. Pierce,
19 Lackawanna Ave. 110, 112, 114 Penn Ave.