THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICES

HELD IN FIRST WELSH BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Interesting Programme Rendered by Members of the School—George Wyatt Dies from Injuries Received in the Mines—News of the Various Churches—Mr. Reynolds' Position Defined—West Scranton Water Supply—Y. W. C. A. Notes and Other Paragraphs of Interest.

Thanksgiving exercises were held yesterday afternoon in the Sunday school of the First Welsh Baptist church. The services were opened with singing from the Gospel hymns and Superintendent David J. Davis delivered an address. The Scripture lesson was read by Miss Sarah Meredith, and prayer was offered by Hon. John T. Williams. Miss Beth Lewis played a violin solo, and a quartette composed of John Evans, William Hughes, Barbara and Elizabeth Lewis, sang two selections, "Home of Rest," and "Draw Me Nearer."

Recitations were given by Alma Geary, Pearl Jenkins and Effie LeBar, Miss Lila Watkins played a piano solo, and Miss Sarah Lewis sang a pleasant solo, "Not Far From the Kingdom." David W. Davis rendered "Lead Kindly Light," in an effective manner, and Miss Jennie Williams read a paper on "The Origin of Thanksgiving." At the conclusion of the programme an address was delivered by the general superintendent, John D. Phillips, and the closing prayer was offered by Superintendent Davis.

Plymouth Congregational Church. Tomorrow evening Sunday school class No. 8, taught by T. A. Eyrone, will conduct an entertainment and social in the church. An excellent programme has been prepared and ice cream will be served.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold their weekly session on Wednesday. Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the church on Thursday morning, commencing at 10 o'clock.

The usual weekly prayer meeting will be held on Thursday evening, after which the Sunday school teachers will meet.

The choir will hold their rehearsal at 7 o'clock.

First Baptist Church. At the First Baptist church the pastor, Rev. S. F. Matthews preached in the morning from the tenth verse of the fifty-first Psalm, "Create in me a clean heart, O God." In the evening he took his text from the thirteenth verse of the same Psalm.

SOUTH SCRANTON

THEIR FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kraemer, of Stone Avenue, celebrated the happy event on Saturday night—Patrick Lavelle's Hand Cut Off—Thos. Flaherty Injured—Funeral of Chas. Britton Held from His Late Home. An Apron Social to Be Conducted. Other News and Personal Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kraemer, of 115 Stone Avenue, celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary on Saturday evening, and in honor of the happy event a large number of their relatives and friends gathered at their home.

The evening, which was spent gaily in amusements, was enlivened by the appearance later of the members of the Junger Maennerchor, who sang beautifully several selections, and the Forest band, which also gave a delightful concert.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Klotz, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kraemer, Mr. and Mrs. John Stoeber, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kraemer, Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Hankschaft and Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman.

Patrick Lavelle, of Genet street, a well-known young man, was the victim of a most distressing accident on Saturday evening at the South steel mills. Young Lavelle is employed as a brakeman, and while coupling cars, shortly before 7 o'clock, he slipped. His left arm, at the wrist, was caught between the bumper and cars, badly smashed.

A Moses Taylor hospital ambulance was called and he was taken to the hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the injured member.

Thomas Flaherty, of Cherry street, employed as a brakeman at the South works, had his right foot run over yesterday by an empty iron car. The member was badly crushed. He was removed to the hospital and had his wounds dressed, and was later taken home.

Funeral of Charles Britton. Charles E. Britton, who died on Wednesday at the Soldiers' Home at Erie, was buried yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his son-in-law, R. M. Coes, of 514 Pear street, with many friends. The services at the house were in charge of Rev. E. P. Doty, of the Cedar Avenue Methodist church, who preached an eloquent and touching funeral sermon.

The funeral was in charge of Ezra Griffin post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic, who turned out in a body. Interment was made in Washburn street cemetery. The pall-bearers were taken from Post 139.

An Apron Social. Tomorrow night the Ladies' Aid society of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church will hold an apron social in the old church building on Hickory street. More than 500 aprons have already been made and are ready for sale.

There will be all kinds of aprons on sale. There will be aprons to use and aprons to look at; aprons to scrub in and aprons to knit. The aprons will have pockets and aprons with white, red, pink aprons and aprons of all hues.

Largely attended memorial services, in memory of those members who died during the church year, were held yesterday, both morning and evening, in the Prospect Avenue Church of Peace.

Rev. E. J. Schmidt, preached appropriate sermons on both occasions and read at each meeting the list of members whose funeral orations he had preached during the year.

The gospel meeting of the South Scranton Young Women's Christian association, held yesterday afternoon, was led by Miss Anna Y. Musselman, secretary of the North Scranton Young Women's Christian association, and was well attended and marked by deep spiritual interest. Special music was rendered.

The Junger Maennerchor and Abbeiter Verein held a largely attended practice meeting yesterday afternoon in Germania hall, on Cedar avenue. The two societies are preparing for the benefit to be given Wednesday evening in Workman's hall, on Alder street, to make response to Prof. Gustav Schmidt. The class of music rendered by these two societies needs no mention to the music-loving people of the South Side.

Charles Lovett, of Alder street, a hoodlum, was shot and killed Saturday afternoon. He was celebrating his twenty-seventh birthday Saturday. In the evening he was serenaded by a double quartette from the Junger Maennerchor.

Important Sale of Cloaks and Furs.

Splendid Garments From Manufacturers at Special Prices. Manufacturers of Cloaks and Suits in New York and Philadelphia find a new problem confronting them this season—the problem of warm weather. In no sense has it been "cloakly" weather. Many of the best makers in the country find themselves with immense stocks on hand; the market is flooded. They are ready to begin their product of garments for next Spring and Summer, but they have no room to do so. So they are unloading everything in sight.

At Prices Much Less Than Regular. We had the pick of the best of these bargains in New York last week. Practically made our own prices on them. Bought them to sell—you shall get them just as cheap as we did. Ready Monday morning, and until Thanksgiving.
