Mohr, of Nay Aug; for vice president, Emil Bonn, of Centuria; for treasurer, A. B. Holmes, of Columbia; for secretary, W. B. Birtley, of Liberty, and Richard Farrell, of William Connells; for trustees, W. W. Simpson, of Liberty, and D. J. Newman, of Crystals; for solicitor, A. A. Vosburg.

MONOLOGUIST HOWE.

Delighted at a Fine Audience at St. Luke's Parish House.

A house crowded to the doors greeted Willard D. Howe last night at St. Luke's Parish hall in the monologue "An American Citizen," adapted by Edward B. Elliot. It is much of a risk to attempt to give an entire play as a monologue and hold an audience, but it is to the everlasting credit of Mr. Howe, the brilliant young man whose native home is West Pittston, that he performed this feat and wore no one. He impersonated ten characters during the evening and incidentally told a charming love story in connection with unfolding of the plot.

SPEND YOUR EVENINGS PROFITABLY.

Young men and women who are employed during the day should qualify themselves to earn larger salaries by spending their evenings at the Scranton Business College night school.
