

WEST SCRANTON

COMING EVENTS FOR DECEMBER

CHURCH AND SECRET SOCIETIES ACTIVELY ENGAGED.

All Are Making Preparations for Enjoyment During the Holiday Season—Republican Club, Ladies' I. C. B. U., Robert Morris Lodge and C. M. B. A. Nominate and Elect Officers—Entertainment Provided at the Carnival—Other Shorter Paragraphs of Interest.

Judging from the appended list of events scheduled for the coming month in social, church and society circles, in West Scranton, there is an unusual activity among the young people. The increase earnings of the semi-monthly distribution of wages among them, has had a beneficial effect in stimulating festiveness.

The Young People's society of the First Welsh Congregational church will conduct an entertainment and social on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13. There is nothing superstitious about this, and they have received the original idea of charging an admission fee of 15 cents, and a similar amount for refreshments.

The dine supper announced for Tuesday evening, Dec. 11, at Fortie hall, under the auspices of Camp No. 25, Patriotic Order of Americans, has been postponed until Tuesday, Jan. 16, and all who have told tickets for next week are requested to notify the purchasers of the change.

The twenty-eighth Anniversary, entertainment and social of the Washington camp, No. 128, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will be held at Meers' hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 12. Each ticket purchased entitles the holder to a chance on a fine all-weather umbrella.

The Young People's society of the First Welsh Congregational church will conduct an entertainment and social on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Shedd, on South Sumner avenue. An interesting program will be presented.

The members of the Electric City Wheelmen will conduct an entertainment and social at the club house on Friday evening, Dec. 11. The program will be published later.

Branch No. 41 of the Catholic Mutual Beneficial association will hold their annual election of officers in Hart Gari hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 12.

The drawing for a silk umbrella under the

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS AND COLDS TAKE DUFOR'S FRENCH TAR.

THE DRAWING FOR A SILK UMBRELLA UNDER THE

retary David J. Davis (attorney); financial secretary, Palmer Williams; treasurer, Ely Harris and Daniel Jay Reese; conductor, M. Rowland Taylor; steward, Louis A. Howell; inside sentinel, Howard Davis; outside sentinel, Roger Evans, John H. Phillips, John D. Edwards; trustee, David J. Davis (book-keeper); delegates to grand lodge meeting, at Bayside, James M. Powell, John R. Edwards, Ely Harris. Several amendments to the by-laws were adopted at the meeting. The election of officers will occur at the meeting two weeks hence.

Entertainment at Carnival. The success of the doll's carnival is doubly assured from the patronage it has received during the week, and the entertainment provided has been the means of attracting additional crowds each evening. Last night an excellent program was given and the night-dancers acquitted themselves creditably.

Tonight promises to be the "star" of the carnival, The Elm Park church quartette will sing several numbers. They are Miss Elizabeth Thomas, soprano; Miss Duncanson, alto; Alfred Wood, tenor; and Miss Warren, bass. Ventriloquist Charles Hartley will give his inimitable entertainment, and Miss Beatrice Morris will recite. Mr. Warren has also consented to sing a solo, and a violin solo will be added.

Republican Club Meeting. A regular meeting of the West Side Republican club was held last night, at which officers were nominated as follows:

For president, Frank B. Reese and Charles E. Daniels; for vice-president, Charles E. Arker and Charles E. Daniels; for secretary, Charles E. Daniels; for financial secretary and treasurer, Palmer Williams and David Jeremy Davis; for trustees, William J. Thomas and W. E. Thayer; for janitor, Lewis E. Dwyer.

The election will take place at the first regular meeting in January. Ex-Patrolman Stephen Dyer was elected to membership.

Royal Arcanum Meeting. The members of Lackawanna council, No. 125, Royal Arcanum, will hold another of their regular meetings at Fortie hall this evening, when Attorney Cornelius Comings will deliver an address on the subject of "Death and Taxes." Every member is urged to be present.

Another important feature of the meeting will be the annual election of officers, and inasmuch as this is an event which requires much deliberation and thought, the members are expected to attend and participate in this election.

The subject for discussion at the meeting on Friday evening, December 21, will be "Socialism." As there are several sides to this question, it behooves the members of Lackawanna council to attend and participate in the meeting and find out which part of the subject they are expected to talk on.

C. M. B. A. Officers Elected. The members of the ladies' branch, No. 97, of the Catholic Mutual Beneficial association, have elected the following officers for the coming year:

President, Miss Mary McHale; first vice-president, Miss Mary Jordan; second vice-president, Miss Margaret Hadjig; recording secretary, Miss Winifred Haggerty; assistant recording secretary, Miss Winifred Haggerty; financial secretary, Miss Mary Harrison; treasurer, Miss Mary McHale; guard, Mrs. Anna Gill; trustee, Miss Sarah McDonald; Miss Alice Grant; Miss Margaret Trainor.

Miss Sarah McDonald was elected delegate to the annual convention to be held at Detroit next July, with Miss Sarah McHale as alternate.

To the Republican Voters of the Fifth Ward. Notice is hereby given that a caucus of the Republican voters of the fifth ward of the city of Scranton will be held at the various polling places in said ward on Saturday, December 15, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m., for the purpose of nominating Republican candidates for the offices of common council, clerk of the court, and judges of election and inspectors of election.

All persons intending to become candidates for said nominations are hereby notified to register with James P. Thomas, 218 Fifth street, on or before Tuesday, December 11, 1900.

By order of the Vigilance Committee.

NOTES AND PERSONALS. Miss Bessie Phillips, of South Main avenue, is spending a few days with friends in New York.

Mrs. Davitt, of Pittston, is the guest of Mrs. J. Phillips, of South Main avenue.

Miss Mabel Dersheimer, of South Main avenue, is entertaining Miss Towner, of Hornesville, N. Y.

The following officers have been elected in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Sunday school: Superintendent, George H. Peck; first assistant, Robert J. Williams; second assistant, William H. Hagen; third assistant, Edmund Warner; secretary, Louis Jones; treasurer, Jay Reese; librarian, Harry Randall; pianist, Gustav Fritz.

Rev. W. Russell Williams, a Welsh preacher, who is visiting friends here, preached a sermon at the South Main Avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church last evening.

The remains of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilble, of North Elmire avenue, were interred in the Washburn street cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The Broadway Athletic club held their second annual entertainment and dance in Meers' hall last evening. The program of singing, dancing, recitations, etc., was rendered and Miss Kate Reardon played for the dance which followed.

William Gilroy, of Jackson street, has been arrested for committing a social occasion. They will serve splendid suppers this evening for 25 cents, and also sell ice cream.

The stationary engineers met last evening at Mr. May's hall, on West Market street.

Harry A. Smith, of North Main avenue, is convalescing after an attack of typhoid fever. He is visiting Mr. G. W. Simons, of Hamilton, Wayne county.

Mrs. J. B. Wood, of Church avenue, is also recovering from a serious attack of typhoid fever.

The Eastern Star commandery, No. 221, Knights of Malta, will hold an important meeting on Saturday evening, Dec. 8, at 7.30. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

Leviand Morgan, who was formerly employed by R. A. Stevens, has returned to the home he will reside with his father.

John Owens, of North Main avenue, who has been away on a business trip, has returned.

Andrew Smith, Jr., who is now confined at the Marine, took a solo party through the mine last evening, and an enjoyable time was had by every one.

The Lackawanna railroad early yesterday morning, was fined $15 by Alderman Moses in police court yesterday.

Harry Jenkins, the druggist, has returned home from a week's pleasure trip to New York and Philadelphia.

John Fern, outside foreman at the Oxford, and Wallace G. Moore, a reporter on The Times, have announced themselves as candidates for select and common council respectively in the Fourth ward.

James Hastings, of Meridian street, was arraigned before Alderman Kelly last evening on a charge of selling liquor without a license. He was committed for 30 days in default of a fine of $25 and costs.

There was a preaching service last night in the Allis Mission on Keyser avenue. Rev. J. B. Sweet, D. D., was the speaker.

Guernsey Hall is the place to buy a beautiful piano or organ for a Christmas gift. Call and get prices and terms. J. W. Guernsey, proprietor, 314-316 Washington avenue, Scranton, Pa.

That the St. John's basket ball team (the Defenders) is the undisputed champion of the county, was again demonstrated last evening before a large and enthusiastic audience in St. John's hall, Stone avenue, when they met the strong North End Stars and routed them after a most fierce and stubborn game. The score was 10 to 0.

The boys from North Scranton are some "shucks" when it comes to playing basket ball and are very aggressive and plucky, but the superior tactics and defense of the St. John's team on their lighter opponents. By winning this game the St. John's team has secured a permanent hold on the championship, having defeated all the teams played thus far.

The line-up was as follows:

Defenses: Stars: Roland.....forward.....Starr; Melnyre.....forward.....M. Clocky; Tigue.....center.....Jones; Haddock.....left center.....Comely; Haddock.....right center.....John Seyler; Grogan.....guard.....Bitterman; Moriarty.....guard.....Tuttle; Bishler, Melnyre, J. Quinn, J. Tigue, J. Adams, J. Rogers, M. J. Volney, Simpson, McInroy and Davis; timekeepers, Murphy and Benjamin.

The gymnasium team will play the St. John's next Thursday night in St. John's hall.

At the Fair. As the Athletic club fair progresses interest grows in the throngs which crowd the hall are becoming more dense each night. There is also a notable thinning out of the many choice bits of lace, embroidery and china-ware, which sagacious housewives are picking up here and there, having purchased, knowing well what they are worth.

The door prize on Wednesday evening was won by No. 563 and consisted of a handsome water set donated by Miss Patricia Linkins, whose Brothers' Mandolin club was the star attraction last night, and their excellent performance of different numbers on the mandolin and guitar was greatly appreciated.

They rendered the following program: March, "My Tiger Lily"; Showme, "Salome Intermexico"; Lorraine, waltz, "Lily of the Nile"; Berliner, "The Minor Dance"; Shifren; March, "The Amer." Victor Herbert.

Tonight will be Junior Mamecherber night, and the famous organization will attend in a body and render a number of their prize selections.

Funeral of Mrs. Wirth. The funeral of Mrs. Frederick Wirth took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, of 375 North Main street, where she was interred. Prior to the funeral the house was thronged with sympathizing friends, many of whom tenderly deposited upon the casket a bouquet of flowers.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the casket was closed and the cortege moved to St. Mary's church, River street, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Father Stupper, after which interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, No. 5.

The pall-bearers were Joseph Krammer, Charles Ross, William Smith and Reinhold Smith. The flower-bearers were James Best and Chris Naher, Undertaker G. A. Miller had charge of the funeral.

Funeral of Jacob Brier. Another largely attended funeral took place yesterday morning, when Jacob Brier, of Hickory street, was laid to rest in St. Mary's cemetery. A mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Peter Christ, who also preached a funeral sermon, after which the cortege wended its way to the No. 5 cemetery, where interment was made. St. Mary's Sodality and St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic association attended the funeral in a body.

The pall-bearers were: George Reif, Charles Meyers, Joseph Tompe, Joseph Miller and Anthony Herberster.

Double Surprise Party. A double surprise party was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Connor, on Brook street, when her sister, Mrs. William Morris, and her grandsons, Robert Jarvis, were surprised by a large number of their friends, the occasion being Mrs. Morris' sixtieth birthday and Mr. Jarvis' twentieth.

The evening was enjoyably spent in indulging in various games, amusements, charades, music, vocal and instrumental, until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Girt, Mrs. Ruth Jarvis, Miss Laura Jarvis, Miss Grace Connor, Elizabeth Williams, Emma Holder, Edith Hamu, Jennie Connor, Margaret Thomas and Messrs. David Connor, Robert Jarvis, Robert Williams, Phineas Fuller, John Morgan, Will Connor, Will Major, William Hamu and Clyde Williams.

Peter Schuester Surprised. Peter Schuester, of Hotel Rosier, was tendered a very pleasant surprise party Wednesday evening. The evening was enjoyably spent indulging in various amusements, singing and dancing, and later refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Saff, Mrs. Paul Barrett, Mrs. Sunday, Misses Kate Keyser, Marie Wolf, Dr. W. G. Lutz, delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani, alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dolph, of Madison avenue, entertained delightfully in honor of their guest, Miss Bolton, of Binghamton, on Wednesday evening at Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Miss Rose Judge, of 901 Stone avenue, while engaged in washing, yesterday morning, accidentally upset a pail of boiling water, fearfully scalding her face and hands. Dr. J. W. Smith was immediately summoned and dressed the unfortunate young lady's injuries.

Robert Farrell, of Cedar avenue, a brakeman at the South works, had his left foot badly crushed yesterday, while endeavoring to couple two cars. He was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment.

The Young People's society of the Hickory street Presbyterian church held their regular monthly business meeting last evening in the old church. After the business was transacted, a very pleasant social hour was spent, during which games and amusements were provided for the library.

Rev. Father Brail, of Pittston, who has just completed a tour through Europe and the Holy Land, is visiting Rev. Peter Christ, of Hickory street.

Charles Deising, of Birch street, a South Side street railway conductor, is ill at his home with a severe cold.

GREEN RIDGE. The parlor fair for the benefit of the Green Ridge library, yesterday afternoon and evening, was a very delightful affair. Fancy articles, cake and home-made candy sold rapidly. Delicious refreshments were served, and a good sum realized for the library.

Mrs. Parver, of Wilkes-Barre, spent yesterday with her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Nicol, of Dickson avenue.

The funeral of John Cook took place from his late home, 129 Dickson avenue, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A requiem mass was sung at St. Paul's church, and interment was made in St. Rose Catholic cemetery at Carbonate.

The pall-bearers were James Clark, James Phillips, James Kelley, John Ruano, Patrick Gilroy and Anthony Duffy. Among the friends who attended from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Horan, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gilroy, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Duffy, Mrs. P. Healy and Mr. and Mrs. William Hogan, of Carbonate.

Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dolph, of Madison avenue, entertained delightfully in honor of their guest, Miss Bolton, of Binghamton, on Wednesday evening at Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Miss Rose Judge, of 901 Stone avenue, while engaged in washing, yesterday morning, accidentally upset a pail of boiling water, fearfully scalding her face and hands. Dr. J. W. Smith was immediately summoned and dressed the unfortunate young lady's injuries.

Robert Farrell, of Cedar avenue, a brakeman at the South works, had his left foot badly crushed yesterday, while endeavoring to couple two cars. He was TOLD IN BRIEF. Miss Rose Judge, of 901 Stone avenue, while engaged in washing, yesterday morning, accidentally upset a pail of boiling water, fearfully scalding her face and hands. Dr. J. W. Smith was immediately summoned and dressed the unfortunate young lady's injuries.

Robert Farrell, of Cedar avenue, a brakeman at the South works, had his left foot badly crushed yesterday, while endeavoring to couple two cars. He was Taken to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment.

The Young People's society of the Hickory street Presbyterian church held their regular monthly business meeting last evening in the old church. After the business was transacted, a very pleasant social hour was spent, during which games and amusements were provided for the library.

Rev. Father Brail, of Pittston, who has just completed a tour through Europe and the Holy Land, is visiting Rev. Peter Christ, of Hickory street.

Charles Deising, of Birch street, a South Side street railway conductor, is ill at his home with a severe cold.

GREEN RIDGE. The parlor fair for the benefit of the Green Ridge library, yesterday afternoon and evening, was a very delightful affair. Fancy articles, cake and home-made candy sold rapidly. Delicious refreshments were served, and a good sum realized for the library.

Mrs. Parver, of Wilkes-Barre, spent yesterday with her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Nicol, of Dickson avenue.

The funeral of John Cook took place from his late home, 129 Dickson avenue, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A requiem mass was sung at St. Paul's church, and interment was made in St. Rose Catholic cemetery at Carbonate.

The pall-bearers were James Clark, James Phillips, James Kelley, John Ruano, Patrick Gilroy and Anthony Duffy. Among the friends who attended from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Horan, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gilroy, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Duffy, Mrs. P. Healy and Mr. and Mrs. William Hogan, of Carbonate.

Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dolph, of Madison avenue, entertained delightfully in honor of their guest, Miss Bolton, of Binghamton, on Wednesday evening at Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Miss Rose Judge, of 901 Stone avenue, while engaged in washing, yesterday morning, accidentally upset a pail of boiling water, fearfully scalding her face and hands. Dr. J. W. Smith was immediately summoned and dressed the unfortunate young lady's injuries.

Robert Farrell, of Cedar avenue, a brakeman at the South works, had his left foot badly crushed yesterday, while endeavoring to couple two cars. He was Taken to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment.

The Young People's society of the Hickory street Presbyterian church held their regular monthly business meeting last evening in the old church. After the business was transacted, a very pleasant social hour was spent, during which games and amusements were provided for the library.

Rev. Father Brail, of Pittston, who has just completed a tour through Europe and the Holy Land, is visiting Rev. Peter Christ, of Hickory street.

Charles Deising, of Birch street, a South Side street railway conductor, is ill at his home with a severe cold.

GREEN RIDGE. The parlor fair for the benefit of the Green Ridge library, yesterday afternoon and evening, was a very delightful affair. Fancy articles, cake and home-made candy sold rapidly. Delicious refreshments were served, and a good sum realized for the library.

Mrs. Parver, of Wilkes-Barre, spent yesterday with her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Nicol, of Dickson avenue.

The funeral of John Cook took place from his late home, 129 Dickson avenue, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A requiem mass was sung at St. Paul's church, and interment was made in St. Rose Catholic cemetery at Carbonate.

The pall-bearers were James Clark, James Phillips, James Kelley, John Ruano, Patrick Gilroy and Anthony Duffy. Among the friends who attended from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Horan, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gilroy, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Duffy, Mrs. P. Healy and Mr. and Mrs. William Hogan, of Carbonate.

Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dolph, of Madison avenue, entertained delightfully in honor of their guest, Miss Bolton, of Binghamton, on Wednesday evening at Green Ridge camp, No. 8088, Modern Woodmen of America, received several new members at their meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Vice-commander, G. A. Atkins; advisor, Charles W. Schuler; clerk, Joseph Filiani; banker, James M. Atherton; escort, E. W. Funn; watchman, W. W. Warshell; managers, C. E. Tobey, T. B. McClintock; examining physician, Dr. J. L. Ken and Dr. W. G. Lutz; delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani; alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet will be served.

SOUTH SCRANTON

ST. JOHN'S BASKET BALL TEAM AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

They Defeated the North End Stars Last Night by a Score of 10 to 0. News of the Fair—Funerals of Mrs. Frederick Wirth and Jacob Brier. Mrs. Wm. Morris and Robert Jarvis Surprised by Their Friends. Several Accidents—Other News and Personal Notes.

That the St. John's basket ball team (the Defenders) is the undisputed champion of the county, was again demonstrated last evening before a large and enthusiastic audience in St. John's hall, Stone avenue, when they met the strong North End Stars and routed them after a most fierce and stubborn game. The score was 10 to 0.

The boys from North Scranton are some "shucks" when it comes to playing basket ball and are very aggressive and plucky, but the superior tactics and defense of the St. John's team on their lighter opponents. By winning this game the St. John's team has secured a permanent hold on the championship, having defeated all the teams played thus far.

The line-up was as follows:

Defenses: Stars: Roland.....forward.....Starr; Melnyre.....forward.....M. Clocky; Tigue.....center.....Jones; Haddock.....left center.....Comely; Haddock.....right center.....John Seyler; Grogan.....guard.....Bitterman; Moriarty.....guard.....Tuttle; Bishler, Melnyre, J. Quinn, J. Tigue, J. Adams, J. Rogers, M. J. Volney, Simpson, McInroy and Davis; timekeepers, Murphy and Benjamin.

The gymnasium team will play the St. John's next Thursday night in St. John's hall.

At the Fair. As the Athletic club fair progresses interest grows in the throngs which crowd the hall are becoming more dense each night. There is also a notable thinning out of the many choice bits of lace, embroidery and china-ware, which sagacious housewives are picking up here and there, having purchased, knowing well what they are worth.

The door prize on Wednesday evening was won by No. 563 and consisted of a handsome water set donated by Miss Patricia Linkins, whose Brothers' Mandolin club was the star attraction last night, and their excellent performance of different numbers on the mandolin and guitar was greatly appreciated.

They rendered the following program: March, "My Tiger Lily"; Showme, "Salome Intermexico"; Lorraine, waltz, "Lily of the Nile"; Berliner, "The Minor Dance"; Shifren; March, "The Amer." Victor Herbert.

Tonight will be Junior Mamecherber night, and the famous organization will attend in a body and render a number of their prize selections.

Funeral of Mrs. Wirth. The funeral of Mrs. Frederick Wirth took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, of 375 North Main street, where she was interred. Prior to the funeral the house was thronged with sympathizing friends, many of whom tenderly deposited upon the casket a bouquet of flowers.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the casket was closed and the cortege moved to St. Mary's church, River street, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Father Stupper, after which interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, No. 5.

The pall-bearers were Joseph Krammer, Charles Ross, William Smith and Reinhold Smith. The flower-bearers were James Best and Chris Naher, Undertaker G. A. Miller had charge of the funeral.

Funeral of Jacob Brier. Another largely attended funeral took place yesterday morning, when Jacob Brier, of Hickory street, was laid to rest in St. Mary's cemetery. A mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Peter Christ, who also preached a funeral sermon, after which the cortege wended its way to the No. 5 cemetery, where interment was made. St. Mary's Sodality and St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic association attended the funeral in a body.

The pall-bearers were: George Reif, Charles Meyers, Joseph Tompe, Joseph Miller and Anthony Herberster.

Double Surprise Party. A double surprise party was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Connor, on Brook street, when her sister, Mrs. William Morris, and her grandsons, Robert Jarvis, were surprised by a large number of their friends, the occasion being Mrs. Morris' sixtieth birthday and Mr. Jarvis' twentieth.

The evening was enjoyably spent in indulging in various games, amusements, charades, music, vocal and instrumental, until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Girt, Mrs. Ruth Jarvis, Miss Laura Jarvis, Miss Grace Connor, Elizabeth Williams, Emma Holder, Edith Hamu, Jennie Connor, Margaret Thomas and Messrs. David Connor, Robert Jarvis, Robert Williams, Phineas Fuller, John Morgan, Will Connor, Will Major, William Hamu and Clyde Williams.

Peter Schuester Surprised. Peter Schuester, of Hotel Rosier, was tendered a very pleasant surprise party Wednesday evening. The evening was enjoyably spent indulging in various amusements, singing and dancing, and later refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Saff, Mrs. Paul Barrett, Mrs. Sunday, Misses Kate Keyser, Marie Wolf, Dr. W. G. Lutz, delegate to state camp at Harrisburg, Joseph Filiani, alternate, James A. Waters. The installation will be held January 2, when a banquet