

WEST SCRANTON

CANDIDATES WITHDRAW

THE COUNCILMANIC FIGHT IN FOURTH AND FIFTH WARDS.

William J. Thomas, William Raymond and Louis A. Howells Not in the Running—Several New Aspirants in the Field—Initial Support at Plymouth Church—Camp 178 Anniversary—Election of Officers. Mass Meeting Tonight—Shorter News Notes.

In the Fourth ward, William J. Thomas and William Raymond yesterday withdrew from the select councilmanic race. David L. Morgan entered as an individual aspirant for the upper branch, and Obed Jenkins was added to the list published yesterday for the lower branch.

William G. Powell, Thomas H. Davis and John M. Harris, the vigilance committee of the Fourth ward, Second district, issued a call for the primaries on Saturday, Dec. 15, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. Three candidates now remain for the select nomination in the persons of David B. Evans, John Fern and David L. Morgan. There remain seven aspirants for common council.

Captain P. J. McAndrew, of the Fourteenth ward, has withdrawn his name for common and will stand for the Democratic nomination for select council. John Cawley is a candidate for the common office. John R. Barrett wishes to announce that his name was unauthorized for common council, and is at a loss to know the source of such information to the afternoon papers. The Republicans will caucus in Co-operative hall this evening, and the Democrats tomorrow afternoon, between 4 and 7 o'clock.

In the Fifth ward, Louis A. Howells has withdrawn, leaving the field clear to Albert Lewis and Robert J. Williams for common council. John H. Phillips and W. H. Morgan are the only candidates registered for school controller. George Carson and Richard Morgan, engineer at the air shaft, will aspire to succeed Richard H. Williams in select council.

The vigilance committees of the Fifteenth ward will meet this evening to arrange for holding the caucus, in that ward.

In the Eighteenth ward several prominent men are already mentioned for the councilmanic nomination.

ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR COUGHS and COLDS
TAKE DUFOUR'S FRENCH TAR.

Any Intrusion in the Nature of Holiday Advertising

Must have a good excuse. In fact there must be a reason of more than ordinary importance for breaking in on the run of regular holiday trade announcements, and but for such a cause we would still have been hammering away on Christmas gifts, for there's a stock here that will stand a lot of talking about without overestimating its merits one iota.

But to the point. A chance came our way last week which we could not resist and we bought two lots of High Grade Coats at a big sacrifice from regular prices.

The First Lot

consisted of Ladies' strictly high class Jackets, embracing all the popular shades, styles and materials of the season, silk lined, and men tailored in the most perfect manner possible.

The Second Lot

consisted of 325 children's coats, in sizes ranging from 4 to 12 years. The variety of styles, materials and colorings is infinite and better tailored garments for children's wear have never been seen in this city.

These Are Not Samples

nor are they out of condition in the slightest degree. In a word they are clean and bright as a new pin, and have all the latest midwinter fashion touches on them, the manufacturer made too many of them, however, and we bought them at one third off regular prices.

You buy at the same terms

A detailed description of the garments included in this important purchase is impossible, therefore we will simply say that we have taken each of the two lots purchased and divided them into four lots as follows:

4 Bargains in Ladies' Jackets

Lot 1—Ladies' Jackets ranging in value from $6 to $7.50 go at $4.49.
Lot 2—Ladies' Jackets ranging in value from $8 to $9.00 go at $5.49.
Lot 3—Ladies' Jackets ranging in value from $10 to $10.50 go at $6.98.
Lot 4—Ladies' Jackets ranging in value from $12 to $18.00 go at $9.98.

4 Bargains in Children's Coats

Lot 1—Children's Coats ranging in value from $2.50 to $3.00 go at $1.79.
Lot 2—Children's Coats ranging in value from $4.00 to $4.50 go at $2.59.
Lot 3—Children's Coats ranging in value from $5.00 to $6.00 go at $3.49.
Lot 4—Children's Coats ranging in value from $6.00 to $7.00 go at $3.98.

This is the Greatest High Grade Coat and Jacket opportunity of the season, as every novelty is represented in these Bargain Offerings.

Globe Warehouse

No. 3—Mrs. John Loomis, May James. Table No. 4—Mrs. James Leysan, Mrs. Roger Jones, Misses Elizabeth Lloyd, Jennie Lewis, Portia Jones.

Mrs. John James was general manager and her assistants were Mrs. Mary Joseph, Mrs. Saul Jones, Misses Edna Lewis, and Joseph Jones. The supper was one of the best ever served in the church, and a good sum was realized.

Gleaners of Simpson Church.

When a church society pledges $4,000 towards the mortgage fund there must be "something doing" to raise that amount, and during the past year $1,500 of that sum has been raised by the Gleaners of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church.

Their latest scheme for raising the money was in the sale of plain and fancy aprons at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. Y. Harrison, last evening. Ice cream and cake were also disposed of at a profit.

Among the active workers in the society are Mrs. E. Y. Harrison, Mrs. Charles Acker, Mrs. Frank Shedd, Mrs. J. H. Acker, Mrs. Charles Lull and Miss Bertha Wetzel.

A special meeting of the Gleaners will be held this evening, and the members will serve dinner and supper at the church on Washington's birthday.

P. O. S. of A. Anniversary.

A crowded house attended the anniversary of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, in Mearns' hall last evening. All of the participants, except one, mentioned on the programme were present and assisted in entertaining the large assembly.

H. C. Hinman presided and made a few brief remarks. The entertainers were Misses Margaret Thomas, Carmel Maule, Lillian LaBar, Rhoda Clark, Maud Phillips, Nora Lindsay, Bertha Francis, Augusta Phillips, A. D. Reese, Victor Scott, George Vignier, William Gaul, Ayde Moore, Fred Robinson and William Edwards. The umbrella was won by Charles Warnke.

All were accorded their full measure of applause, and their selections were appropriate and patriotic. A dance followed the entertainment.

Civic-Political Mass Meeting.

All the arrangements have been perfected for the civic-political mass meeting to be held in St. David's hall this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, and all that remains for insuring the success of the meeting is a generous outpouring of citizens, irrespective of party, who are cordially invited to express their views on the political situation in the various West Scranton wards.

The meeting will not be in the interest of any party or individual, but purely for the purpose of discussing the desirability of nominating and electing the best men possible to fill the vacancies in both branches of councils. In all probability Attorney Charles E. Daniels will preside, and addresses will be made by several prominent citizens and taxpayers.

Artistic Window Display.

One of the prettiest window decorations for the holidays can be admired in the window of the Jewell's drug store, where the colors of white, pink and green have been blended together harmoniously. The articles of display consist of perfumes and fancy toilet articles.

The work was done by Henry Bruning and Harry Jenkins, and is effectively illuminated by several Kern incandescent gas lights.

To the Republican Voters of the Fifth Ward.

Notice is hereby given that a caucus of the Republican voters of the Fifth ward of the city of Scranton will be held at the various polling places in said ward on Saturday, December 15, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m., for the purpose of nominating Republican candidates for the offices of common council, school controller, register, judges of election and inspectors of election.

All persons intending to become candidates for said nominations are hereby notified to register with James P. Thomas, 318 Twelfth street, on or before Tuesday, December 11, 1900. By order of the Vigilance Committee.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Mrs. John P. Kelly, of Railroad avenue, attended a funeral in Aldenville, Wayne county, on Tuesday.

Henry Luchinger, a former resident of West Scranton, died recently at Stewartsville, Nev.

The Young People's union of the First Baptist church held an interesting meeting last evening, which was well attended.

James Hatter, of 303 Tenth street, was tendered a surprise party by a number of young friends on Tuesday evening.

Abram Davies and Miss Annie Buckingham, both of Jerny, were united in marriage yesterday by Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle church, at the parsonage, on South Hyde Park avenue.

The Tribune was in error yesterday in announcing the name of "Reese." Instead of J. Gomer Evans, who will be married at Montrose on Christmas day.

The funeral of the late Benjamin W. Evans, who died Monday, Dec. 10, will take place today from the family residence, 354 North Broadway avenue. Services will commence at 12:30 o'clock. Interment in Patterson cemetery.

Mrs. W. W. Grover, of South Hyde Park avenue, yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of her cousin, Dr. W. F. Mott, formerly of Mott Haven, at a hospital in Philadelphia.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Plymouth Congregational church held an all-day session yesterday.

The funeral of the late Anthony Dennebaum occurred yesterday afternoon. The pallbearers and flower bearers were: Mrs. Williams, George Beck, Charles Yoss, Jacob Daub, Christopher Gother, Frank Schroeder, Michael Gloesner and Gottfried Weale. Interment was made in the German Catholic cemetery. Rev. F. A. Frick conducted the services at St. John's cathedral church.

The Thirtieth club entertainment will be held in Washburn Street Presbyterian church this evening.

The Epworth League of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will meet this evening.

The L. W. H. circle of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church will hold a dime social in the parsonage this evening.

Valuable Membership.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. New York, Dec. 12.—A membership in the New York Stock exchange was sold today for $47,500 to John H. McCullough.

SOUTH SCRANTON

DEMOCRATS OF TWENTIETH WARD ARE AGITATED.

An Uncertainty Prevails as to Whether W. G. O'Malley Is the Regular Nominee for Select Councilman—He Was Nominated at a Meeting Held on Tuesday Night, but It Is Claimed That This Was Not Held According to Party Rules—Other Candidates to Have Caucuses—News at the Fair.

Is or is not W. G. O'Malley the regular Democratic nominee for select councilman in the Twentieth ward? This is the question which is now agitating the citizens of that part of the city.

Mr. O'Malley was nominated at a meeting held in Cameron's hall on Tuesday night, but it is contended by the supporters of the two candidates whom he defeated, William J. Burns and Edward Melvin, that the meeting was not called by the Democratic ward committee, and that his nomination was not, therefore, in accordance with the party rules.

Tuesday night's meeting was attended by just seventy-two voters, and after Messrs. Burns, O'Malley and Melvin had been nominated it was decided to have the following each candidate take separate corners and be counted. The supporters of Mr. O'Malley took one corner, while the supporters of both other candidates, realizing that they would have no show separately against Mr. O'Malley, humped themselves in the opposite corner.

There was some little dispute as to the result of the count, but it was finally decided to be 38 to 34 in favor of Mr. O'Malley, who was declared nominated. Just who would have been declared the winner in case the opposite corner contained a majority of the voters present is an open question.

At any rate, much dissatisfaction exists as the result of the meeting, and it is probable that each prospective candidate will have a little caucus of his own within these next few days. The first of these is announced for to-night, when a meeting will be held in Phillips' hall on Fig street. The candidate to be nominated at this meeting will be understood, he is Common Councilman Daniel Battli, whose friends are engineering the holding of the meeting.

There will be, very likely, a pretty little problem for the county commissioners when it comes to deciding whose name is to go on the official ballot.

A lone and solitary Republican candidate has loomed up in the person of Thomas Griffiths, of the Third district, who says he will make a fight for the election.

At the Fair.

Common Councilman William Smith was a lucky individual yesterday, winning a parlor lamp at the Athletic club fair, donated by Jacob Zimmer, and a table. Miss Art won the door prize Wednesday night, a china cuspidor. Otto Robinson, a comforter, donated by Mrs. Charles Kirt, Will Berghausen, a fancy quilt; William Rollings, a handsome parlor lamp, and August Schneider, a handsome China tea set.

The Scranton Saengerfunde was present last night and rendered a short but delightful programme, but the crowd present was somewhat disappointed in the non-appearance of Bauer's band, which was unavoidably detained by practicing for the benefit concert for St. Joseph's Foundling Home. They will be present Friday evening, when they will have a more valuable and valuable article unsold, which will make fine Christmas gifts, and which can be purchased at very reasonable rates.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

Martin Langan, of South Pittston avenue, was painfully injured at the South mill Tuesday, by having several toes crushed by an ore car. Mr. Langan was assisting the brakeman in coupling a car when the accident occurred. He was removed to his home in a carriage where his injuries were attended to.

Miss Carrie Scheuer is ill at her home on Cedar avenue.

Mrs. Rudolph Traub, of Cedar avenue, is spending several days with the family of Mrs. Charles Kirt.

The St. Aloysius Total Abstinence and Benevolent society will hold a meeting this evening in Pharmacy hall.

Mrs. James F. Best, of Cedar avenue, has returned from Philadelphia, where she attended the funeral of her uncle, Michael Moran.

Mrs. Patrick Dorsey, of Cleveland, O., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Best, of Cedar avenue.

DUNMORE.

John Weed, of Hill street, who has been employed at Spencer's breaker, met with a serious injury yesterday. He was standing about the blacksmith shop preparing to go home after his night's work, when a splinter flew from the anvil, striking him in the eye. The physician in charge has but faint hope of being able to save the sight of the injured member.

The funeral of Aldrich Martin was held from the Little England church yesterday. Interment was made in Elmhurst cemetery.

The following officers of the Dunmore Methodist Episcopal church Sunday school were elected last night: Superintendent, Daniel Powell; assistant superintendent, Thomas Henwood; superintendent of primary department, Marion Kenney; assistant superintendent, Mrs. E. Weller; secretary, Charles Yoss; assistant secretary, William P. Ziegler; treasurer, Peter Seigel; pianist, Ruby Yost; assistant pianist, Elsie Powell; secretary of Sunday school board, Garfield Ahlquist.

A church business meeting of the Dudley Street Baptist church will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock at the church. All members and contributors to the support of the church are earnestly requested to be present, as there is business of importance and interest to the church to be attended to.

GREEN RIDGE.

The music section of the Green Ridge Woman's club will meet in the Scranton Conservatory of Music this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The Green Ridge Women's Temperance union will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Reicker, 1413 Monmouth avenue. The meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Ripley, superintendent of mothers' work. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Epworth League of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will conduct a railroad social in the church parlors tomorrow evening.

The dedication of the new Baptist church, which was to have taken place next Sunday, has been postponed for a few weeks, owing to delays in receiving some of the material required for completing the building.

The B. M. club will meet at the home of Miss Louise Connolly, of Washington avenue, this afternoon.

J. M. Atherton and Wesley Crespy, of the Foytelle Ice company, are at Mill City today hunting rabbits.

Green Ridge lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold a regular meeting this evening in Masonic hall, Dickson avenue.

Green Ridge lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, will hold a special meeting next evening in Masonic hall, Dickson avenue.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church are making elaborate preparations for their parlor fair at the home of Mrs. Teal, 1743 Caspary avenue. Cake, pie, candy and useful articles will be offered for sale.

The funeral of E. J. Parrott will take place from the family residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Delaware street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment in Forest Hill cemetery, will be private.