A GROCER EXPERIMENTS ON POWER OF HUMAN EYE.

Lost Time Regained-New Fast Train on the Erie-An Editor's Marriage Announcement - Proposed Pan-American Railroad Rate-Saloon Keeper Learns How to Sell More Beer-Carbondale's Dream of a New County-Other Pithy Paragraphs.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Dec. 14.-A Susque hanna grocer until recently had a very decided opinion of the power of the human eye. He has always claimed that a man could, by gazing steadily into the eyes of the fiercest animal, teake the beast as docile and harmless as a wax doll. The grocer has in his store a very large cat named Thomas that is not so frolicrome as a kitten by any means.

The grocer with the theory proposed to test it on the cat. A number of customers were present at the test. The grocer aproached Thomas, who sat blinking near the cheese box, and peered steadily at the cat's large, dandellon eyes. Thomas was evidently greatly affected by the human eye so close to his, for he stood on his tail, and suddenly reaching out one leg. planted his claws in the flesh of the grocer's face with a wild, impetuous plant. This he did twice in rapid succession, and was about to get in his work for a third time when, with an exclamation that sounded very much like an impious oath, the grocer struck the infuriated Thomas with his fist and knocked him off the counter and into the mackerel barrel. The magnetism of the human eye is a lost art with the grocer, who carries his fac-
