WEST SCRANTON

COUNCILMEN TO BE CHOSEN

INTEREST RIPE IN LOCAL WARD ELECTIONS TODAY.

Opposition to Republican Nominees in the Fifth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Eighteenth Wards-Patrick Dodd Attempts Suicide-Masons. St. Leo's and Plymouth Church Elect Officers-Weekly School Deposits Are Lagging-Cases Before Aldermen Kellow and John-Two Fires on Tenth Street-Other Notes.

The voters of the various West Scranton wards, with the exception of the Sixth and Twenty-first, will be called upon today to elect representatives to the select and common council, school board, and various other positions of trust.

The candidates in the Fourth ward are David B. Evans for select council and William W. Evans for common council. Both are unopposed. In the Fifth ward John Henry Phillips, Republican, will be opposed by Charles Corless, sr., Prohibitionist, for the office of school controller, and Albert Lewis, Republican, will encounter the name of D. P. Ellas, for common couneil, who has been placed in the field by the cold water advocates. This opposition will undoubtedly cause no little interest, and the contests will be watched on all sides.

The Republican nomince in the Fourward for common council !s Charles R. Acker, a stalwart party advocate and a man of strict integrity and intelligence, who will make an ideal councilman if elected. He is opposed by William Gurrell, oldest son of ex-Chief Martin Gurrell, and a representative of the younger element in Democracy. The contest will be waged on strict party lines, and whichever one wins, the ward will be well represented. Andrew Weisenflue is the Prohibition candidate in the Fourteenth.

William Lewis, the Republican nomfnee for common council in the Fifteenth ward, wil be opposed by H. (Hinman, the Prohibition nomince. The Prohibitionists failed to file nomination papers in tme, and those who desire to vote for the candidates of that party will be obliged to write the names of their choice on the official ballot.

In the Eighteenth ward the candidates for common council are William Rush, Democrat, of 117 South Seventh Attention School Children.

The teachers of the public schools complain that there is a lack of interst in the weekly savings deposit funds that have been accumulating in the West Side bank for the past two years or more, and unless there is renewed interest after the holidays, they will in all probability abandon the plan, as it really requires more time and attention than the collections now warrant. Following is the sums received yesterday by the different teachers:

No. 13-David Owens, .25: Elizabeth Lewis, $2; Alice Evans, .25; Bertha Kelly, .10; Edna D. Evans, .15; Nellie Richards, .5; Catherine Phillips, $1.21; Sarah McDonald, .6; Eliza Price, .53; total, $14.60.

No. 19-Josephine D. Lees, .85; Miss Murray, .35; Miss Nicholls, .10; Miss Beamish, $1: Miss Morgan, .16; Miss Hutton, .47; Miss Davis, .55; Miss Evans, $1.34; Miss Kellow, .53; Miss Flynn, $1.16; Miss Wade, .39; Miss Murphy, $1,26; Mrs. Ferber, $2,29; Miss Peck. .62: total, $11.07.

Two Fires on Tenth Street.

Flames were discovered in a bureau drawer in one of the bedroom in Horatio Fellows' house, on Tenth street, at noon vesterday, and the prompt application of the chemicals by the Columbias saved the premises from serious damage. The flames were confined to the bureau, which was consumed, and the bedroom walls were scorched. The damage will imount to about $150.

An over-heated stove was the cause of the firs at 5.10 o'clock last evening in the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company's barn, on Tenth street, in the rear of Dr. Heerman's residence. The flames eat their way into the living partments, on the second floor, occupied by the barn boss, Frank Bates, and did considerable damage. The horses and wagons were rescued in safety, but several blankets were consumed. The damage will probably ex-

Cozy Furs as Christmas Gifts

We do not believe that you can buy Ladies' Good Fur Neckwear or Sets, consisting of Neckwear and Muff, as well or for so little money anywhere else in town as you can here. Assortments are still complete, but as they're getting very near the breaking point we would suggest early buying, as not one copper can be saved by waiting, which therefore only means a poorer selection. The same remarks apply with equal force to all classes of Fancy Neckwear for ladies, and we may add that there is not a finer stock than ours in Northeast ern Pennsylvania,

Before Alderman John

Charles Tugend, of 2110 Price street, was arraigned before Alderman John last evening, at the instance of P. J. Glynn, of 2211 Jackson street, who charged the defendant with assault and battery, larceny and malicious mischief. The former waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $600. His mother qualified as recurity.

Tugend went into Glynn's place on Sunday and created a disturbance, and he prosecutor alleges he stole a spoon rom the kitchen table. A quarrel ensued, in which Glynn threw a glass at Tugend and the latter retaliated by punching Glynn and throwing stones through the window.

Other Aldermanic Cases.

James Mahon, of 1919 Price street, was arrested last night on complaint of his wife, who caused a warrant to be ssued by Alderman John on the charge of assault and battery and making threats. Mahon spent the night in the station house and will be given a hearing today.

Mrs. Ellen Randall and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Mary Ann Davis and laughter Lizzie, all of Pleasant street. and William Rudge, of 506 North Main venue, are all mixed up in the clutches of the law with suite and counter-suits of assault and battery, threats, etc., over indiscretions which they aired before Alderman Kellow and Alderman Miller. MEETING OF SECOND WARD CIT-IZENS.

Refused to Endorse Nomination of H. S. Alworth-J. K. Smith Was Placed in Nomination and Men Were Named to Advance His Candidacy at the Polls Today-Mrs. Hannah Lally's Case Heard Before Alderman Fidler-Notes of a Personal and News Nature.

The meeting of the citizens of the econd ward at the Auditorium last night to act upon the nominations made at Saturday's caucusses for common councilman refused to endorse the candidacy of either H. S. Alworth, Republican, or Patrick Flynn, Democrat, and placed in nomination the name of J. K. Smith.

In addition to making this nomination the meeting unanimously adopted resolutions presented by R. E. Hurley with reference to the necessity of reform in city affairs.

In the absence of D. B. Atherton. who was elected chairman at last Friday evening's meeting, Thomas S. Morgan was made chairman pro tem, of last night's meeting, with M. E. Sanders acting as secretary. Mr. Morgan stated the object of the meeting to be the taking of action upon the result of the caucusses held on Saturday, and Fair of the Scranton Athletic Club asked the pleasure of the meeting. A motion to ratify the nomination of H. S. Alworth, the Republican candidate, was seconded, bringing forth a number of interrogatories from Rev. Dr. Lansing as to who the candidate was. what his qualifications were, and what influence it was that brought him forward as a candidate.

Dr. Lansing said the time was at hand when the people of this city should be aroused to the necessities of Booth municipal government, when they should profoundly stir themselves to such action as would forever stamp out the infamy which has made our city a man who may be only the creation of those who have been discredited,

O. P. Miller, D. P. Replogle and Dr. Lansing spoke in turn on partisan polities, and the great need of keeping them out of the meeting and in fact out of municipal affairs. John E. Moran, one of the Democratic aspirants for council, also spoke.

The motion to endorse Mr. Alworth vas then put. Oswald Jones moved that the meeting proceed to the nomination of a candidate for common council. The motion was adopted, and the names of George S. Sturges, J. K. Smith, D. B. Atherton and John E. Moran were presented. Before the ballot was taken the names of Sturges and Atherton were withdrawn, and the vote resulted in favor of Smith. O. P. Miller and Francis Olver were the tellers of the election. After calling for volunteers to work at the polls today in behalf of Mr. Smith, and getting a number of responses, the meeting adjourned to the call of the chair, the purpose being to at once go forward with other meetings for the betterment of political conditions in the North Scranton section of

Mrs. Lally Arrested.

The way of the transgressor is hard. out Mrs. Hannah Lally, of 405 Putnam street, believes she is more sinned against than sinning. Last Septemer she was arrested at the instance of Mayor Moir, charged wit maintaining a speakeasy, and fined $2). The evidence was secured against her by the Donlin brothers, George and Bob. Since then the Bottlers' Protective association had search warrants issued for a number of people. suspected of using their bottles illegally, and among the number under surveillance was Mrs. Lally. On Saturday last W. J. McDonnell, a deputy constable of the Fifth ward. armed with one of these search war rents, entered Mrs. Lally's house and demanded permission to search the premises for bottles. He was accompanied by the Donlin brothers, and when Mrs. Lally discovered the alleged sleuths, who in September had caused her arrest, she protested avainst their intrusion. The result was that a general mix-up occurred. The Donlin's went before Alderman Meyers and had a warrant issued for Mrs. Lally's arrest on the charges of assault and battery, disorderly conduct and making threats. She was $600 in all. In addition to that, the woman was required to pay a fine of $5 or spend thirty days in the county Yesterday Mrs. Lally had the cele-
