EXERCISES AT NO. 13 SCHOOL

PUPILS ENTERTAIN IN A DELICIOUS MANNER.

Christmas Programmes Rendered in Several of the Rooms—Fourteenth Ward Republicans Nominate Candidates for Ward Offices—Progressive Euchre Party on South Seventh Street—Trouble at Oxford Settled—Discussed Paper on Socialism—Other Notes.

The pupils at No. 13 school, taught by Prof. David Owens, Misses Elizabeth Lewis and Martha Watkins, held their Christmas exercises together yesterday afternoon, which were of an interesting character. A number of songs, recitations, dialogues, solos, duets, etc., were rendered in a delightful manner. Those who recited were Jeannette Fellows, Martha James, Ella Jones, Robert Rundle, Margaret Thomas, Eva Thomas, Annie Rainey, Bert Thomas, Della Davis, Dorothy Francis, Eva Emrich, Lewis Davis, Pryce Roberts, Amanda Morgan, Dora Costello, Ethel Nicholls, Margaret Jones and Mary Jones.

The dialogues were given by William Davis and A. Reed, Nellie Marlot and Anna Jones, Owen Robinson, Mary Higgins, Kate Kelly and Lucy Gilbride. Those who sang solos and duets were Irene Moses, Ida Heck, Marjory Utt, Nellie Howe and Rachel James.

The Primary A and Intermediate C grades, taught by Misses Richards, Edna D. Evans and Bertha Kelly, also held appropriate closing exercises. Among the features were choruses by the pupils, a scarf drill by sixteen little girls, a chorus of jolly boys, pickaninny song by seven girls, a wand drill by twelve girls, a hoop drill by eighteen boys, and the arrival and welcome of Santa Claus.

The recitations were given by Margaret Thomas, Helen Reynolds, Willie Jones, Sara Harris, Lulu Davis, Margaret Jane Ibel, Kathryn Wilson, Mattie Edwards, Pearl Roberts, Mary Gladly, Verna Houck, Carrie Stephens, Jessie Llewellyn, Kate James, Emily Edwards, Mary Gilbride, Gladys Heath, Rose Stone, Carrie Stumm, Lydia Ives, Margaret Robinson, Biedella Williams, Isabella Widdick, Florence Tierney and Elizabeth Edwards. Miss Kathryn Bateman also sang a solo called "Dear Old Fellow."

ENTERTAINMENT OF NIGHT SCHOOL SCHOLARS.

It Was Given Last Night in No. 8 School—Programme That Was Observed—Junger Maennerchor Is Preparing for the Minstrel Entertainment to Be Given on Jan. 22. Funeral of Mrs. Peter Hoffman from the Family Residence on Maple Street—Other News.

Appropriate literary and musical exercises were given last night in No. 8 school by the pupils of Henry Mutchman's room and those taught by Miss Alice Carlson and were the closing exercises of the school for this year. The children, who were in merry mood, entered into the Christmas festivities with much gusto and made the evening merry with their songs and recitations.

Prior to the united exercises Mr. Mutchman's room engaged in a fashionable spelling-bee and a debate, "Resolved, That Foot Ball Should Be Abolished as Injurious to the Health." It is unnecessary to say that the negative side won. Candy was distributed to the pupils by Miss Cary.

The programme rendered was as follows: Song, "Christmas Days"; School Recitation, "Christmas at Grandma's"; Annes Millard; Recitation, "Hannah Bending Shoes"; Emma Kellerman; Duet, "Ma Georgia Lady"; Thomas Troy and John Allis; Recitation, "Tommy to Santa Claus"; Recitation, "A Christmas Thought"; Josephine Steinhilber; Recitation, "Stop! Pretty Water"; Annie Jankl; Song, "Ama Like It Used to Be"; Kate Fenell; Recitation, "Christmas, Old and New"; Margaret Sheehan; Recitation, "The Dipper"; Clara Stein; Recitation, "How're They Coming with You"; Stella Wadhorn; Recitation, "Signs of Christmas"; Arthur Smith; Duet, "Out in the Cold, Cold Streets"; Kate Fenell and Margaret Sheehan; Recitation, "A Christmas Story"; Laura Millard.

Maennerchor Minstrels. The Junger Maennerchor held a well-attended rehearsal last evening in Germania hall, and the songs and jokes were given with much enthusiasm and jollity. The minstrel show will be given January 22, in Music Hall and promises to be unusually fine, especially the opening chorus, which will be sung by fifty men, with Lawrence's orchestra of twelve pieces. Otto J. Robinson will also render "My Moonbeam Baby," with a full chorus.

The end men are as follows: Tamboourine, Fred Phillips, Gus Reppert, Otto J. Robinson, Jacob Emig, John Helreigel, Charles Scheuch; bones, Will Smith, Will Fleckus, Albert Heiler, Fred Hermann, Charles Berghauer, John Stalder, P. W. Mosher, Peter Marker, musical director, W. C. Ott.

GREEN RIDGE.

Friday morning was the time appointed for the Christmas exercises in No. 28 school, Grammar A and Grammar B united, and the exercises in other grades held there. The exercises were beautifully drawn. The programme in the different rooms consisted of recitations, essays, select readings, banjo, violin and piano solos. The songs, as well as the other parts of the programme, were very appropriate for the occasion. The young people enjoyed themselves very much, and returned to their homes at the close of the session thinking that their school days certainly have a few fixed stars that shine so very brightly that they can be truly called the happiest days of their lives.

The closing exercises at school No. 27 took place yesterday forenoon and were highly interesting. In Mr. Hawker's and Miss Rosey's room were beautiful Christmas trees, decorated with presents, which were distributed to the pupils of those rooms. In the large hall downstairs was a huge fireplace built of candy boxes and beside the fireplace sat Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus in comfortable arm-chairs. As the children marched and counter-marched through the hall, Santa Claus handed each child a box filled with candy. There was vocal and instrumental music, relieved by recitations, and good-will and Christmas cheer prevailed throughout.

George Lindsay, of the University of Pennsylvania, is at his home on Montsey avenue for the Christmas vacation. Invitations have been received by friends here to the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Sherman, of Sayre, Pa., to be held at the home of their niece, Mrs. E. P. Tewksbury, on December 31.
