

DR. HAND'S Condensed Milk

Phosphates and Hypophosphites
Added without change of taste.

"Best Milk for Family Use" "Babies thrive on it"

Sold by Druggists and Grocers. Write for booklet.

THE DR. HAND CONDENSED MILK CO., SCRANTON, PA.

Ice Cream.

BEST IN TOWN.

25¢ Per Quart.

LACKAWANNA DAIRY CO.

Telephone Orders Promptly Delivered

279-327 Adams Avenue.

Scranton Transfer Co.

Baggage Checked Direct to Hotels and Private Residences.

Office D. I. & W. Passenger
Station. Phone 525.

DR. H. B. WARE,

SPECIALIST.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

Office Hours—9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 2 to 4
Williams Building, Opp. Postoffice.

CITY NOTES

AT ORAL SCHOOL.—The Christmas exercises of the Pennsylvania Oral School will be held this evening at 7:30 p. m.

CHILD DIED SUDDENLY.—Coroner Roberts was notified yesterday of the death of a child in Plymouth without medical attendance. The case will be investigated today.

BROKE A WINDOW.—John Ripley was Saturday night arrested on Penn avenue by Patrolman Harris on the charge of breaking a window at Smith's cigar store. He was yesterday fined $10.

A. V. BOWEN, CHIEF.—Attorney A. V. Bowen was yesterday taken to the Moses Taylor hospital with one of his legs badly crushed. He is employed at the charge of breaking a window at Smith's cigar store. He was yesterday fined $10.

LEG CRUSHED.—John Schaff, of 922 Maple street, was yesterday taken to the Moses Taylor hospital with one of his legs badly crushed. He is employed at the charge of breaking a window at Smith's cigar store. He was yesterday fined $10.

THE PRINTERS' BALL.—The annual dance of the Scranton Typographical union, No. 112, will be held New Year's eve at Music hall and every ticket purchaser is entitled to a chance on a $10 gold piece which will be given away.

DIVORCE SUIT BEGINS.—Laura Hansen, by her next friend, B. K. Nye, began Saturday a suit in divorce against her husband, Ferdinand Hansen. She charges that he is a drunkard and gambler. The case was set for trial on January 1, 1901.

CHRISTMAS DANCE.—The Elks dancing club will conduct their second annual Christmas social at V. M. I. hall tomorrow evening. Professor M. F. Calkin, John Walsh and James J. Mason will direct the dance and Miss Kate Barden will play the piano accompaniment.

THE WEEK'S CLEARINGS.—The clearings for the last week, as reported by the Clearing House association, were as follows: Monday, $214,004.23; Tuesday, $224,009.85; Wednesday, $177,600.63; Thursday, $225,500.00; Friday, $229,571.08; Saturday, $180,000.00; total, $1,460,000.00.

MULE STRUCK WITH AXE.—Engine Mules, of Avoca, was held in $200 bail by Alderman Miller, Saturday, on the charge of cruelty to animals. He works in shaft No. 12 of the Pennsylvania Coal mine and is accused of striking one of the mule mules with an axe, cutting a big gash in its side.

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION.—The managers and secretaries of the Central Young Women's Christian association will receive the friends of the association on New Year's day morning, 10 to 10 p. m. Gymnasium drill from 7 to 8 and music from 8 to 10. The cooking school will be open for inspection and Miss Smith and some of her pupils will receive.

BRISTLED ARREST.—Patrick O'Brien created a disturbance on Linden street Sunday night and finally resisted Special Officer Twigg, who tried to arrest him. With the aid of Patrolman Goritz, he was soon subdued and was yesterday morning fined $10. John Thornton, who put up a stubborn fight when arrested on South Washington avenue by Patrolman Walsh and Feeney, was fined $5.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.—The Christmas exercises of the Elm Park Sunday school will be held Christmas night at 7 o'clock in the main auditorium. The programme is of unusual excellence. Gifts will be distributed to the members of the school. At each entrance of the church there will be persons stationed who will receive gifts for the Florence Crittenton Mission and every person is expected to bring some gift.

CASE DISMISSED.—Patrolman M. J. Walsh was on Saturday night arraigned before Alderman Miller, charged with assault and battery by Edward F. Rush, of 258 Railroad avenue. The affair grew out of a dispute at last Tuesday's special election in the Eighteenth ward, when Mr. Rush's brother, William, was elected constable.

CIGARS

for

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Finest and Freshest

Ever brought to this market,

IMPORTED

KEY WEST

PORTO RICO

SPANISH

DOMESTIC

Boxes of 25, 50 and 100 each.

OPEN EVENINGS.

E. O. DEAN,

408 Connell Building,

PHONE 5223.

CAR MEN ARE ON STRIKE

[Continued from Page 1.]

same dividends as the stockholders, their wages, whatever they may be, representing the capital on which they draw dividends. If a man receives wages of $700 a year he gets a dividend check every three months equivalent to that which a stockholder would get on $700 capital. It is our intention to put that plan in operation here as soon as conditions warrant it. This strike will not, to say the least, help to hasten the conditions that will warrant it. The men have acted hastily, and I sincerely regret it. We must operate our road, however, and if we cannot do it with the old men, we will of course have to get new ones."

General Manager Silliman spoke in the same strain. He said further that the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

Mr. Silliman also said that if the statements contained in his letter are brought into question, he is satisfied the company will have cars running this morning, and will add to their number right along until the full equipment is in motion.

and crews made up of foremen, dispatchers, chief clerks and the like, manned the cars. Very few passengers were carried despite the rain and not infrequently a car made a round without taking up a single fare. Not even the combination of any interference was noticed. The strikers did not begin to gather until late in the afternoon, and then they assembled at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers, 215 Lackawanna avenue, to talk things over," as one of them put it.

Men were sent out to watch the cars that were running and note the passengers. A committee was appointed to have cards printed for distribution at the hotels and railroad stations, giving notice of the strike to the strangers and requesting them not to ride on the cars. Other men were detailed to the several stations to watch for the coming of a crowd of Philadelphia men, who, it was reported, the company had sent to take their places. The report was given color by the discovery that bunks were being fitted up in the company's general offices on Lackawanna avenue.

THE CORRESPONDENCE.

The correspondence which passed between the men and the company is contained in the answer presented by General Manager Silliman, Saturday:

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 21, 1900.
J. P. Collins, P. W. Breen, M. J. Barrett, P. J. Shee, J. H. Tigue, conductors, and to the employees of the Scranton Railway Company.

The above-named committee presented to me your letter of the 19th inst., in which you state that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration. We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with the conditions of your employment, and we are sorry to hear that you are requesting me to give you my best consideration.

SPOKE ABOUT HIS DAUGHTER

REV. JAMES HUGHES PREACHED
HER FUNERAL SERMON.

Touching Discourse Last Night in the Adams Avenue Chapel When the Pastor Referred to Gentle Character of the Daughter Whom Death Recently Removed from Earth—Her Sweet Memory Will Never Fade, for It Is Enshrined in the Hearts of the Household.

The Rev. Dr. James Hughes preached a funeral sermon last night in the Adams avenue chapel, New York street, for his oldest daughter, who died somewhat suddenly the week before last at the residence of her parents, 1236 Marion street.

The chapel was crowded with sympathizing friends, and the choir, of which Miss Hughes had been a member, sang some special hymns suitable for the occasion.

Mr. Hughes took for his text the words, "Her sun is gone down while it was yet day." The main portion of his sermon was to the following effect:

I feel I must speak to you this evening about my daughter. She was dear to us, and her death has been a great trouble. It may appear strange for me to preach the funeral sermon for my departed child, but she is the upmost thought in my mind and no one knew her as well as we did.

We thank God for having spared her to us for seventeen years and a half, during which time she was a great comfort in the home, her life both illumined and garnished the domestic circle. We never knew her worth and many excellencies before the Lord of life took her to heaven, as we do now.

The text which we have appropriated very fittingly illustrates her existence in this world, and especially in our family, for we can truly say that her sun went down while it was yet day. The rising of the sun, the shining of the sun, and the setting of the sun, are, to many, themes of considerable interest, and this can be truly said by us in relation to the one whose untimely death we mourn, for her advent among us, her sojourn with us, and her departure from us, are to us subjects of sacred interest.

HER LIFE ILLUMINED.

Her life and death have been like an arrow cleaving the air, the course of whose flight was immediately obliterated by the closing up of the atmosphere, but more like the shining sun, which while it illumined, and whose silvery sheen is seen after it has passed the horizon.

Miss Owen, as we affectionately called her, was born in England, but when four years of age we took her with us to South Africa, where we lived and labored for ten years, during which time we buried three younger children, and the loved one we speak of tonight, who was languishing, we returned to England, where we traveled for twelve months in quest of domestic health. We then came to America, where her health improved considerably, and she became more robust than she had ever been.

Since our arrival here she joined the church, and from that time to the day of her death she was deeply interested in Christian work. She became an active member of the Christian Endeavor society and was chairman of one of the committees at the time of her demise.

She then became a teacher in our Sunday school, where she had a class of seventeen boys, for whose benefit she labored with prayerful delight. She was greatly elated when a banner was presented to the class for good conduct, and devoutly thankful when it was read out by the secretary before the whole school, time after time, that "Miss Hughes had a perfect class."

Some of those dear boys are present this evening and I want to tell them that their late teacher hoped to meet them all in heaven.

Then, again, she joined the choir, and did what she could to assist in leading the praises of God at the services held here for public worship.

She was very deeply interested in this branch of her work. Her sincere desire was to see an efficient choir leading in reverent song the praises of Jehovah in this chapel.

Turning to the choir, Dr. Hughes said:

LOVED THEM ALL.

My friends, she loved you all, and I am sure it would increase her felicity in the realms of glory to learn that you continue faithful to the Master. She was always delighted to be with you, and I am persuaded she is looking forward to the time when she will have the opportunity to give you a cordial greeting in that better land.

Much of her time was spent in song. Many sweet pieces of music she composed, and said she made the home resonant with sacred melody.

The very last thing she played on her piano was "Glory to God in the Highest" and the very next hymn she intended singing here alone, or with Mr. Rankin, the leader of the choir, was that beautiful hymn, "Only Remembered by What I Have Done."

I am thankful to God that by divine help she did many things that will keep her memory green and fragrant for many years to come.

We never had any difficulty in getting her to attend church. Whenever this place was open for worship, she was here, and when I believe she conducted herself in a most saved manner, which becomes the House of God. Her parents have never had occasion to rebuke her, for other neglect of the House of God, or for anything like levity or misbehavior while there. She was a great comfort to us on this account. She was endowed with a sensitive nature and a generous heart. Anything in shape of cruelty even to dumb animals would cause her to shudder.

She would not allow any poor person to go from the door without trying to render some assistance. She has received the blessing of the poor many times, which she cherished as imperishable garlands.

While she had fully recovered from the frailty which she had contracted in South Africa, and which burdened her life for many years, and while her Christian usefulness was increasing daily, it was then when our hopes and expectations were the brightest, it was then that fatal shaft was hurled by an invisible hand, and the soul of the dear one mounted up on high. "Her sun went down while it was yet day."

But we should remember that the setting of the sun is often as glorious as the rising of the sun. It not only gilds the horizon with amber and gold, but it seems to invite the mind to follow it through the resplendent vista through which it has passed. Such was the departure of this sweet young saint.

Her death was almost painless and her end was as a summer evening. Her sun went down early, but the light of her life will linger long among us. As when the great luminary of the heavens bids good night to the world, the windows are not immediately darkened, so with our beloved daughter, though she has passed the horizon and gone far across the border land, the light of her life still lingers with us, for "though dead she yet speaketh."

WILL NOT FORGET HER.

Her place in the Sunday school will be taken by another, but the dear boys she taught will not soon forget her. The chair she occupied in the choir will be filled by another, but the young people who blended their voices with hers in praising God will remember dear Gwen for many long years to come.

The home which she adorned and cheered was made to experience other vicissitudes, but the sweet memory of Mary Gwendolen will never fade, for it is enshrined in the hearts of the household.

We thank God most devoutly for the grace that abode in the life of our daughter, and we earnestly pray the continuance of that power which shall enable us to continue sincerely to say: "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Mr. Hughes thanked the friends at the chapel, and those who did not worship there for their many kindnesses to Mrs. Hughes and himself in their sacred sorrow.

The Night Before Christmas Look at Our Bargains. . . .

Beautiful Plates, 50c. Toilet Pieces at less than cost. A Dorflinger Cut Glass Carafe for $4.00. A Libbey Carafe for $2.75 in the latest lovely Chrysanthemum and Brilliant cuts. Open Stock Dinner Sets much reduced in price.

China Hall.

Geo. V. Millar & Co. 131 Wyoming Avenue
Walk in and Look Around.

TEETH

Extracted Absolutely Without Pain.

Our system of PAINLESS Dentistry is far superior to the old method of doing work. We both fill and extract teeth without the least particle of pain. Our prices for the present are extremely low, and if you are in need of any dental work, call and have your teeth examined.

Gold Crowns..... $3
Gold Fillings..... $1
Bridge Work (Per Tooth)..... $3
Set of Teeth..... $5

All work guaranteed for 10 years. Call and have your teeth examined free of charge. Satisfaction or no pay.

Dr. Reyer, Dentist
814 Spruce St., Opp. Court House.

Schimpff, the Jeweler,

That's the name. You've heard it a good many times—most every time in fact, when jewelry is the topic of conversation, for the one implies the other.

Schimpff, the Jeweler,

Has much to show you in the Gift line—more than you'll see in most other stores. Not only more, but something "different"—novelties that appeal to you, because of their novelty.

Schimpff, the Jeweler,

Has everything going in the jewelry line. Think of what you want; it's there. Prices, too, are less than you think, when you consider that no matter what you buy, quality is apparent.

317 Lackawanna Avenue.

Rogers, the Jeweler

Is Showing the Most Complete Assortment of

Holiday Gifts in Jewelry Sterling Silver Watches Clocks Diamonds Etc

Ever Brought to Scranton Come See

213 Lackawanna Avenue

The New Removable Asphal Cement

HORSESHOE CALK.

Horse cannot slip and will outwear three sets of any other calk manufactured.

BITTENBENDER & CO., 126 and 128 Franklin Ave. SOLE AGENTS.

The Christmas Monday

On this last day given you to select your gifts, let us suggest

CALENDARS