JOHN P. ROACH DEAD.

The Miner Hurt at the Wilson Creek Succumbed at Emergency Hospital.

John P. Roach, of whose fatal injury an account appeared in yesterday's Tribune, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Emergency hospital, where he was taken for treatment. He was so weak, however, from loss of blood that the surgeons did not atempt to operate on him, and his life slowly ebbed away.

Mr. Roach was a native of Ireland, and was about forty years of age. For some years he was a resident of England, but about eighteen years ago immigrated to this country and settled in Carbondale. He was employed as a miner in Wilson creek mine, and was known as a very careful work-He was a member of the Delaand Hudson Keg fund and of Court Daniel O'Connell, Foresters of America. He was a man of strict integrity, and among his fellow workmen and other associates was held in high es-

Mr. Roach is survived by his aged mother, still a resident of Ireland, and a wife and four children as follows: Margaret, Elizabeth, Catherine and Leo, the last named being only four years of age. Two brothers, Michael and Thomas, and three sisters, Mary, Ann and Catherine, all of Ireland, also The funeral arragnements have not been completed, but the obsequies will probably be held Sunday afternoon, interment being made in St. Rose's cemetery.

Germanias Celebrate.

The Germania Singing society held their hall on Main street on Wednesday evening. The festivities were largely attended-better so than ever, and all present seemed to find great enjoyment. The hall was handsomely decorated, and in one end was a large Christmas tree illuminated with candles and embellished with pictures and trinkets. The evening was given over to the children and for several hours they enjoyed themselves immensely At 9 o'clock the "kinder" were formed in line and marched around the room several times. On passing the tree they received a box of candy, an orange, some nuts or some little Christmas trinkets. Games and other amusements were provided and the little folks had lots of fun.

The members of the singing club rendered a number of excellent selections, under the direction of Prof. Saft, of Scranton, who also furnished music for the dancing. There were present at Wednesday evening's event only the members of the Germania society and a few invited guests.

Stone Crusher Removed.

That Fell township stone crusher has been removed from Fallbrook road to Simpson, Supervisor Joe Scheck having transferred the scene of his improvement work to that part of the township, Mr. Scheck's term expires in be a candidate for re-election. This will be keenly regretted by all "good roads" men, as M.r Scheck's term has been prolific with road improvements, the thoroughfares in the township being in better condition than ever be-

A Masque Ball.

The Germania Singing society will hold its annual masquerade ball on the 17th of next month, and every effort will be made to make it the most successful one in the history of the society. A prize will be offered for the most original make-up, and other special features, which are being planned, will doubtless attract a large attendance. The Germania's masquerades are eagerly looked for by the young people of the city.

FOR YOUNG AND OLD.

'Jack and the Beanstalk" Is a Fine Attraction.

"Jack and the Beanstalk," that famous extravaganza which has been a consistent and constant record breaker, will be presented at the Grand on Monday evening.

The piece is now resplendent in a bright new dress and has never been shown to such favorable advantage. The company presenting it is said to be the best in individual merit it has ever had, and it is numerically stronger than before. Its strength and attractiveness is due largely to its clean and altogether healthy tone and in the care which is taken to maintain it as pre-eminently an entertainment to give pleasure to children as well as those of larger growth. ballet and pictorial embellishment are in themselves magnificent, and sufficient to give popularity of great degree. The melodies are rythmical and have the rippling cadence that commend them to the popular ear. The ballets possess distinct beauty, each in its own way, forming a series of great attractiveness throughout.

Delicate Operation Performed.

Dr. John Kelly yesterday morning performed an operation on Dominick Killeen, of Brooklyn street, for an soldiers, sailors and marines who abscess on the neck. The operation took place at Dr. Wheeler's private hosbecause of the many nerves and blood vessels in the part of the body manipulated upon. Mr. Killeen had be n affected for more than three weeks, and applied to Dr. Kelly for relief. The physician at once determined the nature of the trouble and advised him to go to the hospital. When the operation was performed an incision one and a half inches deep was made, which opened the abscess. A large quantity of pus was extracted. The doctor also found that the pus had begun to spread and had the operation not been performed the patient would have been strangled by the pressure of the swelling on the
