MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune, Montrose, Dec. 27.-Grand jury meets in this place on next Mondaythe last day of the century. John Gage, of Rushville, is the newly appointed mercantile appraiser for Susquehanna county. The career of the Bijou Comedy company, organized by E. A. Maine, of this place, and which started on the road last Monday, was short and and lindeed. Its first stop was at Tunkhannock; its last stop was at Athens, where it stopped short and gave up the ghost. The several actors and actresses out of a job left some for New York and some for pastures new, while the enterprising but unfortunate manager has returned home with a large fund-of experience

After January 1 the stores of this borough will close at 6 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. This is for the mutual benefit of our merchants and their clerks and the public will quickly adapt itself to the change.

Mr. Henry Burgess, an old and honored resident, is seriously ill of pneumonia at his residence on Lake avenue.

Robert Raynsford, of Cornell university, at Ithaca, is the guest of his parents in this place.

L. R. Titsworth is mourning the loss of his fine bull dog, which was fa-tally injured while being separated from a canine antagonist, Charles Swift, of Scranton, was a

and Mary Monohan, of Ashley, are guests of Miss Mary McGowan, of Main street.

The funeral of Patrick O. Sullivan took place yesterday morning from the residence of his son, John, in the North End. A requiem mass was celebrated in St. Mary's church. Interment was made in Nanticoke cemetery. The marriage of Miss Belinda Dempsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dempsey, of the West Side, and James O'Boyle, of the North End, was solemnized in St. Mary's church on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The bride and her sister, Miss Josephine, were handsomely attired in cloth gowns. The former wore brown and the latter a garnet suit with applique trimmings. Both wore prettily designed turbans and each carried pink and white roses. As the bridal party entered the church to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Elizabeth Murphy they presented a scene of gracefulness as well as beauty. After a wedding Fervent patriots will have an opportunity dur breakfast at the home of the bride's ng the first half of next week to revel in the parents they left on a wedding trip to New York city. For several years Mrs. O'Boyle has been leader of St. Mary's choir and her clear soprano voice will > utes exchange thousands of shots from decks and turrets, and burn and aink under the waves in sight of the audience. Another very effective scene is the blowing up of the Auine. Other scenes of the play are representations of the forts of Cavite and Corregidor, a view of the beach near Cavite, Havana harbor and Morro Castle by moonlight, and a view of the heights opposite Havana. The play is called "Remem-ber the Maine," and will be at the Academy the

Fl. fa. to January Term, 1901. ZIASO Al G. Field, who always gives us something new in the minstrel line, has a card this season which he claims is the strongest feature ever brought to this country. It is a tribe of genuine Mamelukes from Morocco. They appear first about the middle of the thirteenth century as a body of soldiery employed as a body guard to the ruling sultan, Malak-el Adel II. The word Mameluke is derived from the Arabic "Memelik," a slave, and the original Mamelukes were young
