POOR BOARD MEETS.

Kate McNulty Made Application for More Relief—The Hospital Claim Presented.

Poor board met in regular session last night with the following members present: Chairman McCabe, Rivenburg, Lynch and Thomas. The minutes were read and accepted. Kate McNulty, of the West Side, petitioned the board for an increase in the amount of relief granted her. The case was referred to Director Rivenburg, of the First ward, with power to act. Kate was inclined to be fractious, but Chairman McCabe handled her without gloves and she soon quieted down.

William Walker, of the board of directors of Emergency hospital, then addressed the board in reference to a bill against the hospital district. He said that while there might be a little misunderstanding regarding the matter, he believed a committee from each of the boards could get together and soon straighten it out. The hospital's appropriation is almost gone, and the situation is badly in need of money. He said that the hospital board has no desire to beat the poor board out of any money not due, but on the other hand, it would like to get what is due. It was finally settled that the hospital directors or their committee meet with the poor board finance committee on Wednesday evening.

The secretary of the Ladies Aid society of Philadelphia wants information concerning two boys formerly cared for by the society. The secretary was instructed to send the desired information.

Some complaint was made about the delay in getting in the poor tax, and the chairman said he would stir the collector up a little. After the payment of the following bills, the board adjourned:

A REPETITION OF CHRISTMAS MUSIC.

The Special Music of Last Sunday to Be Sung Again.

The special Christmas music at the Methodist church last Sunday was so much enjoyed by the congregation that it has been decided to render the programme that was presented again tomorrow. Last Sunday night was also very stormy and there were a number of churches holding special services, and for that reason, as well, it has thought that the repetition will be welcomed. The programme, in full, follows:

- MORNING SERVICE.
- Organ voluntary.....Mrs. G. Ackerman
 - Singing by congregation, Hymn No. 31.
 - The Apostles' Creed.
 - Prayer.
 - Audition, "There Were Shepherds," W. R. Spence
 - By the Choir.
 - Palm-antiph.
 - Offertory, Offering.
 - Offertory, "Brightest and Best," A. H. Platt
 - Miss M. Kilpatrick and W. B. Evans.
 - Vocal solo, "The Babe in the Manger," 22.14
 - Singing, No. 159, "Adoring the Holy Child," Congregation.
 - Sermon, Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor.
 - Singing, No. 24, "Prayer of Peace," Congregation.
 - Organ, postlude.....Mrs. G. Ackerman
 - EVENING SERVICE.
 - Organ voluntary.....Mrs. G. Ackerman
 - Singing, No. 159, "The Guiding Star," Congregation.
 - Creed.
 - Prayer.
 - Audition, "There Were Shepherds," Charles Vincent.
 - Offertory, "The Babe in the Manger," S. Adams
 - William D. Evans.
 - Offertory, "The Babe in the Manger," H. B. Dresler.
 - Choir.
 - Singing, No. 158, "Peace on Earth," Congregation.
 - Sermon, Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor.
 - Prayer.
 - Offertory, "Hymn of the Nativity," J. J. Stewart
 - Singing, No. 158, "Joy to the World," Band/Union.
 - Organ, postlude.....Mrs. G. Ackerman

Will Combine Pleasure and Business.

Isaac Singer, of the Park Clothing house, departs this evening for a week's visit to New York city. His primary object is to purchase spring goods for the store and to get the latest things for men and boys in wearing apparel. But Mr. Singer always has an eye on the social side of life, and while away he will enjoy himself by attending several evening functions, the chief of which will be a reception on New Year's eve by the Fifield club of New York city, one of the most prominent organizations in the city.

The Passing of the "Candy Butcher."

Passenger Agent Homer G. Baker, of the Erie, is authority for the statement that newsboys on Erie trains will soon be a thing of the past. After midnight on Monday newsboys will not be permitted on any of the trains west of Salamanca and Buffalo, and the same conditions will exist on trains east of those points after January 31. In other words, after January 31, newsboys will not be permitted on any portion of the Erie railroad.

A Piscatorial Expedition.

A. Wilson Geary, Delbert Wilson and Bert Wickwire left yesterday morning for a two days' fishing trip at Williams' lake in Como.

Snow and Ice.

The condition of the sidewalks in the central city is deplorable since the snow-fall of yesterday morning. The accumulation of packed snow and ice has been allowed to remain in front of nearly all the business houses, very few of which seem to have taken the trouble to make the walking free from danger in front of their stores. Pedestrianism is accomplished by a series of uncouth gestures on the part of the stroller and it certainly a dispensation of Providence that Carbondallians seem to be equipped with a steady head and a sure foot. But a stranger who is unaccustomed to a glacial crossing may come in on the next train and get mad if he falls down and bumps himself and a shovel is sometimes cheaper than a law-suit.

SONG SERVICE AT THE BEREAN CHURCH.

Roman Catholic Hymn Writers Will Be Remembered by Baptists Tomorrow Evening.

On Sunday morning the pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the season: "Remembrance of Mercies" will be the theme. The evening sermon will be the fourth in the series of denominational hymn services, and will be "An Evening with Roman Catholic Hymn Writers and Their Hymns." The pastor will give a brief biography of each of the writers, tell the story of the hymn in its origin and use, and the choir and congregation will sing the hymn. The following well known hymns will constitute the programme: "Rise, Crowned with Light," Alexander Pope; "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee," Bernard of Clairvaux; "There's a Wilderness in God's Mercy," Frederick W. Faber; "Come, Ye Disconsolate," Thomas Moore; "O, Christ, Our King, Creator, Lord," Gregory, the Great; "Lead Kindly Light," John Henry Newman; "My God, I Love Thee," Francis Xavier.

These hymn services on the last Sunday evening in each month always attract large audiences to the Berean church.

"LET THERE BE LIGHT."

A Number of New Gas Mains Filled with the Odorous Fluid Yesterday.

That the Carbondale Gas company is making rapid headway in its work of opening up streets, installing new mains and turning on gas was evidenced yesterday. Last night a large number of houses that had hitherto only been illuminated by kerosene lamps were aglow with the superior shadow-dispelling light from the little iron pipes. Yesterday the following mains were filled with gas ready for ignition: From Main street, on Eighth avenue, to Terrace and Lincoln avenues, 1,750 feet; Terrace street, on Seventh avenue to Park street, 722 feet; Park street to Wayne avenue, on Seventh avenue, 614 feet; odd ends (mains to valves), 267; Eighth avenue and south on Church, 555; a total length of 4,288 feet. Over 2,000 feet more of mains are almost ready to be filled, and the work is going on steadily. The new management of the company are certainly hustlers.

SECOND SIGHT.

Mysterious Art to Be Practiced on New Year's Day.

Second sight is to most people one of the most mysterious of the mysteries that are becoming so frequent to the masses and especially those who are fond of the theater. Since the retirement of the celebrated Davenport Brothers people attempting the performance of second sight have been remarkably rare. Prince Albino, assistant manager of the Grand Opera, has been especially clever in this wonderful art, and who has mystified thousands of the best known and most conservative people in the larger cities of the United States, have been engaged by Manager Burke, of the Vaudeville Festival company and will make their first appearance before the theater-goers of this city on New Year's day.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Rash Act of a Former Carbondalian in Newark, N. J. An Associated Press dispatch from New York says: "Chief of Police Hopper, of Newark, today received a postal card from Newark, N. J., saying that the man who committed suicide in Newark, Dec. 17, was Edward Boswell, a sewing machine agent, who had lived at Carbondale, Pa., and Mt. Vernon, N. Y. The card also said that Boswell's father was a Presbyterian minister in a small Presbyterian church. The suicide had registered in Newark as J. Wayne, Pittsburg, Pa."

The Strike.

For the sixth day no cars were run in this city yesterday, and the falling snow buried almost all traces of the rails and roadbed, so that it would hardly be known that a trolley car ever passed through the city streets, were it not for the overhead wire. The manager of the silk mill, Marcus Frieder, has chartered a huge bus and the hands were called for and delivered to the Grand on Monday. Mr. Frieder was reported yesterday morning that a delegation of "strike breakers" were on the Delaware and Hudson road, on their way up to this city to take out the force and intention being apparently to carry for this end. But they must have been discouraged, for no trace of them had been seen up till night-fall.

A Miner Injured.

A miner named Casey, living on the South Side, was injured by a fall of rock in Powderly mine yesterday. He was taken to Emergency hospital, but inquiry made there last evening revealed the fact that his wounds are not thought to be of a very serious nature.

Is Pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clark, of Carbondale, and guests or friends in town Monday night and Christmas. Mr. Clark is well pleased with his position as manager of the Carbondale office of the Postal Telegraph company.—New Milford Advocate.

A Farewell Supper.

In the handsome bachelor apartments of Edward Coddington in the Anthracite building, on Wednesday evening, there was a pleasant little gathering of friends of Mr. Coddington. The host had the receipt in honor of two of his friends, Anthony Connor and Michael Tucker, both members of Battery F, United States light artillery, stationed at Washington, D. C. The young men have been on a furlough, visiting relatives here. The evening was passed in singing and story telling.

"Jack and the Beanstalk."

"Jack and the Beanstalk," which comes to the Grand on Monday, is an extravaganza in all that the word implies. It was written by R. A. Barnett, of Boston, who has taken for his theme good old nursery rhymes. The characters include "Jack, the Giant Killer," who is the son of "Old Mother Hubbard," and whose chum is "Hubbard, the Sailor." Jack is in love with "Princess Mary, so contrary," who is the daughter of "Old King Cole." The story of the play follows closely the enchanting nursery legend, we all have read, from the time that Jack disposed of his mother's cow for a handful of beans up until the marriage of the daring young fellow to the Princess Mary. A large company and a most attractive corps of young ladies will be seen in conjunction with the play.

Storage Plant Empty.

The heap of the huge coal piles at the Anthracite Park storage plant has disappeared, all of the coal having been shipped to market. It is not considered likely that any more will be stored there until next spring.

A Special Meeting.

The members of Court Daniel O'Connell, Foresters of America, met at St.
