At the New Home Festival.

The attendance at the new home fesival now in full operation at 122 North Main avenue, under the auspices of St. Brenden's council, Young Men's institute, has been very gratifying to the promoters, and the crowd last evening was the largest since the opening night. A number of valuable prizes were disposed of from the plum tree and much interest was manifested in the museum and other attractions of the fair.

Those present last evening were in the majority from total abstinence societies and all enjoyed themselves immensely. This evening promises to be another record breaker in attendance and special provisions have been made to entertain the visitors. In addition to the regular attractions, Miss Anna, Scanlon and Miss Maghran will sing solos and duets. Many useful prizes will be shaken from the plum tree as Local Treatments for Catarrh Relegated to the Rear.

The surest and safest treatment for any form of Catarrh is an internal remedy which acts specifically upon the blood and mucous membranes. Such a remedy is the new preparation sold everywhere by druggists as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a medicine in pleasant tablet form.

Thes tablets contain in highly concentrated form, well known germ antiseptics like sanguinaria, guafacol, Red Gum and similar curative elements, and no one who suffers from any form of catarrh, and has experienced the inefficiency and inconvenience of powders, sprays and inhalers will ever go back to such antiquated remedles after once trying so pleasant a treatment as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and one which gives so much relief in so short a time.

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized package and their daily use will effectually cure this troublesome and dangerous disease. The danger from catarrh is that it is a short road to consumption, to chronic stomach catarrh and to catarrh of liver and kidneys. Most cases of deafness are caused from stoppage of the Eustachian tube as a result of catarrh.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNI-VERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Williams Celebrated the Fiftieth Year of Their Wedded Life Last Night in the Welsh Congregational Church, Where Gathered a Host of Their Friends-Willis Moore to Address Scranton Men's Society - Watch Night Services-Other News Notes.

An unique celebration was held last night in the Welsh Congregational church, when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Williams were given a pleasant surprise, it being the occasion of their fiftleth wedding anniversary. church was well filled with friends of the happy couple, who had gathered to tender their congratulations on the safe arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Williams at this far mile-stone in their life's journey.

At 7 o'clock, as Mr. and Mrs. Willlams entered the church, they were greeted with the pleasing strains of an organ voluntary, played by the church organist, Mrs. William Bevan, After they were seated upon the pulpit platform, the reading desk having been removed, the entire congregation sang the "Doxology" and afterwards the 'Coronation."

The church was prettily decorated with evergreens and "gold," above the heads of the couple being the large figures 1850-1900. The ushers, waiters and members of the committee of arrangements were yellow flowers and neckties. As the couple, accompanied by the pastor and his wife, passed up the aisles they were welcomed by the deacons and deaconesses of the church.

Daniel Price opened the meeting by stating the object of the assemblage and offering his congratulations to the bridal couple. After a solo by Miss Blodwin Thomas, the pastor spoke of the pleasure it afforded him to be able to attend a golden wedding, and especially so when the persons involved were two of his most active church workers. During the prayer that he offered at the close of his remarks, Mr. and Mrs. Williams stood with their hands clasped.

After a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Evan Gabriel, short addresses were made by Messes. Daniel Price, John T. Evans and John Grier, who have known and have been associated with the fortunate couple during the greater part of their residence in this place. They have, also, for many years been associated with Mr. Williams as deacons of the church. These addresses, and those made by local bards, were interspersed with solos by Henry Hitchings. Mrs. D. D. Lewis, Miss Elizabeth Elicott, Joshua John, Esau Price and John L. Evans. Also by selections by the orchestra, led by Reese Davis.

During the exercises a purse of gold was presented to Mr. Williams by William Simmons, the oldest male member of the church, and to Mrs. Williams by Mrs. Sarah Richards After a light lunch had been served by the ladies of the church, all present gladly shook hands with the happy couple and tendered their congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams are well known in this part of the city, having lived here the greater part of their married lives. Born in Breconshire. South Wales, in 1827, they emigrated about thirty-five years ago. After working in the mines, Mr. Williams entered the old Co-operative store as a clerk, and was a well-known figure behind the counter for more than a quarter of a century. For the past three or four years he has been leading a retired life.

For the past thirty-five years the couple have been actively connected with the church, Mr. Williams having continuously been a deacon, trustee and treasurer. During this time the church has not only been rebuilt, but has had several additions made to it. He has also been active in other branches of the church work, at one time being chorister and also accompanying the singing with his clarionet on which instrument he is yet a skilled player. He has also filled many other offices in the church and Sunday school at various times. It was because of the intense interest that he took in church work that this innovation was given by the church members.

The members of Providence conclave No. 195, Improved Order of Heptasophs, are requested to meet at their hall Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock to attend the funeral of their late brother, Thos. Meredith.

The Providence Presbyterian congregation was so greatly gratified with its Christmas music of last Sunday evening that Choirmaster C. F. Whittemore and full choir have consented to repeat the entire programme tomorrow evening. The music will not have the inspiring accessories of Christmas Sabbath and of the Christmas sentiment, nevertheless the real merits of the music itself were so pronounced that the choir need have no hesitancy in giving it a second rendition in a more plain session of the church. The service tomorow evening will begin at 7.20 o'clock.
