

NEW YEAR'S EVE IN CHURCHES

WEST SCRANTON

JAPANESE WEDDING AND EN-TERTAINMENT.

At the First Welsh Baptist Church Was the Feature of the Evening. Similar Social Events in the Jackson Street and Tabernacle Churches. Hose Company Ball and New Home Festival-Concert This Evening. Other Notes and Personals.

One of the prettiest and most interesting entertainments of the holiday season was given in the First Welsh Baptist church last evening by the young ladies of the Baptist Young People union. It was in the nature of a Japanese wedding, social and other features. The programme was opened with a piano duet by Mrs. D. B. Thomas and Miss Elizabeth Hughes, which was followed by a clever recltation by little Edith May, a talented young artist.

The Japanese wedding was the feature of the evening, and was participated in by the sixteen young ladies. Miss Barbara Lewis was the bride, and she looked charming in a gown of white. Her maids and attendants were becomingly attired in Japanese cosmages in keeping with the performance. The church was also prettily decorated for the event.

Miss Engabeth Lewis sang sweetly a solo suitable to her voice, and sixteen of the Japanese maidens went through the evolutions of a fantastic drill. This was followed by a solo by Miss Elizabeth How'll, who sang in excellent voice. Miss Eva Thomas recited clevery, with a vocal accompaniment by Miss Lizzie Lewis.

The Japanese chorus was given by the young ladies and the closing "lum-ber was a tableaux called the "Salite of the Fans," in which the following young ladies appeared: Barbara Lew-is, Elizabeth Lewis, Edith Jones, May Richards, Elizabeth Hughes, Elizabeth Howell, Sadie Jones, Jennie Jenkins, Catherine Phillips, Bertha Kelly, Eva Thomas, Margaret Jones, Olive Bowen, Jennie Williams, Ruth Jones, Sarah Meredith, Lillie Davies, Edith Jenkins, Norma Williams, Sarah Jones and Dora. Jones.

The instrumental accompaniments were rendered by Miss Elizabeth Hughes, and the elocutionary part of the programme was given under the direction of Miss Sadie E. Jones. A social was enjoyed after the entertainment, at which ice cream was served. The patronage was very gratifying to the promoters. It is probable that the entertainment may be repeated at some

AT JACKSON STREET CHURCH. At the Jackson Street Baptist church an entertainment, social and devotional service was held last evening. Phonographic selections were rendered under the direction of William Thomas and John Lloyd presided. Misses Edith Beddoe, Annie Thomas, Maggie Gleason and Master Herbert Williams sang solos and a novel spelling match was conducted under the direction of Dr. de Gruchy. The devotional meet-ing begun at 11.30 o'clock and was largely attended.

MASSES AT ST. PATRICK'S. A midnight mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's Catholic church by Rev. P. E. Lavelle, which was attended by many of the parishioners. Masses will be said this morning in the church at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock.

New Home Festival.

The storeroom at 122 North Main avenue was thronged with visitors last evening, when St. Brenden's council new home festival was resumed for the second week. The visitors entered merrily into the enjoyment of the event, and shook the plum tree with good results. Among the prizes won were a ton of coal by William Kelly, of Ninth street; a sack of flour by Edward O'Malley, of Jackson street, and several minor prizes. The programme of entertainment in-cluded a piano solo by Miss Mame Cavanaugh, violin solo by Frank Doyle, and two vocal numbers by Miss Anna Scanlon, who sang with exceptional sweetness "The Holy City" and "My Dream of You." Miss Rose Conway was the accompanist. The fair will be open this afternoon and evening

REV. W. H. WILLIAMS SPEAKS AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

He Conducted the First of a Series of Revival Meetings Last Night and Delivered a Most Powerful and Eloquent New Year's Address to a Large Congregation-Cleon Schulz Surprised at His Home on Monroe Avenue-Other News Notes and Personal Mention.

Rev. W. H. Williams, the "Drummer Evangelist" and local superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, last night delivered the first of a series of revival sermons, which are to be given in the Dunmore Methodist Episcopal church during the coming two weeks. Among other things, he said:

We stand tonight on the threshold of a new year and century. Let us stop long enough during these holiday festivities to review the peot. We summat go bars to mend what is broken, for things done are eternally done. What we neglect are eternally neglected. Seeing where we have failed we can only profit by the past. The most expensive thing of a life" of sin is tost opportunities. Our highest for come from the serve of duty performed. We can only help ourselves to a better life as we help others, and in helping others we help ourselves meet. We are passing this way but once; we go to the mile stones one at a time. So we must do our work as we go along, not waiting to d motion what we should do today. The close of the year is a fitting time to nut er our days. It is criminal to himself and busines for a man to let the affairs of the close up without a strict examination.

We are today just what the year has made up Has it lifted us nearer heaven or widened the distance between your soul and God? We serve God by serving humanity. How many have you given a helping hand? #### Pleasant Surprise Party.

A large number of the young friends of Mr. Cleon Shultz tendered him a surprise party at his home or Monroe avenue last night. Games and other diversions whiled away a pleasant evening, and just about as the new century was born the assembly sat down to dainty refreshments. The following were among those present: Misses Bessie Brink, Jessie Price, Leah Mowery, Buelah Ives, Jennie Davis, Blanche Oakley, Bessie Powell, Hortense Collins, Louise Collins, Emma Swartz, Olive Warner Barbara Eden, Jane Simpson, Stasla Cawley, Buelah Swartz, May Palmer, Bronislaowa Knot ......Seranton Albert C. A hundred years ago there was no Scranton. The department store was an unknown quantity. Electricity had yet to hear its pulse throb. Such an instrument as a pneumatic cash carrier system would have frightened humanity. And only a hundred years that have come and gone with striking rapidity. Today the Department Store is the forerunner of greatest business activity. It is the one idea of making the most of possibility. It gives the greatest comfort, affords the greatest pleasure to the largest number. It intensifies buying interest. It minimizes the burden of shopping. It is the systematic, the methodical way of doing things, A new era, born of hope and here to stay. In the center of quite two hundred thousand souls, Scranton's big department store is making history. Across the length and breadth of the land there is no finer store building. There could be no finer stock contained within its portals. Every system to add comfort and convenience is with-in easy access. The store errand becomes a pleasure trip. All these things form a new epoch in history. We write of them on the pages of the Century that is gone. The story shall continue on the spotless pages of the New. And with it all comes our wishes for the brightest and the happiest New Year and New Century, that it is possible for us to give.
