Hawley Consecrated Anew. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Hawley, Jan. 1.—The old Hawley Methodist Episcopal church which has been a landmark and such a blessing to this place for over fifty years, was formally rededicated Sunday. The extensive repairs and alterations which have been going on for the past two and a half months have changed the old landmark from its rustic appearance to a beautiful modern twentleth century structure, second to none in the Honesdale district. The untiring efforts of the hustling pastor, the Rev. S. C. Simpkins, with the heary co-oper-ation of the official board, and congregation brought about this change in so quiet and satisfactory a manner as to appear seemingly by magic. When it was announced at the morning service that the full debt was provided for It certainly was a pleasing surprise as the time-stained custom of building a church and paying for it by eloquent appeals from high officials was abandoned. The Rev. J. F. Warner, presiding elder, presided at both morning and evening services. He was assisted by the pastor and the venerable Rev. Newell, a former pastor; Rev. J. P. Crane, of the Presbyterian, and the Rev. C. M. Minch, of Chester, Pa., former pastor of the Baptist church. The elder delivered two masterly sermons to very large and interested audiences, but the climax was reached when the Keystone double quartette, of Peckville, Pa., composed of the ticipation was due principally to their friendship toward their former pastor, the Rev. Mr. Simpkins. They gave a delightful song service prior to the evening sermon, their chords and pathos was beautiful and their songs seemed to stir the souls of the audience and lift them up and heaven seemed to open with reciprocated praise. The egular choir also rendered some very beautiful anthems and on a whole the

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, Jan. 1 .- A beautiful day for the first in the new century. Ninety-eight tickets were sold at the union station for the Erie excursion to New York yesterday.

As the nineteenth century passed out the booming of cannon, ringing of bells and steam whistles filled the Honesdale valley with a deafening noise that made the hillside tremble. As a welcome to the twentieth century the whole community was aroused as never before and a watch meeting held in every house,

Last night as a gentleman was go ing to his home up town, while the whistles were sounding their loudest. he met a business man running down West street, gasping for breath, asking where the fire was. "What fire" said the gentleman. "Don't you hear the fire gong blowing?" said he. Upon being informed that it was in honor of the twentieth century, he said words not often seen in print, censuring the town council. As he returned to his home he resolved to do so no more.

The Central theatre was the scene of a happy crowd of young people last night, who danced from the nineteenth to the twentieth century, the occasion being a masquerade given by Miss Florence Suydam and Mr. Charles Dorflinger. About forty masked couples were present, some in gorgeous robes and some otherwise, representing all nations, even the little German band. The hall was tastefully arranged with screens and evergreens. A large number of spectators were present to participate in the enjoyment. The music was furnished by Freeman's orchestra. Dodge Brothers were the caterors. Among the out-oftown guests were Miss Sarah Burr and Mr. Silas McMullen, of Carbondale; Mr. Dow and Miss Susie Waite, of Scranton; Mr. Stephen Day and Mr. Howard Chandler, of Orange, N. J.; Thomas Ham, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Susquehanna, Jan. 1.-The annual ball of the Erie Hose company, No. 1, held in Hogan Opera House last evening, was largely attended, and a very pleasant social event. Doran's orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion.

The Eric shops are closed today. It is said that the Eric Railroad company will pay $700 toward sewering the streets of this borough.

The funeral of the late (Rice) Kavanaugh was attended this afternoon from the family residence, on East Main street, Rev. Henry Newing, pastor of the Metho dist Episcopal church, officiating. The remains will be taken to Rochester, N. Y., on Wednesday morning for services and interment.

The condition of Colonel William H. Helford, who has been seriously ill for several months, is not improved. A largely-attended midnight mass was held last night in St. John's Catholic church. The Transcript was not issued today. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Titsworth last evening entertained the Men's club, of Christ Episcopal church, in the Sunday school room of the church. The Susquehanna, Oakland and Lanesboro Methodist churches united in a Twentieth century watch night service last night in the Susquehanna Methodist church. It was largely attended and very interesting.

It is probable that Rev. Edward Reilly, of Mansfield, Pa., will be called to the pastorate of the Susquehanna Presbyterian church. He occupied the pulpit on Sunday sast and made a ery favorable impression. Waseca council, Daughters of Poco nontas, this afternoon attended the funeral of the late Williams C. (Rice) Kavanaugh. The Combination Social club will en-

Is Often the Real Cause of a Sour Temper.

That the condition of the digestly organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben Johnson wisely said "the pleasure of living depends upon the liver" and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying, creating gases which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and ir-

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition called the "blues" but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digsetion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual diges-The sensible course to follow is to

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are pop-tones, diastase and Hydrochloric and actic acids, and when any of them are lacinkg the trouble begins; the reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food, Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence. Mass., says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active outdoor life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily "From the time I was 22, when I graduated from school with broken realth from overwork, until I was 34 scarcely knew what it was to free from stomach weakness; I hal no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal. I had acidity and heartburn nearly very day and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspensia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The sucess and popularity of Stuart's dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deerved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

The settlement of the difficulty be tween the Scranton Dairy company and milk producers is still the subject of much interest and comment. The checks for November milk were delivered through Lawyer Davis, attorney for the milk producers, on Saturday but as some are not willing to sign the agreement releasing the company from the fulfillment of their contract extending to April 1, this prevents the checks from passing into the hands of their rightful owners. The farmers are holding meetings almost daily, just at present, and it is hoped a satisfactory adjustment of the matter will soon b
