

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

ACCIDENT TO LUMBERMAN

Mr. Trascott Completes the Story He Was Telling After Lying Unconscious for a Month.

IN RAILROAD CIRCLES

The Cigarette—Story of a Man with the Daring of Ethan Allen Who Crawls into the Lair of a Wild Cat and Uses the Blazing Eyes of the Animal for a Target—News Told in a Line or So.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Towanda, Jan. 6.—The county auditors will begin their annual duties Monday.

John G. Scouten, the Dushore editor and ex-attorney, who was some time ago convicted of murder by Judge Krass, was acquitted on Friday evening in the trial by Judge Mitchell.

George English, a lineman at Sayre, touched a live wire and as a result fell to the ground and received a scalp wound.

Asa Wilcox, of Wells, won a prize of $50 for raising nearest the population of the United States. His figures were 75,697,918.

Towanda speculators have sold their interest in the Ganoga hotel at New York.

Among the applications for licenses there are fifty-six for hotel, seven for restaurant, nine for wholesalers and four for bottlers' licenses in this county.

In the report of Bradford county's vital statistics for the past year, it is shown that there were 877 births, 611 deaths; the county's population is 68,403, and the report gives a death rate of 10.86. In 1898 this county had 1,128 births and 664 deaths, which shows the last report is a decided decrease.

J. McCarty has been appointed district deputy for the county of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association, and attended a state meeting of the officers at Scranton on Friday.

A lad named Hoffa, of Bernice, swallowed a head of timothy nearly four years ago, which he found in his windpipe and later reached his lung. In a coughing spell a few days ago he ejected the grass.

The Baptist church of Waverly, N. Y., has been freed from a debt of $1,600 last year.

The new First National bank of Sayre will be open for business about January 15.

Each married man employed by the Cayuga Wheel and Foundry company recently received a gift of a turkey.

The school board will meet this evening.

William Netter, of Syracuse, is spending a few weeks with his family on South Main street.

Samuel Decker will remove his family to this town this week.

James Deble, of the West Side, is seriously ill.

At a meeting of the Ancient Order of Foresters, on Friday evening, the following officers were installed: Junior past chief ranger, William Major; chief ranger, John Biddle; subordinate chief ranger, James Powell; financial secretary, William Rowe; recording secretary, W. J. Williams; treasurer, Alex. Conkey; senior woodward, William Sutherland; junior woodward, Richard Richards; senior bowler, David Brown; junior bowler, John Brown.

The installing officer was M. J. Dosey. After the ceremonies, addresses were made by Adam Clark, M. J. Dosey and Richard Richards. Soles were given by W. J. Williams, James Oliver, William Gilchrist, William Major, and James Oliver. William Rowe gave an excellent address, which contained the history of the order, together with its assets and expenditures during the past century. A smoker was indulged in and refreshments were served.

The play is interspersed with light comedy, sparkling music, and charming lyrics. Its musical scenery and mechanical effects are also worthy of special mention. It is breezy, light and vivacious on the move, and there is a wit and "zip" about it that captures the gallery as well as the elite of every audience.

"Night Owl Burlesquers." Fred Riley's famous "Night Owl Burlesquers" will make their appearance at the Grand opera for a three days' engagement, with matinee each day. Two burlesques are produced, interrupted by a number of the strongest specialty acts ever played with any legitimate organization.

A mammoth bill will be offered at the Gaiety for three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 10, with matinee every day, in which Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers will display some of the best vaudeville talent for the public, supported by as handsome a supply of burlesques as ever gathered into one company. There are two burlesques, rather big vaudeville stars.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Has been used for 40 YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEething, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by druggists in every town. Beware of cheap imitations and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

IN A LINE OR TWO. There was a joint installation of officers of Moody post and Moody rifle corps, Great Army of the Republic, on Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served later on.

The funeral of Margaret, wife of

UNCLE SAM AT BUFFALO

NATIONAL EXHIBITS AT PAN-AMERICAN SHOW.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.

Monday—"The Parish Priest." Wednesday—Sousa's band. Matinee. Thursday—Burlesque. Matinee. Friday and Saturday—"The Village Postmaster."

Academy.

First Three Days—"Side Tracked." Last Three Days—"Human Hearts."

Gaiety.

First Three Days—"Night Owl Burlesquers." Last Three Days—Royal Burlesquers.

"The Parish Priest" Tonight.

Daniel Sully is certainly deserving of the success he has won. He never misses a single touch which tells in the character he so faithfully represents, and his entire work is clean, wholesome and effective.

Every theatrical organization ought to try and combine with amusement something of instruction. After an evening with Daniel Sully as Father Whalen in "The Parish Priest," the spectator can go home feeling that he has not only been amused, but has learned a lesson.

Sousa.

An interested observer at the Sousa concert this season has made the discovery that the popular bandmaster has had a new collection of music, and in his new collection of music, instead of the glittering array of bejeweled decorations that formerly covered completely the many sheets of the "March Kings" there now are but four or five medals depending from various colored ribbons. The first and the one that Sousa prizes most is the spool-shaped badge that was the official emblem of the Sixth Army corps in the Philippines.

Another handsome souvenir is the single gold medal that was struck to commemorate the great success of Sousa's concert in Munich last summer, which hangs from a cross-bar, bearing the Bavarian colors, blue and white, in enamel. The largest of the decorations is the Grand Cross of the Royal Academy of Italian Music, which came to the conductor after his success in Brussels and Liege. This cross depends from a ribbon of black, yellow, and red, which is the colors of the Italian flag.

Sousa is coming here for two grand concerts with the band that is his constant companion in Europe, appearing at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 9. The assisting soloists will be Blanche Burdick, soprano, and Bertha Burdick, violinist.

Old Musical Imitations.

Miss Corrida Simpson, the well known artist and imitator of various musical instruments who has made a most marked impression upon the patrons of the Academy of Music, will be larger of our metropolitan cities, has been secured by Manager Burke, of the vaudeville, for their next appearance here, which occurs on next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The oddity of Miss Simpson's imitations arises from the remarkable manner in which they are produced, she imitating in an almost perfect manner, nearly every instrument of the orchestra, as well as the cornet, clarinet, trombone, bassoon and drum, all done exclusively with a piano, these imitations have secured for her a reputation of being one of the most entertaining and pleasing artists now in the vaudeville profession.

"Human Hearts."

That great and beautiful drama, "Human Hearts," will be presented Tuesday and Saturday at the Academy of Music.

"Side Tracked." The attraction at the Academy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the sensational comedy drama, "Side Tracked," which deals with the funny side of life on the railroad.

"Night Owl Burlesquers." Fred Riley's famous "Night Owl Burlesquers" will make their appearance at the Grand opera for a three days' engagement, with matinee each day. Two burlesques are produced, interrupted by a number of the strongest specialty acts ever played with any legitimate organization.

A mammoth bill will be offered at the Gaiety for three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 10, with matinee every day, in which Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers will display some of the best vaudeville talent for the public, supported by as handsome a supply of burlesques as ever gathered into one company. There are two burlesques, rather big vaudeville stars.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Has been used for 40 YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEething, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by druggists in every town. Beware of cheap imitations and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

UNCLE SAM AT BUFFALO

NATIONAL EXHIBITS AT PAN-AMERICAN SHOW.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.

Monday—"The Parish Priest." Wednesday—Sousa's band. Matinee. Thursday—Burlesque. Matinee. Friday and Saturday—"The Village Postmaster."

Academy.

First Three Days—"Side Tracked." Last Three Days—"Human Hearts."

Gaiety.

First Three Days—"Night Owl Burlesquers." Last Three Days—Royal Burlesquers.

"The Parish Priest" Tonight.

Daniel Sully is certainly deserving of the success he has won. He never misses a single touch which tells in the character he so faithfully represents, and his entire work is clean, wholesome and effective.

Every theatrical organization ought to try and combine with amusement something of instruction. After an evening with Daniel Sully as Father Whalen in "The Parish Priest," the spectator can go home feeling that he has not only been amused, but has learned a lesson.

Sousa.

An interested observer at the Sousa concert this season has made the discovery that the popular bandmaster has had a new collection of music, and in his new collection of music, instead of the glittering array of bejeweled decorations that formerly covered completely the many sheets of the "March Kings" there now are but four or five medals depending from various colored ribbons. The first and the one that Sousa prizes most is the spool-shaped badge that was the official emblem of the Sixth Army corps in the Philippines.

Another handsome souvenir is the single gold medal that was struck to commemorate the great success of Sousa's concert in Munich last summer, which hangs from a cross-bar, bearing the Bavarian colors, blue and white, in enamel. The largest of the decorations is the Grand Cross of the Royal Academy of Italian Music, which came to the conductor after his success in Brussels and Liege. This cross depends from a ribbon of black, yellow, and red, which is the colors of the Italian flag.

Sousa is coming here for two grand concerts with the band that is his constant companion in Europe, appearing at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 9. The assisting soloists will be Blanche Burdick, soprano, and Bertha Burdick, violinist.

Old Musical Imitations.

Miss Corrida Simpson, the well known artist and imitator of various musical instruments who has made a most marked impression upon the patrons of the Academy of Music, will be larger of our metropolitan cities, has been secured by Manager Burke, of the vaudeville, for their next appearance here, which occurs on next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The oddity of Miss Simpson's imitations arises from the remarkable manner in which they are produced, she imitating in an almost perfect manner, nearly every instrument of the orchestra, as well as the cornet, clarinet, trombone, bassoon and drum, all done exclusively with a piano, these imitations have secured for her a reputation of being one of the most entertaining and pleasing artists now in the vaudeville profession.

"Human Hearts."

That great and beautiful drama, "Human Hearts," will be presented Tuesday and Saturday at the Academy of Music.

"Side Tracked." The attraction at the Academy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the sensational comedy drama, "Side Tracked," which deals with the funny side of life on the railroad.

"Night Owl Burlesquers." Fred Riley's famous "Night Owl Burlesquers" will make their appearance at the Grand opera for a three days' engagement, with matinee each day. Two burlesques are produced, interrupted by a number of the strongest specialty acts ever played with any legitimate organization.

A mammoth bill will be offered at the Gaiety for three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 10, with matinee every day, in which Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers will display some of the best vaudeville talent for the public, supported by as handsome a supply of burlesques as ever gathered into one company. There are two burlesques, rather big vaudeville stars.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Has been used for 40 YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEething, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by druggists in every town. Beware of cheap imitations and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

UNCLE SAM AT BUFFALO

NATIONAL EXHIBITS AT PAN-AMERICAN SHOW.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.

Monday—"The Parish Priest." Wednesday—Sousa's band. Matinee. Thursday—Burlesque. Matinee. Friday and Saturday—"The Village Postmaster."

Academy.

First Three Days—"Side Tracked." Last Three Days—"Human Hearts."

Gaiety.

First Three Days—"Night Owl Burlesquers." Last Three Days—Royal Burlesquers.

"The Parish Priest" Tonight.

Daniel Sully is certainly deserving of the success he has won. He never misses a single touch which tells in the character he so faithfully represents, and his entire work is clean, wholesome and effective.

Every theatrical organization ought to try and combine with amusement something of instruction. After an evening with Daniel Sully as Father Whalen in "The Parish Priest," the spectator can go home feeling that he has not only been amused, but has learned a lesson.

Sousa.

An interested observer at the Sousa concert this season has made the discovery that the popular bandmaster has had a new collection of music, and in his new collection of music, instead of the glittering array of bejeweled decorations that formerly covered completely the many sheets of the "March Kings" there now are but four or five medals depending from various colored ribbons. The first and the one that Sousa prizes most is the spool-shaped badge that was the official emblem of the Sixth Army corps in the Philippines.

Another handsome souvenir is the single gold medal that was struck to commemorate the great success of Sousa's concert in Munich last summer, which hangs from a cross-bar, bearing the Bavarian colors, blue and white, in enamel. The largest of the decorations is the Grand Cross of the Royal Academy of Italian Music, which came to the conductor after his success in Brussels and Liege. This cross depends from a ribbon of black, yellow, and red, which is the colors of the Italian flag.

Sousa is coming here for two grand concerts with the band that is his constant companion in Europe, appearing at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 9. The assisting soloists will be Blanche Burdick, soprano, and Bertha Burdick, violinist.

Old Musical Imitations.

Miss Corrida Simpson, the well known artist and imitator of various musical instruments who has made a most marked impression upon the patrons of the Academy of Music, will be larger of our metropolitan cities, has been secured by Manager Burke, of the vaudeville, for their next appearance here, which occurs on next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The oddity of Miss Simpson's imitations arises from the remarkable manner in which they are produced, she imitating in an almost perfect manner, nearly every instrument of the orchestra, as well as the cornet, clarinet, trombone, bassoon and drum, all done exclusively with a piano, these imitations have secured for her a reputation of being one of the most entertaining and pleasing artists now in the vaudeville profession.

"Human Hearts."

That great and beautiful drama, "Human Hearts," will be presented Tuesday and Saturday at the Academy of Music.

"Side Tracked." The attraction at the Academy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the sensational comedy drama, "Side Tracked," which deals with the funny side of life on the railroad.

"Night Owl Burlesquers." Fred Riley's famous "Night Owl Burlesquers" will make their appearance at the Grand opera for a three days' engagement, with matinee each day. Two burlesques are produced, interrupted by a number of the strongest specialty acts ever played with any legitimate organization.

A mammoth bill will be offered at the Gaiety for three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 10, with matinee every day, in which Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers will display some of the best vaudeville talent for the public, supported by as handsome a supply of burlesques as ever gathered into one company. There are two burlesques, rather big vaudeville stars.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Has been used for 40 YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEething, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by druggists in every town. Beware of cheap imitations and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

UNCLE SAM AT BUFFALO

NATIONAL EXHIBITS AT PAN-AMERICAN SHOW.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.

Monday—"The Parish Priest." Wednesday—Sousa's band. Matinee. Thursday—Burlesque. Matinee. Friday and Saturday—"The Village Postmaster."

Academy.

First Three Days—"Side Tracked." Last Three Days—"Human Hearts."

Gaiety.

First Three Days—"Night Owl Burlesquers." Last Three Days—Royal Burlesquers.

"The Parish Priest" Tonight.

Daniel Sully is certainly deserving of the success he has won. He never misses a single touch which tells in the character he so faithfully represents, and his entire work is clean, wholesome and effective.

Every theatrical organization ought to try and combine with amusement something of instruction. After an evening with Daniel Sully as Father Whalen in "The Parish Priest," the spectator can go home feeling that he has not only been amused, but has learned a lesson.

Sousa.

An interested observer at the Sousa concert this season has made the discovery that the popular bandmaster has had a new collection of music, and in his new collection of music, instead of the glittering array of bejeweled decorations that formerly covered completely the many sheets of the "March Kings" there now are but four or five medals depending from various colored ribbons. The first and the one that Sousa prizes most is the spool-shaped badge that was the official emblem of the Sixth Army corps in the Philippines.

Another handsome souvenir is the single gold medal that was struck to commemorate the great success of Sousa's concert in Munich last summer, which hangs from a cross-bar, bearing the Bavarian colors, blue and white, in enamel. The largest of the decorations is the Grand Cross of the Royal Academy of Italian Music, which came to the conductor after his success in Brussels and Liege. This cross depends from a ribbon of black, yellow, and red, which is the colors of the Italian flag.

Sousa is coming here for two grand concerts with the band that is his constant companion in Europe, appearing at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 9. The assisting soloists will be Blanche Burdick, soprano, and Bertha Burdick, violinist.

Old Musical Imitations.

Miss Corrida Simpson, the well known artist and imitator of various musical instruments who has made a most marked impression upon the patrons of the Academy of Music, will be larger of our metropolitan cities, has been secured by Manager Burke, of the vaudeville, for their next appearance here, which occurs on next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The oddity of Miss Simpson's imitations arises from the remarkable manner in which they are produced, she imitating in an almost perfect manner, nearly every instrument of the orchestra, as well as the cornet, clarinet, trombone, bassoon and drum, all done exclusively with a piano, these imitations have secured for her a reputation of being one of the most entertaining and pleasing artists now in the vaudeville profession.

"Human Hearts."

That great and beautiful drama, "Human Hearts," will be presented Tuesday and Saturday at the Academy of Music.

"Side Tracked." The attraction at the Academy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the sensational comedy drama, "Side Tracked," which deals with the funny side of life on the railroad.

"Night Owl Burlesquers." Fred Riley's famous "Night Owl Burlesquers" will make their appearance at the Grand opera for a three days' engagement, with matinee each day. Two burlesques are produced, interrupted by a number of the strongest specialty acts ever played with any legitimate organization.

A mammoth bill will be offered at the Gaiety for three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 10, with matinee every day, in which Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers will display some of the best vaudeville talent for the public, supported by as handsome a supply of burlesques as ever gathered into one company. There are two burlesques, rather big vaudeville stars.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Has been used for 40 YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEething, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by druggists in every town. Beware of cheap imitations and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

UNCLE SAM AT BUFFALO

NATIONAL EXHIBITS AT PAN-AMERICAN SHOW.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.

Monday—"The Parish Priest." Wednesday—Sousa's band. Matinee. Thursday—Burlesque. Matinee. Friday and Saturday—"The Village Postmaster."

Academy.

First Three Days—"Side Tracked." Last Three Days—"Human Hearts."

Gaiety.

First Three Days—"Night Owl Burlesquers." Last Three Days—Royal Burlesquers.

"The Parish Priest" Tonight.

Daniel Sully is certainly deserving of the success he has won. He never misses a single touch which tells in the character he so faithfully represents, and his entire work is clean, wholesome and effective.

Every theatrical organization ought to try and combine with amusement something of instruction. After an evening with Daniel Sully as Father Whalen in "The Parish Priest," the spectator can go home feeling that he has not only been amused, but has learned a lesson.

Sousa.

An interested observer at the Sousa concert this season has made the discovery that the popular bandmaster has had a new collection of music, and in his new collection of music, instead of the glittering array of bejeweled decorations that formerly covered completely the many sheets of the "March Kings" there now are but four or five medals depending from various colored ribbons. The first and the one that Sousa prizes most is the spool-shaped badge that was the official emblem of the Sixth Army corps in the Philippines.

Another handsome souvenir is the single gold medal that was struck to commemorate the great success of Sousa's concert in Munich last summer, which hangs from a cross-bar, bearing the Bavarian colors, blue and white, in enamel. The largest of the decorations is the Grand Cross of the Royal Academy of Italian Music, which came to the conductor after his success in Brussels and Liege. This cross depends from a ribbon of black, yellow, and red, which is the colors of the Italian flag.

Sousa is coming here for two grand concerts with the band that is his constant companion in Europe, appearing at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 9. The assisting soloists will be Blanche Burdick, soprano, and Bertha Burdick, violinist.

Old Musical Imitations.

Miss Corrida Simpson, the well known artist and imitator of various musical instruments who has made a most marked impression upon the patrons of the Academy of Music, will be larger of our metropolitan cities, has been secured by Manager Burke, of the vaudeville, for their next appearance here, which occurs on next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The oddity of Miss Simpson's imitations arises from the remarkable manner in which they are produced, she imitating in an almost perfect manner, nearly every instrument of the orchestra, as well as the cornet, clarinet, trombone, bassoon and drum, all done exclusively with a piano, these imitations have secured for her a reputation of being one of the most entertaining and pleasing artists now in the vaudeville profession.

"Human Hearts."

That great and beautiful drama, "Human Hearts," will be presented Tuesday and Saturday at the Academy of Music.

"Side Tracked." The attraction at the Academy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the sensational comedy drama, "Side Tracked," which deals with the funny side of life on the railroad.

"Night Owl Burlesquers." Fred Riley's famous "Night Owl Burlesquers" will make their appearance at the Grand opera for a three days' engagement, with matinee each day. Two burlesques are produced, interrupted by a number of the strongest specialty acts ever played with any legitimate organization.

A mammoth bill will be offered at the Gaiety for three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 10, with matinee every day, in which Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers will display some of the best vaudeville talent for the public, supported by as handsome a supply of burlesques as ever gathered into one company. There are two burlesques, rather big vaudeville stars.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Has been used for 40 YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEething, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by druggists in every town. Beware of cheap imitations and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Great Sale of DOMESTICS

Monday and Tuesday.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.

Monday—"The Parish Priest." Wednesday—Sousa's band. Matinee. Thursday—Burlesque. Matinee. Friday and Saturday—"The Village Postmaster."

Academy.

First Three Days—"Side Tracked." Last Three Days—"Human Hearts."

Gaiety.

First Three Days—"Night Owl Burlesquers." Last Three Days—Royal Burlesquers.

"The Parish Priest" Tonight.

Daniel Sully is certainly deserving of the success he has won. He never misses a single touch which tells in the character he so faithfully represents, and his entire work is clean, wholesome and effective.

Every theatrical organization ought to try and combine with amusement something of instruction. After an evening with Daniel Sully as Father Whalen in "The Parish Priest," the spectator can go home feeling that he has not only been amused, but has learned a lesson.

Sousa.

An interested observer at the Sousa concert this season has made the discovery that the popular bandmaster has had a new collection of music, and in his new collection of music, instead of the glittering array of bejeweled decorations that formerly covered completely the many sheets of the "March Kings" there now are but four or five medals depending from various colored ribbons. The first and the one that Sousa prizes most is the spool-shaped badge that was the official emblem of the Sixth Army corps in the Philippines.

Another handsome souvenir is the single gold medal that was struck to commemorate the great success of Sousa's concert in Munich last summer, which hangs from a cross-bar, bearing the Bavarian colors, blue and white, in enamel. The largest of the decorations is the Grand Cross of the Royal Academy of Italian Music, which came to the conductor after his success in Brussels and Liege. This cross depends from a ribbon of black, yellow, and red, which is the colors of the Italian flag.

Sousa is coming here for two grand concerts with the band that is his constant companion in Europe, appearing at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 9. The assisting soloists will be Blanche Burdick, soprano, and Bertha Burdick, violinist.

Old Musical Imitations.