Four Ministers Tell of Magical Results Brought About in Burning, Itching, Bleeding Skin

Troubles by Dr. Chase's Cintment. Dr. Chare's Ointment draws more praise from ministers, physicians and lawyers than any other medicine in the world. It is en-thersed by every profession.

Extracts from their Letters.

Rev. W. N. Edwards, Baptist minister,
200 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:
"For over fifteen years the itching piles have been a source of constant annoyance to me, and frequently, too, the suffering has become intense. At times there was bleed ing and the itching and burning was beyond endurance. The results I have derived from Dr. Chase's Ointment have been magical and the benefits lasting. I feel it a duty to fellow sufferers to recommend it."

Rev. J. N. Van Natter, Methodist minister, Albion, Wis., writes:
"My wife was terribly afflicted with protruding piles and contemplated a surgical operation when her notice was drawn to Dr. Chase's Ofntment, and less than one box affected a cure."
"I then used it for any writer.

"I then used it for an unsightly and troublesome skin affection, which had bailed medical skill for twenty-five years. Dr. Chase's Ointment thoroughly cured it. For piles and skin disease it is worth its weight

Rev. J. A. Baldwis, Baptist minister, Arkona, Ont., writes:

"For over twenty yeass I was a great sufferer from itching and protruding piles. I used many remedies and underweat three very painful surgical operations, all without obtaining any permaneut benefit. When shout to give up in despair I was told to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and did so, finding relief at once. I used three boxes, and am antirely cured. The itching is all gone. I have advised others to use it, believing it would cure them as it has me."

Rev. Chas. Fish, Methodist minister, 192 Dunn avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "Ten years ago eczema began on my ears and spread over my head and hands. During that time I was a great sufferer. I tried many remedies, and some of the best physicians—specialists on skin diseases—treated me. The first box of Dr. Chase's Ontment are much relief and five hoves completely gave much relief and five boxes completely cured me I think my cure a marvel, and gladly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment." Just as good for every form of skin trouble, no matter how long stending. 50 cents a box, all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE ADVENTURES OF REUBEN HEEMAN

Remarkable Experience of a Descend ant of the Famous "Pool" Tribe Who Deserted His Cavalry.

special to the Scranton Tribune

Towanda, Jan. 7.-The Towanda Argus prints the following which will interest all who are acquainted with the notorious "Pool" nation, of which the Heemans are descendants:

"Reuben Heeman, horse thief, bur glar, army deserter, and all-around crook, was brought from Waverly on Friday night by Deputy Marshal Hol-lon and taken to New York Sunday night, where he will serve a term of two years and seven months on Governor's Island, for deserting from Troop L, Eighth cavalry, in Cuba last March. Heeman tells the following story: He enlisted two years ago last March at Binghamton with his two brothers and was soon transferred to Cuba. Last March he and three others deserted and traveled 150 miles through the forests of Cuba, when two of his companions were captured by the rural police, when Reuben took to the woods and made his escape. He was afterwards caught in a small town and after two months' imprisonment in Moro castle, Santiago, he and thirteen others were sentenced to two years and seven months in Fort Columbus, Governor' Island, N. Y. A few days before the transport arrived to convey them north, Heeman and a companion escaped from the castle, changed their clothes and went to work for the government as teamsters at $40 per month. Working six weeks and getting his pay, he went to Havana, got a certificate of good health under the name of Frank Kaufman, sailed to New York, arriving at Elmira on Dec. 11, 1900 The old longing for chickens took possession of him and with his youngest brother, Fred, and two brothers named Storms, they organized a poultry association. The police took a hand and arrested his brother Fred and the two ive Charles E. Heeman has served three years from this county for burglary and three years ago stole a horse in Michigan, one in Ohio and two wagons, and with a companion brought them here. Officer Hollon found the owners and Reuben settled with a two and a half year term in Jackson, Mich., prison. His brother, Francis, who has also deserted from Cuba, and once from Fort Slocum, N. Y., and his brother, Henry, who has deserted twice this year by swimming the bay from Fort Slocum, are both now on Governor's Island, awaiting the arrival of Reuben-Francis, with a term of four years staring him in the face. rother, Fred, is wanted here for car burglary as soon as he gets through with the chicken deal in Elmira. "The Parish Priest." For the second time this season "The Parish Priest," Daniel L. Hart's delightful play, was presented at the Lyceum last night by a com-pany headed by Daniel Sully. The andience was large and received the play with every manifes-tation of appreciation and delight. Mr. Hart came up from Wilkes Barre to witness the performance and after the second act was called before the curtain and made one of his characteristic speeches in which he referred to his pride at having his play receive such a splendid reception in Scranton. The company which supported Mr. Sully is different in some respects from the one which was with him earlier in the season but it is more evenly balanced and last night's performance was if anything superior to that given

Mr. Hart has just completed a melodrama which will be a revelation in that revolvers, knives and the other paraphernalia of the modcrn melodrama is distinctly eschewed. It will have its first production in this city next

"Side Tracked."

A. Q. Scammon's own company presented "side Tracked," a railroad comedy drawn, at the Academy of Music last evening to an overflowing house. The play itself is sure to please the Academy patrons and with the specialties included should draw immense crowds during their engagement in this city.

The plot of the piece is strongly sensational and thrilling. Many specialties are introduced by the vaudeville members of the company who render several new and eatchy songs. A new departure in the way of styling a play would be to term "Side Tracked" "A Farce Comety Drama." The piece will be presented the first half of this week. "Ruman Hearts" to follow:

Sousa Band Tomorrow. It was something in the nature of an artistic surprise to the musically knowing ones of Europe to find that the despised military band was capable, when under the dominating impulse of a master mind like John Philip Sousa, of per-fectly stimulating the effects of the string orfectly stimulating the cheerical and of giving thoroughly satisfactory and artistic performances of the great musical works that have never before been regarded as possible military band literature. The Cologne, Germany, Volksblatt in this connection remarked that "although bross bands for general artistic purposes are less serviceable than string orchestrue owing to inevitable limitations, it may be asserted that this deficiency is overcome as much as possible by the Sousa band. The most delicate passages are played with baffling light-ness and smoothness and all the musicians are so certain in their work that there is never the slightest deviation from tone quality." In the course of his great concert tour, which embraces 150 different cities of this country, Sousa will bring his great band here for two concerts at the Lyceum on Wednesday afters and evening, Jan. 9, with Blanche Duffield, so-prano, and Bertha Bucklin, violiniste, as soloists. "The Village Postmaster."

"The Village Postmaster," one of the most successful plays of the past decade, which met with such an extraordinary degree of popular favor in New York during its long run at the Fourteenth street theater, will visit this city and be seen at the Lyceum Friday night, Saturday afternoon and night. It is the production of J. Wesley Rosenquest, manager of the Fourteenth street theater, New York, where the play had its origin and where it ran for 22 nights. The original production, company, etc., will be seen here. The company is headed by Archie Boyd, long and favorably known from his connection with "The Old Homestead" and "Shore Acres." A delightful characteristic of "The Village restmaster" is the quaint costumes of forty odd years ago and the beautiful stage pictures true to life and nature in every detail. The true to life and nature in every detail. The scenes of "The Village Postmaster" are laid in a quiet New Hampshire town in 1852.

Included in the company is Miss Angela Russell, a young actress of unusual ability, whose excellent impersonation of Miranda, the Postmaster's daughter, has been very highly com-
