Revival Services.

The revival services at the Tripp Avenue Christian church were well attended last night. Rev. Mr. Cobb spoke from John, iv:36. "He that reapeth," said he, "receiveth wages, They who labor for God are sure of their reward. They who gather fruit unto eternal life, their reward is eternal life. This world cannot be satisfied without Christ. Wealth, position, things we may aspire to without Christ bring no satisfaction. Lastly, that they that soweth and he that reapeth shall rejoice together."

At the close of the service three came forward and acceped Christ as their saviour. The Rev. Mr. Kramer, of the Baptist church, was present and lent his assistance in the service. The topic for this evening will be "Faith, What Is It? How Does It Come? and What Is Its Purpose?"

BOY HAS DISAPPEARED.

His Relatives Are Anxious to Locate Him.

What has become of 12-year-old Joseph Bolchune? His sister, Victoria, Mrs. Duggan, of the board of charlties, Alderman Millar and Special Offier Joseph Greenberger are anxiousty striving to settle this question. races of the boy's whereabouts vanished Monday afternoon and diligent search since has failed to account for his mysterious disappearance. The outcome of the boy's spiriting tway will be the arrest of Thomas Milcavish and wife, of Barbertown, on the serious charge of kidnapping. unless the lad is produced sound and hearty, within a very brief period. A few years ago Joseph and his father went to board with Thomas Milcavish, of Barbertown. Last September the father died, and it is claimed Milcavish compelled young Joe to enter the breaker and turn over his meagre earnings to him. Last week the boy's sister, Victoria about 24 years of age, came up from New York, where she resides, to get her brother with the idea of sending him to school at the Buffalo reformatory. She went down to Barber town and saw her brother, but Milcavish stubbornly refused to release the boy. In her despair Victoria went to Mrs

Duggan and stated her troubles. Alderman Millar was consulted, and as a result Special Officer Greenberger went down to get the boy. But alas the lad had disappeared, as if by magic. Milcavish declared up and down that he did not know where the boy had gone. The breaker boys were closely scrutinized but Joseph could not be found.

Last night Milcavish called upon Alderman Millar to reiterate his statements that he knew nothing about the boy's vanishment. Thus the matter stands and just what steps will be adopted to recover the boy are not known, but the probability is that Milcavish will be arrested as a kidnapper and compelled to transfer Joseph to the care of his sister, if he is in his possession.
