THE AFFAIRS OF THE HOME

CONSIDERED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING HELD YESTERDAY. Officers Were Chosen and the Annual Reports Read—That Compiled by Mrs. E. S. Moffat in a Most Beautiful Way Reviewed the Work Done During the Year by the Home for the Friendless—Finance Condition as Shown by the Report of the Treasurer.

The twenty-ninth annual meeting of the association known as the Home for the Friendless was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association, Hon. H. A. Knapp presiding. Owing to illness, Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, the president, and Mrs. C. P. Matthews, vice president, were both absent, a fact which gave a character of unfamiliarity to the occasion, as probably since the organization, neither have before missed an annual meeting.

Another fact which caused expressions of regret were the resignations of three members who have been faithful workers. They were Mrs. Angeline Hendrick, Mrs. Daniel Langstaff and Miss Jennie Reynolds. The two former ladies are among the oldest in both ways of service in the organization.

Only one change was made in the officers of the preceding year, that of chief manager, Mrs. Reese G. Brooks taking the place of Mrs. Cora Merrill, resigned.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Lansing, of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church, opened the meeting with a devotional exercises. Mrs. E. S. Moffat read the report of the last annual meeting. Mrs. T. H. Dale read the report of the treasurer, Mrs. D. E. Taylor, which follows:

COYNE CASE BEFORE JURY

GRAND JURY LISTENED TO THE EVIDENCE PRESENTED. Jury Will Make Another Return to Court Today and Will Be Continued Next Week to Dispose of the Business to Come Before It—Two Cases Stated Agreed Upon to Decide Knotty Questions That Both the Authorities of Old Forge Borough. Marriage Licenses.

The grand jury will make its second return to court this morning and Judge Archbold will make an order continuing it next week, to give it an opportunity to dispose of all the cases to come before it. The examination begun on Thursday into the alleged offenses of the magistrates of the county was not continued yesterday, but will be resumed on Monday.

Repp Wants to Know. A case stated agreed upon between Henry Harding, collector of taxes of Old Forge borough, and William Repp, a property owner of the borough, was yesterday filed with Prothonotary Copeland.

Question of Who Should Pay. The borough of Old Forge and the school district of Old Forge are the parties to a case stated presented to court yesterday.

A HOUSEHOLD WORD. So identified with the interests of Scranton has the Home become that even to the children its name is a household word, and its wants are treated as if they were almost a duty upon the public purse.

Mr. Soper Breaks Out. Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Is it the refusal of transfers or the withdrawal of passes that is causing the trouble? When you come to town the next morning, you will bring a sigh to the heart, and a tear to the eye.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. [Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.]

DISBURSEMENTS. By salaries and wages $1,250 75. Merchants and tradesmen 409 95. Annual excursion 464 75. Annual donation day 567 95. Annual membership 777 00. Grading grounds 459 00. Fundraising offering from churches 237 00. Thanksgiving donations 32 00. Building fund 954 30. Cash donations 100 00. Cash for care of inmates 327 54. Christmas donations 143 00. Interest in bank to Jan. 1 22 00. Total 4,162 34.

THE ANNUAL REPORT. A new year, a new year, a new record stand before us today as we read the twenty-ninth annual report of the Home, and yet after all, what are the new records? Are they not simply those of "that new world which is the old"? A record of work, of earnest effort, of partial triumph over discouraging aspects, of kind deeds, of hearts made lighter by suffering relieved, of "love unfeigned"—all this is but the counterpart of what has been told so often these many years, but still we shall find fresh cause for thankfulness.

A BUSY YEAR. It has been a busy year for our committee and they have not spared themselves. To our advisory board and inspection committee we render our hearty thanks. Ever willing to give counsel and help, they are of invaluable assistance, as our needs and experiences are of so many kinds that some are most perplexing.
