

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, Jan. 11.—Mrs. H. G. Keefer is spending the week with friends in Scranton.

Miss Grace Bishop is the "hello" girl at the Bell Telephone exchange. Miss Rebecca F. Thompson has gone to Sandusky, Ohio, for a stay of two weeks.

Lawrence M. Atkinson returned last night from New Orleans, where he made an extended visit with his sister, Mrs. Alice Palmer.

At the annual meeting the following were elected directors of the Wayne County Savings Bank: H. C. Hand, Lorenzo Grambs, W. B. Holmes, E. C. Mumford, A. T. Searle, W. F. Slayman, William Westinghouse, H. J. Conger.

Mrs. M. F. Dorris left yesterday to spend the next three weeks with friends in Binghamton, Owego and Elmira.

Dr. Powell and an assistant made an examination this morning and found a broken hip, the result of a fall on the ice, which happened a few days ago to Mrs. Brown, a daughter of Mr. William Ridd, who lives on High street.

A recent investigation, instituted by the Delaware and Hudson company, revealed the fact that quantities of ties and other material, the property of the company, had been removed from the abandoned canal and gravity land without permission from the proper authorities. It is said that people who have such in their possession will be called upon to pay for the same.

The officers of the Wayne County Fire Insurance company for the present year are: President, Paul Swingle; vice-president, H. C. Jadin; secretary, Hon. P. A. Clark; treasurer, John H. Adams.

The directors of the Honesdale National bank for 1901 are: Henry Z. Russell, Edwin F. Torrey, Andrew Thompson, Horace T. Menner, J. L. Dorfinger, Homer Greene, J. C. Birdsell, J. M. Bauman and L. O. Ross.

The Durand Thompson shoe company have commenced work in the cutting department.

Charles Lorenz, the young man who was severely burned with molten brass at the elevator works, is doing nicely. Dr. Powell, the attending physician, thinks he can save his eyesight.

The management of the elevator works has announced that the company will pay the doctor's bill, and will continue Mr. Lorenz's salary while laid up with this misfortune, which is another of the commendable acts for which this company is noted.

Harry Northrup, of Scranton, was a business visitor in Honesdale today.

Mrs. Ursula Bauman, wife of J. M. Bauman, died at the family residence, on Second street, Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Bauman was born in Germany, came to America in 1851, and had been a resident of Honesdale since that date. She was seventy-four years of age, and is survived by her husband and three sons, Edward H. and William C. of Honesdale—the former is engaged in the insurance business and the latter is a member of the Honesdale Shoe company—and Dr. John J. Bauman, of Jersey City. The funeral services were held at the home on Friday. Interment was made in the German Lutheran cemetery.

HAWLEY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Hawley, Jan. 11.—Miss Emma Coleman, Mrs. John Decker, Mrs. Kohlman and Mr. and Mrs. George Awll were Honesdale visitors Tuesday.

W. C. Knapp spent Wednesday in Scranton.

Henry Weber has resigned his position with the Electric Light and Power company to accept a position as night watchman at the United States Knitting mills.

Mrs. Quinney, of Honesdale, visited her son, W. A. Quinney, last week.

Mrs. Henry Curtis, of Farno, passed through here last week on her way to visit her daughter, Mrs. Amanda Patry, at Blooming Grove.

Mrs. Stanley Games and daughter, of New York, who returned to her home after a few weeks' visit with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Locklin, of Hemlock Hollow, arrived last Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Phillips.

Mrs. A. H. Avery returned to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., Saturday after spending some time with her parents here.

Wanungo lodge, No. 448, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will give a reception at their hall February 22.

This week is being observed in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches as the week of prayer.

Mrs. Eliza Taylor died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. Colgate, Tuesday morning, aged 78 years.

Colds Kelt Away

If you use Krause's Cold Cure. Prepared in convenient capsule form they are easy to take and effect a speedy cure of the most obstinate cases. Price 25c. Sold by Matthews Bros.

THOMPSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Thompson, Jan. 11.—Mrs. C. E. Hunt, of Factoryville, is spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bliss.

Mrs. Leonard Cole was calling on friends in Carbondale Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis and Mrs. G. L. Clark will go to Scranton Wednesday to attend the Sousa concert. They returned yesterday.

Arthur Ross, of Starucca, was looking after matters of interest here Wednesday afternoon. The train was too soon for him, so he went home on a coal train.

Station Agent Arthur Foster, of Starucca, is taking a few days off duty, so he and his wife and child are with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Foster.

Mrs. C. F. Crossman, of Scranton, is enjoying a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis, on Jefferson street.

L. W. Sanford and wife, of Gibson, were visitors at W. P. Tallman's on Wednesday.

Rev. W. H. French, of the Free Baptist church, is holding meetings at Mud Pond this week.

Thompson is well pleased with the recent action of the United States senate on the cauteen question.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Keeler, of Starucca, were callers in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Anna Hook, of Ithaca, N. Y., is visiting Mrs. W. W. McNamara. E. C. Layton has sold his jewelry business to C. A. Lamont.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, Jan. 11.—Rev. W. M. Hillier will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church at Tank-hamock next Sunday.

The borough council held an adjourned meeting last night and disposed of such business as was on the table. Among other things, was the reappointment of Dr. J. A. Heller on the board of health.

Harry Conrad has resigned his position with Daniel Langstaff and accepted a position with the Lackawanna road as freeman.

The many friends of Rev. H. H. Wilbur in this place, will be pleased to learn that he has passed the critical point in the fever, and a slight improvement in his condition is reported.

The annual January thaw is with us for the past few days, and as a consequence many are suffering with colds and the grip.

Mrs. Anna M. Cox, of Montrose, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cox, of Scranton spent Wednesday at the home of W. H. Reynolds.

The annual installation of officers of the Grand Army of the Republic, No. 104, took place Tuesday evening in the Grand Army of the Republic hall, before a good-sized assemblage.

Mrs. Cassie Roach, of Scranton, was the installing officer. The following officers were installed: President, Miss Nellie Green; senior vice president, Mrs. Fred Wright; junior vice president, Mrs. D. C. Stanton; treasurer, Mrs. Rufus Lindley; secretary, Mrs. H. U. Capwell; chaplain, Mrs. L. S. Chase; conductress, Miss Della Coleman; assistant conductress, Mrs. Emma Briggs; inner guard, Mrs. Julia Conrad; outer guard, Mrs. R. N. Evans.

After installation of officers, President Green called for remarks, and Mrs. Robert R. Holgate, Rev. G. R. Smith, O. T. Spencer, Mrs. G. R. Smith, John Connor, Mrs. Charles Oakley and others responded. Light refreshments were served and a social enjoyed.

Attorney H. C. Reynolds has recently come into possession of the old Mumford property, situated near the old Bethel cemetery, and has had the house remodeled and refitted, both exterior and interior. Ten-foot porches, dormer windows add much to the exterior. A large open fireplace, paneled ceilings, new staircases, hot and cold water throughout, all contribute to the convenience, comfort and beauty of the interior. The work is being done by the Keystone Lumber and Supply company, of this city.

Rev. H. C. Reynolds, with his family, will occupy the new residence as a summer home.

At a meeting of the official board of the Methodist Episcopal church, held last Monday night, a committee was appointed to arrange for the annual conference.

Rev. P. G. Buckman will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of the First Congregational church Thursday night, elected the following officers for the coming year: Superintendent, Charles Gardner; assistant superintendent, A. C. Cary; secretary, Adelbert Lindabery; assistant secretary, E. J. Biddleman; treasurer, W. A. N. B. Burt; president, Miss Anna Bard; organist, Miss Nellie Miller.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Towanda, Jan. 11.—During the past year the following 1300 divorces granted by the courts of this county.

The annual elections of Towanda's banks occurred on Tuesday. At the Citizens' bank the directors are William Ditrich, R. J. Thompson, J. M. Rahm, E. Overton, Morris Shepard, E. Keyser, and William Maxwell; cashier, J. K. Newell; president, E. Overton; vice-president, William Ditrich. The board of the First National bank consists of H. Streeter, R. H. Lanning, H. C. Porter, D. J. Sweet, E. F. Kiger, William Miller, L. Tracy, C. S. Russell and N. N. Betts; president, C. L. Tracy; cashier, N. N. Betts.

Over one hundred employees of the Lehigh Valley shops at Sayre are ill with the grip.

The Canton Agricultural society has chosen the following 1901 officers: President, J. H. Brown; vice-president, L. T. Hanley; secretary, C. D. Denah; treasurer, L. T. McPadden; directors, Dr. W. S. Lewis, P. J. Ronan, W. H. Shannon, E. S. Lindsay, A. T. Owen, T. Burk, F. S. Still, J. B. Butler, J. W. Stone.

The Modern Woodmen of Towanda chose the following new officers at the last meeting: Consul, C. F. Heverly; advisor, C. C. Smith; clerk, O. S. Smalley; banker, H. C. Wilcox; escort, F. H. Johnson; watchman, A. J. McMoran; secretary, F. C. Lambert; physician, S. M. Woodburn; manager for three years, E. W. Rockwell; delegate to state convention, F. H. Johnson; alternate, W. R. Dimock.

At a meeting of the Bradford County Medical society this week the following were chosen officers for the current year: President, M. C. Hunter, Sayre; vice-presidents, G. H. B. Terry, of Wyandott, and C. S. Blair, of Ulster; secretary, S. M. Woodburn, of Towanda; treasurer, F. G. Newton, of Towanda; librarian, F. D. Payne, of Towanda; reporter, C. M. Woodburn, of Towanda; censors, S. M. Woodburn, of Towanda; C. H. Ott, of Sayre; F. A. Thompson, of Durell; C. L. Stevens, of Athens.

The Haymakers have elected the following officers: Past chief haymaker, H. H. Cowen; chief haymaker, C. Smith; overseer, W. O'Neill; collector of straws, F. J. Kline; keeper of bundles, W. Nagle; steward, Dr. D. L. Pratt; hornblower, C. E. White; boss driver, H. Heath; guard of hayloft, J. Mann; guard of barn door, J. L. Sheard.

A large barn owned by the Dayton Milling company was totally destroyed by fire, together with two carloads of baled hay and straw, sleighs, cutters, hides and furs. The loss is $4,000, partially covered by insurance. An explanation of a lantern was the origin of the fire.

Charles Geisinger, of Sayre, who was to have been married to Miss Edith Drusher at Freehold on Jan. 1, and who created consternation by not appearing on the proposed wedding day, made his appearance on Saturday, when the couple were married. He claimed that he had forgotten all about the event, and even had he desired to have the marriage take place at the appointed time, he could not do so on account of rush of work.

John Doody, a Lehigh Valley section hand, was killed by an engine striking him at Sayre on Wednesday.

The Edward Vane Dine estate, of Troy, has presented $1,000 to the Presbyterian church trustees of that place to open a library.

The Bradford Star is giving a series of articles on the political history of early times. They are proving very interesting, as Editor Heverly is sparing no pains in securing the most reliable facts.

The county commissioners have retained their office employees, superintendents, physicians, etc., for the ensuing year.

Report from Athens gives over two hundred cases of grip at that place.

Mail Carriers McIntyre and Gordon have completed their ten years service and are now entitled to two stars, there being one allowed every five years.

Miss Blanche Gardner, of Wilkes-Barre, is a guest of Towanda friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mason, of Canton, just celebrated their fiftieth anniversary.

Albert Morgan, esq., of Troy, has resigned his pension examiner and will live in Philadelphia, to act as consul for a fire insurance company.

By an error in the time of making the view of the proposed county bridge at Wysox, all the proceedings have been set aside by Judge Fanning, which was brought through a petition by the commissioners. A new petition and work will begin at once for the rush of new proceedings.

Register and Recorder Ingham issued 343 marriages in 1900, a decrease of only three from the previous year. Judge E. M. Dunham is assisting at special court this week.

Loren W. Swartout, a native of Monroe township, died a few days ago at the age of 76 years.

Patrick Kiholleran, of Overton, was found by boys frozen to death along the road on Saturday. He had been home only two days before, expecting to visit a daughter who resides at Carbondale. He was 83 years of age, and had resided with a son-in-law.

The sheriff has advertised twenty-two pieces of land for sale on Feb. 1.

WAYMART.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Waymart, Jan. 11.—Will Sampson, who has been visiting his parents for the past ten days, has returned to his work at Port Jervis, N. Y.

F. P. Cooper, who went to Scranton for medical attention, returned home Wednesday, accompanied by his sons, James and F. P. Cooper, Jr. His condition is critical.

Will Batten made a business trip to Moccasin for his father on Tuesday.

Mrs. Jennie Potts Stanton underwent an operation at Emergency hospital last Monday.

Z. A. Wonnacott was called to Carbondale on Tuesday, owing to the illness of his brother, Ulysses.

Mrs. H. C. Ensign and daughter Anna and Miss Belle Dimock have returned home after an extended visit with New York friends.

E. C. Doyle paid Honesdale a flying visit on Wednesday.

Richard Chubb is soon to move on the Varcoe property, recently purchased of F. Thompson.

John Thompson started for North Carolina, where he has gone for his health.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Lang are now nicely situated in their new home, the Ellis residence.

The Lake Lodge people are extensively engaged in getting out lumber for their new ice house on the Weed property, purchased last spring.

Rev. James P. Ware, rector of Grace church, Honesdale, will hold episcopal services Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

Misses Ora and Dorothy Stephenson spent Thursday with Prompton friends.

NEW MILFORD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. New Milford, Jan. 11.—Miss Lena Page, of Lakeside, was a recent visitor in town.

Miss May Seymour is seriously ill at her home on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Taft entertained Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams and son, of Mansfield, during the holidays.

Miss Clara Miller, of Montrose, was in town last Sunday. Miss Miller will conduct a music class in this place.

The ladies of the Methodist church recently conducted a rhyme entertainment. Each lady earned a dollar and then told in rhyme how she did it. About $90 was raised in this manner and applied on the payment of the new chapel.

Miss Beatrice Howell is attending school at Binghamton this winter.

Miss Nettie Bell is visiting relatives at Peabody, Mass.

E. W. Morgan was in Scranton on business Saturday.

Miss Josie Dickman, who has been spending some time here with her grandmother, returned to her home in Elmira last week.

Several of our townsmen are suffering with the grip.

Boy sheep have gone to Rochester, N. Y., where he has secured a position with the Stecher Lithographing company.

James Hutchings, of Halstead, called on friends in town, Tuesday.

UNIONDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Uniondale, Jan. 11.—The sleet storm on Thursday morning has done a perfect sea of ice and the walking very dangerous.

The milk depot at Herrick Center has been closed, and Newton Corey has been recalled to duty in the milk depot in Deposit.

Two homes have recently been broken up in our community, owing to two desertions on the part of two well-known housekeepers.

The ice on Lewis lake is excellent, both in thickness and quality. Owing to the scarcity of snow, considerable difficulty is being experienced in hauling it to the Baldwin storage.

Mrs. Frank Couch, of Carbondale, spent several days lately with her parents, Hon. and Mrs. Philo Burritt.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the parsonage last Wednesday. There was a goodly attendance. New officers were elected for the coming year. The table was loaded and replenished with good things, and a joyful company participated.

Issue Morgan has moved his furniture into his son's home, where he expects to make his home for the present.

For the Benefit of the People

We wish to again emphasize the fact that the entire Gallen stock of High-Grade, Tailor-Made Clothing is being closed out at HALF PRICE. This is not an attempt to dispose of a few odds and ends, the worthless accumulation of seasons, but a genuine offering at greatly reduced prices of this gigantic stock of desirable merchandise, nearly all of which was purchased for this Fall trade. Why sit idly by and watch others reap the benefit of this COLOSSAL SALE? Join the ranks of eager bargain seekers and visit our great establishment, where a dollar is equivalent to two dollars in trade.

Men's Suits and Overcoats

Of all wool materials. The Suits are Plain and Fancy Worsteds, Cheviots and Cassimeres, well made and trimmed, and are productions of America's best manufacturers. Made for this season's trade. The Overcoats are of Imported and Domestic Kersey, Meltons, Frieze, Beaver, Cheviot and Montagnac Materials. Some have wool linings with silk shoulder facings, some elaborately trimmed, all silk lined. The prices are less than half in many cases.

$3.95 Worth $5 to 10 $5.95 Worth $10 to $12 $7.65 Worth $12 to $15 $10.90 Worth $18 to $25

The Best Boys' Clothing

That was produced this season is offered in this sale. No store in Scranton ever produced a better line. The Finest Novelty Suits and Top Coats are shown here.

Novelty Suits and Top Coats

Sizes 3 to 12 years, in Vestee, Sailor and Russian Blouse and Reefer styles, elaborately trimmed and designed. Also beautiful Novelty Reefers and Top Coats of imported materials.

$1.45 $1.95 $2.95 $3.65 Were $3 Were $4 Were $5 Were $6 to $12

Double-Breasted Suits.

Little Governor or Little Captain Suits, warranted not to rip. Pants made with double seat and knees. Were $5.00 and $6.00. Are

$2.95 and $3.95

All-Wool Suits, well made $1.45, $1.95, $2.95 $3.65 Worth $3.00 to $8.00. Long Pants Suits, sizes 14 to 20 years, $3.65, $6.95. Worth $8.00 and $12.00.

HATS

Newest shapes. Union Made. Alpines or Derbys —Black, Brown or Pearl. 69c. $1.19. $1.39, $1.79. Worth $1.00 to $3.00.

SHOES

All leather, fine qualities, patent leather, Enamel, Vici Kid and Cali. Finer goods, hand-sewed. Boys'—69c, 83c, $1.09 up. Men's—1.09, .79, $2.29. Worth $2.00 to $5.00.

GREAT RECEIVER'S SALE

OF THE GALLEN STOCK.

225 AND 227 LACKAWANNA AVE.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Jan. 11.—The furious buying of the stock exchange from something new by brokers credited with acting for the community, figure in the authentic situation. The increase of 2 per cent. in the yearly dividend of the market, and the general confidence interest and there were wild fluctuations in the stocks under the distressed bidding by this element. The market opened at 100, and after a reaction of 2, up again to 102 1/2, where it closed. The net gain was 2 1/2 points. The other leaders sympathized, especially Ontario and Western 3 1/2; Erie first preferred, 3 1/2, and Erie common, 2 1/2. The market opened at 100, and after a reaction of 2, up again to 102 1/2, where it closed. The net gain was 2 1/2 points. The other leaders sympathized, especially Ontario and Western 3 1/2; Erie first preferred, 3 1/2, and Erie common, 2 1/2. The market opened at 100, and after a reaction of 2, up again to 102 1/2, where it closed. The net gain was 2 1/2 points. The other leaders sympathized, especially Ontario and Western 3 1/2; Erie first preferred, 3 1/2, and Erie common, 2 1/2.

AVOCA.

Edward Bennett, of the West Side, has entered suit against Lathrop & Shea, railroad contractors, for injuries sustained while at work in the yards a few weeks ago.

James Allen, of the North End, has accepted a position as mine foreman at the Nay Aug company, Dunmore.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gilroy, a son.

Degree of Naomi, A. O. K. of M. C. will install officers on Monday evening. A social will be given after the meeting.

The silk mill employees will be paid today.

Burgess Berge desires to serve notice on all persons engaged in the sale of liquors that he will strictly enforce the new borough ordinance, which provides a heavy penalty for all offenders.

He serves notice upon them to either take out licenses or prepare to close up their places of business. The following is the ordinance relating to the sale of liquors:

Section 1.—Any person of persons within the limits of the borough of Avoca who shall keep an unlicensed house, room or place, hotel, inn or tavern where wines, malt or brewed liquors are sold, offered for sale or given away in violation of any law of the commonwealth, shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 2.—Any arrest for violation of the provisions of this ordinance may be made upon the information of any person under oath, and it shall be lawful for the burgess or any justice of the peace to issue warrants based upon such information, upon the charges preferred against any person so arrested and either discharge or impose upon such persons the penalties named in the ordinance. That fifty per cent of the money collected from such fines shall be given to the persons who shall aid in their conviction.

Section 3.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 4.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 5.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 6.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 7.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 8.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Section 9.—Any person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and in default of the payment of such fine shall be subject to an imprisonment in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days in the borough lockup or thirty days in the county jail.

Philadelphia Grain and Produce. Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—Wheat—No. 2, 100c; No. 3, 95c; No. 4, 90c; No. 5, 85c; No. 6, 80c; No. 7, 75c; No. 8, 70c; No. 9, 65c; No. 10, 60c; No. 11, 55c; No. 12, 50c; No. 13, 45c; No. 14, 40c; No. 15, 35c; No. 16, 30c; No. 17, 25c; No. 18, 20c; No. 19, 15c; No. 20, 10c; No. 21, 5c; No. 22, 0c.

New York Grain and Produce. New York, Jan. 11.—Wheat—No. 2, 100c; No. 3, 95c; No. 4, 90c; No. 5, 85c; No. 6, 80c; No. 7, 75c; No. 8, 70c; No. 9, 65c; No. 10, 60c; No. 11, 55c; No. 12, 50c; No. 13, 45c; No. 14, 40c; No. 15, 35c; No. 16, 30c; No. 17, 25c; No. 18, 20c; No. 19, 15c; No. 20, 10c; No. 21, 5c; No. 22, 0c.

Chicago Grain and Produce. Chicago, Jan. 11.—Wheat—No. 2, 100c; No. 3, 95c; No. 4, 90c; No. 5, 85c; No. 6, 80c; No. 7, 75c; No. 8, 70c; No. 9, 65c; No. 10, 6