SCRANTON TESTIMONY

South Filmore Ave.

Mr. Evan Jenkins, of 142 South Filmore avenue, Hyde Park, says: "I had steady pain in my hips and through my sides, so distressing at times that I could not even do my work about the house. I have often been obliged to call in the doctor. There was also an annoying kidney weakness which was at times very painful and attended with frequent action of the secretions. My limbs were numb and I had dropsy at times and my feet swelled so that I could not wear my shoes. The doctor said my trouble must be checked or I would die in Bright's disease, but I did not receive much benefit from the medicine I took. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, and used five or six boxes. They helped me wonderfully in every way. I have recommended them to many of my friends and some of them received marked benefit from the use of this remedy."

Lafayette Street.

Mr. A. W. Klotz, of 1514 Lafayette street, painter by trade, says: "Five years ago I took a severe cold which settled in my bladder. Ever after my kidneys troubled me a great deal. I used many different remedies and took medicine from a doctor who pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, but I got little if any relief. My condition was continually growing worse and there was a constant dull pain across my back when sitting down and on getting up or turning about the pain became very sharp. I had to work often for hours in a stooping position and if I straightened up my back felt as though it would snap in two. The kidney secretions were irregular, of a high color and a disagreeable odor, and accompanied by too frequent action. I was finally laid up, unable to do any work. At this time a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me. I had not much faith in them, but I went to Matthews Brothers' drug store and got a box, received so much relief from it that I continued the treatment until well."

Garfield Ave.

Mr. Raymond French, of 519 Garfield avenue, Hyde Park, says: "I suffered more or less for ten years with a kidney and bladder trouble. There was a constant sharp shooting pain across my back, and if I stooped it was so severe I could hardly straighten. When I took cold it always settled in my back and made it feel so stiff and sore I could hardly move about. I suffered a great deal from a bladder trouble, accompanied by symptoms resembling gravel. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and got a box at Matthews Brothers' drug store. I received a great deal of benefit from them. The difficulty with the kidney secretions was relieved entirely, and I seldom feel any pain in my back. My wife used Doan's Ointment with the best of results. She had eczema for a year or more, and she got Doan's Ointment and applied it and was promptly cured. There has been no return of the terrible plague since."

MORE TROUBLE AT PITTSTON.

Mayor Corcoran Again Places the Gag Upon Rev. Dillon's.

Pittston, Jan. 12.—Vincent R. Dillon, the Lithuanian ex-priest, who already has several suits against Mayor Corcoran for refusing to allow him to speak in Pittston, made another attempt to address an audience in this city tonight, and was prevented by the police.

Dillon's hired Army hall and on Friday visited Mayor Corcoran and requested information as to whether he would again be interfered with, should he attempt to lecture in Pittston. Mr. Corcoran would give no answer at the time, stating that he must first consult his attorney. Dillon then advertised the meeting, designating 7 o'clock p. m. as the hour when the lecture would begin.

At the appointed time this evening, quite a crowd gathered at the Army hall, but Chief Loftus and his gallant blues were on hand in advance of the audience and refused to let anyone enter the hall.

"Tickets is no good at this show," said one of the "cops" as the crowd surged up to the entrance. "De Dags can't speak here tonight. We has our orders. Get back, youse fellows!" By these gentle methods of persuasion, the crowd was escorted a block away from the Army, so there was no crush when Rev. Dillon finally appeared. He walked up to the hall door and was also informed that his rent receipt was no good, unless he would agree to conduct Quaker meetings. Dillon retreated good-humoredly, and the crowd on the streets gradually disperses d, when it became evident that there would be no further excitement.

About two months ago, Dillon attempted to speak in Pittston, but was prevented by the mayor on grounds that the talk might arouse the Lithuanians to deeds of violence. Legal proceedings were at once commenced, and the cause against the mayor is now pending in Luzerne county court. Dillon will probably begin another suit tomorrow.
