STREET CAR MEN'S DIFFICUL-TIES TO BE ADJUSTED.

At Least the Union's Committeemen Are Firmly of That Opinion-Conference with General Manager Silliman-President Clark Will Come Here Wednesday-Powell Case Has Adjusted Itself-Compromise Likely in the Case of Keller and Seeley. Grip Makes Necessary the Hiring of Many Men.

It is the firm opinion of the committee of the street car employes' union that all of the difficulties yet existing between the men and the mann, company will be amicably adjusted. The opinion is born of the conference which the committee had with General Manager Silliman Saturday. He received them very cordially and by in-ference, rather than by direct words Peter Zang. made them feel assured that the agreement submitted to him would receive his signature. The only clause of the agreement which caused him to hesitate in attaching his signature was the newlyinserted one to the effect that no man will be employed as a conductor, motorman or barn hand who is not a member of the union. Mr. Silliman said this was something which the would wish to have President Clark's opinion on before he would take definite action and asked that the committee give him until Thursday to make answer. President Clark will come here Wednesday and the answer vill be forthcoming the following day. The meeting of the union called for restorday morning, to receive the ommittees report, was accordingly postponed until next Friday morning. It is thought that a compromise will made regarding Keller and Seeley, the two men who worked during the strike and against whom the operations of the clause are particularly directed. Keller will be received into the union, but Seeley will have to be aken from the ranks of the car men. the union being determined not to admit him to membership because he oined and took the pledge the night before the strike, and four hours later broke it, so it is alleged, by taking out a car. The case of ex-Dispatcher Charles Powell has settled itself. Mr. Powell declares he will not go back to the company's employ, even if invited to do so, he having secured another and better position.

The report that the men have been caued grave anxiety by the action of the company in hiring more new men than, apparently, are necessary to permit of the new schedule being put in operation, is without foundation.

> SNEAK THIEF MADE A VERY RICH HAUL

Got About $1,500 Worth of Jewels in the Residence of A. R. Raub on Jefferson Avenue.

The residence of A. R. Raub, at 317 lefferson avenue, was entered by a meak thief at 2 o'clock yesterday afernoon and jewels to the value of between $1,200 and $1,500 stolen. There was no one in the house at the time but Mrs. Raub, a lady about sixty years of age, and she did not hear the movements of the thief. As in the other mysterious robberies on the hill lately, the unknown exhibited remarkable familiarity with th interior of the house. He made straigh for the room containing the bureau and proceeded to ransack the drawers and the jewel cases. Evidently he was frightened away before completing hiinvestigation, for several valuable ar ticles were overlooked.

Miss Elizabeth Raub was the last one to leave the house. She left shortly before 2 o'clock, and did not learn' of the robbery until about 4 o'clock. She made a hurried examination of the ransacked drawers, and hurrled to Persian Lamb Jacket, $75,09; police headquarters. Among the articles stolen were iwo gold watches and chains, three diamond rings, four bracelets, one conaining a four-leaf clover set with diamonds, one bowknot gold ring, pin set with three pearls, pin with cluster of diamonds, an opal ring set with three diamonds, an emerald set with several small diamonds. Miss Raub believes that the thief aw where she placed the key upon Electric Seil, Martin trimmed, 30 leaving the house and watched his opportunity. Presumably he was acquainted with the house and the habits of its occupants, for he succeeded in entering the room where the jewels were kept without alarming Mrs. Raub.
