

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, expelling colds, bad humors and fevers and yet so gentle and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by means of which the syrup is made. For Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY.
NEW YORK, N. Y.

Forsale by all Druggists.—Price 50c per bottle.

Ice Cream.
BEST IN TOWN.
25c Per Quart.LACKAWANNA DAIRY CO.

Telephone Orders Promptly Delivered
125-327 Adams Avenue.

Scranton Transfer Co.

Baggage Checked Direct to Hotels and Private Residences.
Office D., L. & W. Passenger
Station. Phone 525.

DR. H. B. WARE,

SPECIALIST.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office Hours—9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 3 to 1
Williams Building, Opp. Post Office.

CITY NOTES

ANNUAL MEETING.—The Moose Powder company held its annual meeting last night and elected last year's officers.

MUSIC SECTION.—The music section of the Green Ridge Woman's club will meet at the Scranton Conservatory of Music on Friday morning, Jan. 25, at half past ten o'clock.

LECTURE BY DR. LANSING.—Rev. Dr. J. Lansing will deliver a lecture on "The Glaciers of the Alps" at the Elm Park church next Thursday night, under the auspices of the King's Daughters.

HUMMAH SALE.—A rummage sale will be held at 209 North Washington avenue Friday evening to 1. Men's and children's clothing at great bargains for the tafte fund of the Penn Avenue Baptist church.

RODEO ON TRAINS.—Anthony Leonard, a 17-year-old boy, was arrested yesterday by Detective Schmitz for trespassing on the Lackawanna tracks. He was unarrested before Alderman Miller and fined $5 and costs.

THE CALEDONIAN BANQUET.—The annual banquet of the Caledonian club will be held tomorrow night in Guernsey hall, the occasion being the one hundred and forty-second anniversary of the death of Robert Burns.

A SLIGHT BLAZE.—A slight fire in the closet of the home of Thomas Fadden, of 11 Green place, caused the fire companies to turn out yesterday in response to an alarm from box 63. The fire was extinguished before more than $25 damage was done.

A WRESTLING MATCH.—It is now definitely settled that Professor M. J. Dwyer, the well known wrestler of Wilkes-Barre, and Leo Parcell, champion middleweight of the country, will wrestle at the Bicycle club house next Tuesday night.

SELL AGAINST STOVE.—Word was received at police headquarters last night that a tramp

We offer subject to previous sale
$9,000

Lehighton Water Supply Co.

Gold Bonds
5 per cent. Free of Tax. Mature 1929.

The company owns 2,000 acres of land,
and control the watershed, as well as the available water supply.

Water is furnished to the towns of
Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, as well as the Lackawanna Valley road. The system is first-class in every respect.

Prices and particulars on application.

R. Russell & Co.

66 Broadway, N. Y.
Wilkes-Barre,
Carbondale,
Commonwealth Bldg., Scranton.

lodging at the South mill had been taken with a Lt. Sergeant Ridgway and Patrolman Thompson responded with the patrol wagon and brought the "hobo" to the city hall station where it was found that one side of his face was burned by contact with a red hot stove.

JANUARY KLEON.—The January number of Kleon has appeared, under the management of Woodward and Elliott. The new publication announces that no radio station or other character of the paper is contemplated. The social and dramatic departments are pleasing innovations. Besides these departments the "spectator" column, a poem by Lincoln E. Brown, a sketch by Don Clark Wilson and the continuation of Elizabeth Housne's serial are included in the table of contents.

TONIGHT'S LECTURE.—The Eli Perkins lecture at the High school tonight will, if the sale of seats be the best criterion, pack the great auditorium to its full capacity. The importance of the announcement of a double-headed lecture will be fully understood by the community and the demand for seats has been threatening the supply. Those who have been fortunate enough to secure seats will be treated to Mr. Perkins' two bear talks, "The Philosophy of Wit and Humor," and "Stories Round the Stove." In these he gives his choicest thoughts, most philosophical withdraws and most genuine humor.

BULK OF HIS ESTATE GOES TO FRIENDS

C. W. Roessler Did Not Leave Any Large Bequests to Relatives—Objections to Probating Will.

A caveat was filed with Register of Wills Koch yesterday, objecting to the probating of the will of the late Charles W. Roessler, who died at his home on Franklin avenue two weeks ago.

The will was filed in the interests of Mary J. Roessler, grandniece of the deceased, who is represented by Attorneys Willard, Warren & Knapp.

The register fixed Friday at 9 o'clock as the time for a hearing. The will gives the bulk of Mr. Roessler's property to Mrs. Mary Louise Osberry. Because of this, and the giving of a piece of property to John T. Cooper, the will is to be attacked. Neither of these were related to Mr. Roessler.

The will provides for the burial of the deceased and the payment of his just debts and then bequeaths to his granddaughters, Pauline Jane Frankland and Mary Jane Roessler, and his sister, Mrs. Pauline F. Hueston, of Wyrdenburg, Germany, the sum of $100 each. The remainder of the will follows:

"To my friend John T. Cooper, who has been very kind to me and has managed my properties for me without compensation, I give one-half the double house on Page court in the city of Scranton together with land appertaining thereto, subject, however, to the payment of a proportionate part, according to value of my debts, funeral expenses and above devises."

"As to all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, of whatever nature or kind, or wheresoever situated at the time of my decease, I do hereby give, devise and bequeath the same to Mary Louise Osberry, her heirs and assigns forever, subject only to the proportionate shares, according to value, of my debts, funeral expenses and the bequests of my granddaughters and sister. My son, John, making his provision for Mrs. Osberry is that I have no children and in my old age she has taken care of me very faithfully and has been an considerate of my welfare and comfort as an own child could be."

The will was made by Attorney Charles E. Oliver on Jan. 5 last and names John T. Cooper and August Robinson as executors.

The register has fixed next Friday as the time for hearing the objections to the probating of the will.

Mrs. Osberry, the principal beneficiary under the will, resides with her husband on Franklin avenue. They are old neighbors of the Roesslers. About three years ago Mr. Roessler's only son was killed at the Dodgetown crossing and soon afterwards the son's widow and her daughter left for Wisconsin, where they have since resided. Mr. Roessler, now well advanced in years, was left without near relatives hereabout, and practically without a home or anyone to look after him.

This emergency, the Osberry's invited him to make his home with them, and he remained there until his death. For nearly two years he has been very feeble and required much attention. Mr. Cooper has for several years looked after his property. The estate of Mr. Roessler is worth about $100,000.

O'MALLEY-CHARLES WEDDING.

A Popular Young Couple Married in St. Peter's Cathedral.

The marriage of Edward J. O'Malley and Miss Agnes Charles took place yesterday at noon in St. Peter's cathedral and was attended by a large throng of friends, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. J. Gough.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of steel poplin trimmed with velvet and chiffon. She wore a picture hat and carried a bouquet of brilliant roses. Her bridegroom, Miss Barbara Schmidt, of Philadelphia, wore a gray gown trimmed with Russian lace. The wedding was attended by James Jordan.

AS THE BRIDE ARRIVED.—A slight fire in the closet of the home of Thomas Fadden, of 11 Green place, caused the fire companies to turn out yesterday in response to an alarm from box 63. The fire was extinguished before more than $25 damage was done.

A WRESTLING MATCH.—It is now definitely settled that Professor M. J. Dwyer, the well known wrestler of Wilkes-Barre, and Leo Parcell, champion middleweight of the country, will wrestle at the Bicycle club house next Tuesday night.

SELL AGAINST STOVE.—Word was received at police headquarters last night that a tramp

We offer subject to previous
sale
$9,000

Lehighton Water Supply Co.

Gold Bonds
5 per cent. Free of Tax. Mature 1929.

The company owns 2,000 acres of land,
and control the watershed, as well as the
available water supply.

Water is furnished to the towns of
Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, as well as the Lackawanna Valley road. The system is first-class in every respect.

Prices and particulars on application.

R. Russell & Co.

66 Broadway, N. Y.
Wilkes-Barre,
Carbondale,
Commonwealth Bldg., Scranton.

lodging at the South mill had been taken with a Lt. Sergeant Ridgway and Patrolman Thompson responded with the patrol wagon and brought the "hobo" to the city hall station where it was found that one side of his face was burned by contact with a red hot stove.

JANUARY KLEON.—The January number of Kleon has appeared, under the management of Woodward and Elliott. The new publication announces that no radio station or other character of the paper is contemplated. The social and dramatic departments are pleasing innovations. Besides these departments the "spectator" column, a poem by Lincoln E. Brown, a sketch by Don Clark Wilson and the continuation of Elizabeth Housne's serial are included in the table of contents.

TONIGHT'S LECTURE.—The Eli Perkins lecture at the High school tonight will, if the sale of seats be the best criterion, pack the great auditorium to its full capacity. The importance of the announcement of a double-headed lecture will be fully understood by the community and the demand for seats has been threatening the supply. Those who have been fortunate enough to secure seats will be treated to Mr. Perkins' two bear talks, "The Philosophy of Wit and Humor," and "Stories Round the Stove." In these he gives his choicest thoughts, most philosophical withdraws and most genuine humor.

BULK OF HIS ESTATE GOES TO FRIENDS

C. W. Roessler Did Not Leave Any Large Bequests to Relatives—Objections to Probating Will.

A caveat was filed with Register of Wills Koch yesterday, objecting to the probating of the will of the late Charles W. Roessler, who died at his home on Franklin avenue two weeks ago.

The will was filed in the interests of Mary J. Roessler, grandniece of the deceased, who is represented by Attorneys Willard, Warren & Knapp.

The register fixed Friday at 9 o'clock as the time for a hearing. The will gives the bulk of Mr. Roessler's property to Mrs. Mary Louise Osberry. Because of this, and the giving of a piece of property to John T. Cooper, the will is to be attacked. Neither of these were related to Mr. Roessler.

The will provides for the burial of the deceased and the payment of his just debts and then bequeaths to his granddaughters, Pauline Jane Frankland and Mary Jane Roessler, and his sister, Mrs. Pauline F. Hueston, of Wyrdenburg, Germany, the sum of $100 each. The remainder of the will follows:

"To my friend John T. Cooper, who has been very kind to me and has managed my properties for me without compensation, I give one-half the double house on Page court in the city of Scranton together with land appertaining thereto, subject, however, to the payment of a proportionate part, according to value of my debts, funeral expenses and above devises."

"As to all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, of whatever nature or kind, or wheresoever situated at the time of my decease, I do hereby give, devise and bequeath the same to Mary Louise Osberry, her heirs and assigns forever, subject only to the proportionate shares, according to value, of my debts, funeral expenses and the bequests of my granddaughters and sister. My son was killed at the Dodgetown crossing and soon afterwards the son's widow and her daughter left for Wisconsin, where they have since resided. Mr. Roessler, now well advanced in years, was left without near relatives hereabout, and practically without a home or anyone to look after him.

This emergency, the Osberry's invited him to make his home with them, and he remained there until his death. For nearly two years he has been very feeble and required much attention. Mr. Cooper has for several years looked after his property. The estate of Mr. Roessler is worth about $100,000.

O'MALLEY-CHARLES WEDDING.

A Popular Young Couple Married in St. Peter's Cathedral.

The marriage of Edward J. O'Malley and Miss Agnes Charles took place yesterday at noon in St. Peter's cathedral and was attended by a large throng of friends, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. J. Gough.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of steel poplin trimmed with velvet and chiffon. She wore a picture hat and carried a bouquet of brilliant roses. Her bridegroom, Miss Barbara Schmidt, of Philadelphia, wore a gray gown trimmed with Russian lace. The wedding was attended by James Jordan.

AS THE BRIDE ARRIVED.—A slight fire in the closet of the home of Thomas Fadden, of 11 Green place, caused the fire companies to turn out yesterday in response to an alarm from box 63. The fire was extinguished before more than $25 damage was done.

A WRESTLING MATCH.—It is now definitely settled that Professor M. J. Dwyer, the well known wrestler of Wilkes-Barre, and Leo Parcell, champion middleweight of the country, will wrestle at the Bicycle club house next Tuesday night.

SELL AGAINST STOVE.—Word was received at police headquarters last night that a tramp

We offer subject to previous
sale
$9,000

Lehighton Water Supply Co.

Gold Bonds
5 per cent. Free of Tax. Mature 1929.

The company owns 2,000 acres of land,
and control the watershed, as well as the
available water supply.

Water is furnished to the towns of
Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, as well as the Lackawanna Valley road. The system is first-class in every respect.

Prices and particulars on application.

R. Russell & Co.

66 Broadway, N. Y.
Wilkes-Barre,
Carbondale,
Commonwealth Bldg., Scranton.

lodging at the South mill had been taken with a Lt. Sergeant Ridgway and Patrolman Thompson responded with the patrol wagon and brought the "hobo" to the city hall station where it was found that one side of his face was burned by contact with a red hot stove.

JANUARY KLEON.—The January number of Kleon has appeared, under the management of Woodward and Elliott. The new publication announces that no radio station or other character of the paper is contemplated. The social and dramatic departments are pleasing innovations. Besides these departments the "spectator" column, a poem by Lincoln E. Brown, a sketch by Don Clark Wilson and the continuation of Elizabeth Housne's serial are included in the table of contents.

TONIGHT'S LECTURE.—The Eli Perkins lecture at the High school tonight will, if the sale of seats be the best criterion, pack the great auditorium to its full capacity. The importance of the announcement of a double-headed lecture will be fully understood by the community and the demand for seats has been threatening the supply. Those who have been fortunate enough to secure seats will be treated to Mr. Perkins' two bear talks, "The Philosophy of Wit and Humor," and "Stories Round the Stove." In these he gives his choicest thoughts, most philosophical withdraws and most genuine humor.

BULK OF HIS ESTATE GOES TO FRIENDS

C. W. Roessler Did Not Leave Any Large Bequests to Relatives—Objections to Probating Will.

A caveat was filed with Register of Wills Koch yesterday, objecting to the probating of the will of the late Charles W. Roessler, who died at his home on Franklin avenue two weeks ago.

The will was filed in the interests of Mary J. Roessler, grandniece of the deceased, who is represented by Attorneys Willard, Warren & Knapp.

The register fixed Friday at 9 o'clock as the time for a hearing. The will gives the bulk of Mr. Roessler's property to Mrs. Mary Louise Osberry. Because of this, and the giving of a piece of property to John T. Cooper, the will is to be attacked. Neither of these were related to Mr. Roessler.

The will provides for the burial of the deceased and the payment of his just debts and then bequeaths to his granddaughters, Pauline Jane Frankland and Mary Jane Roessler, and his sister, Mrs. Pauline F. Hueston, of Wyrdenburg, Germany, the sum of $100 each. The remainder of the will follows:

"To my friend John T. Cooper, who has been very kind to me and has managed my properties for me without compensation, I give one-half the double house on Page court in the city of Scranton together with land appertaining thereto, subject, however, to the payment of a proportionate part, according to value of my debts, funeral expenses and above devises."