

WEST SCRANTON

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE WED

MARRIAGE OF RAY WILLIAMS AND MARGARET MORGAN.

Ceremony Performed by Dr. de Gruchy Last Evening at the Home of the Bride's Parents on North Hyde Park Avenue—Williams-Bodycomb, Evers-Collins and Fraunfelder-Reynolds Nuptials. Funerals of Mrs. B. Hughes, Eva Bennett and Thomas H. Davis.

The marriage of Roy J. Williams, of 116 North Everett avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Williams, and Miss Margaret Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, of 357 North Hyde Park avenue, was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, of which both young people are members and sing in the choir. The bride was unattended and wore a very becoming gown of brown poplin, trimmed with applique silk, and carried bridal roses.

The wedding marches were played by Professor Lewis Davis, chorister of the Jackson Street Baptist church, and the choir was present and sang several selections. Following the ceremony a reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Williams and supper was served to a large number of guests.

They will dispense with a wedding trip and begin housekeeping immediately in a newly furnished home at 122 North Everett avenue. Many valuable and pretty presents were received by them as wedding gifts.

Williams-Bodycomb.

Thomas Williams, of Eynon street, and Mrs. Maria Bodycomb, of Hampton street, were quietly married at 1:45 p.m. last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Evans, on North Hyde Park avenue, by Rev. D. D. Hopkins, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church.

The couple were unattended and immediately after the nuptial knot was tied repaired to the home of the bride's parents, on Hampton street, where a number of relatives and friends had gathered to congratulate them.

Both are well known in the Fifteenth ward, where they have resided for many years. They will reside on Hampton street.

Evers-Collins.

Stephen Evers and Miss Mary Agnes Collins, well known young people, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's Catholic church Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Rev. P. Evans officiated.

The couple were attended by Miss Mary Moyle and Michael Evers, a brother of the groom. They are now enjoying a wedding trip through New York state and upon their return will reside in West Scranton.

Fraunfelder-Reynolds.

Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Mahlon Fraunfelder and Miss Hattie Reynolds, both of 124 North Bromley avenue.

The ceremony was performed in New York on Wednesday by Rev. A. H. Heath, of New York city. The bride is a sister of the groom's first wife.

Funeral of Mrs. B. Hughes.

Services over the remains of the late Mrs. B. Hughes were held at the house on Washburn street, last evening and were attended by many people who enjoyed the friendship and esteem of deceased in life. The services were in charge of Rev. D. D. Hopkins, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, of which Mrs. Hughes was a devoted member.

The pastor spoke at some length on the text from Rev. xiv:13. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." He referred to the true Christian character of Mrs. Hughes, and appealed to his hearers to profit by her Godly life.

The funeral will occur at 9 o'clock this morning, when the remains will be taken to Shamokin for interment. A band of people will accompany the body to its final resting place. The pall-bearers will be Hon. John T. Williams, Edward Thomas, Henry P. Daviet, Joseph Reynolds, James A. Evans and Evan J. Davies.

Among the out-of-town people who were present at the service last evening were Mrs. John Evans, of Westerville, R. I.; John Reiss and John Eddie of Shamokin.

Gitter Funerals Yesterday.

Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Julius Bennett, yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the house on Garfield avenue, and interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

The funeral of the late Thomas H. Davis was conducted yesterday afternoon from the house of deceased's parents on Pleasant street. Rev. E. A. Boyl, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, officiated, and burial was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Miss Elizabeth James, of Nanticoke, attended the Williams-Morgan wedding on North Hyde Park avenue, last evening.

Jackson Street Church.

The drummer evangelist, Rev. W. H. Williams, was greeted by a large congregation last evening at the Jackson Street Baptist church. He preaches with very great earnestness and power,

SOUTH SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF CONRAD FRUEHAN AND MISS EDWARDS.

The Ceremony Was Performed Yesterday by Rev. Mr. North at Hickory Street Presbyterian Church.

Reception Followed at Home of Bride's Parents—Entertainment at Y. W. C. A. Tonight—Basket Ball Game Played Last Night—Marriage of Christian Kraft and Miss Emma Zeigler—Other Notes.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday at high noon in the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, when Conrad Fruehan, Jr., and Miss Elsie M. Edwards were united in wedlock by Rev. Mr. Nordt, pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church. The bride was attired in a gown of steel-colored silk, trimmed with white silk and antique lace, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridegroom, Miss Mayda Opper, wore a gown of pink muslinette de soie, trimmed with pink roses. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was attended by Charles Bahr. The ushers were John G. Funehan, of Philadelphia; Herman Asperglacher, Conrad Wirthbauer, and Harry Lewert.

After the ceremony the wedding party returned to the home of Mrs. Bauer, Bauer, a sister of the bride, where a sumptuous wedding repast was served.

The couple received many and costly presents. They will make their home in this part of the city, where they have hosts of friends.

Entertainment Tonight.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold an entertainment this evening at their rooms on Cedar avenue at 7:45 o'clock. The following programme will be rendered: piano solo, Miss Anna Glass; tableaux, "Cinderella"; recitation, Miss L. Lutte; vocal solo, Miss Louise Lohmann; tableaux, "Three Wise Men"; piano solo, Miss Anna Schaefer; tableaux, "The Last Coat"; duet, Misses Emma Scheuer and Emma Lewert; tableaux, "Faith, Hope and Charity"; piano solo, Miss Freda Kornacker; tableaux, "One Year Among the Angels"; vocal solo, Miss Anna Schaefer; tableaux, "Rock of Ages"; duet, Miss Emma Blatter and Miss Emma Myers.

No admission fee will be charged. All young women are welcome.

NOTED BRIEFLY.

The game of basket ball schedules for last evening between the Defenders and the old Scranton team was not played, on account of the latter team failing to put in an appearance.

A game was accordingly played between the firsts and seconds of the Defenders and the resultant score was 15 to 5 in favor of the first team. The Defenders have been challenged by the North End Stars for a game next Thursday evening at St. John's hall.

Emma Zeigler and Christian Kraft, of Dunmore, were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Nordt, pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church. Mrs. Zeigler, mother of the bride, had gone out to visit some friends and she was greatly surprised on returning to find the young bridal couple at her home.

The funeral of Mrs. Scheffler, of Elm street, who died in Philadelphia, where she had been visiting for the past two weeks, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services over the remains will be held in the Hickory Street Presbyterian church. Interment will be made in the Pittston avenue cemetery.

Miss Mary Lynett, of Carbondale, is visiting friends on this side.

Miss Mary Grayson, of Durystown, is the guest of George Warner, on Pittston avenue.

The St. Mary's choir will meet for rehearsal this evening in St. Mary's hall.

The engagement of Jacob Zimmerman and Miss Gussie Graebner is announced.

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKee, of Oak street, gave a very pleasant surprise party in honor of their daughter, Genevieve, on Wednesday evening. A very enjoyable time was had by those present, and at a reasonable hour refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Katie Lynch, Jennie Duffey, Katie Devine, Sadie Loftus, Alice Mulchreene, Annie Neary, Frances O'Boyle, Charlotte Kane, Margaret Haggerty, Dorothy Leonard, Kathleen O'Boyle, Mrs. Bernice Strode, Misses Edward Knight, Mosey Clark, Thomas Kelley, Edward Gibbons, William Cusick, William Saltry, John O'Malley, Frank Barrett, Thomas Henry and John Frazer.

Rev. P. J. McManus, of St. Paul's church, was in Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday and assisted in the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Frank Smoulder, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thompson, of North Park, are both ill with the grip.

The regular meeting of Green Ridge council, No. 1802, Royal Arcanum, will be held Friday evening, January 25. All members are requested to be present.

Corsets, in straight front shapes, with or without the girdle, also all the regular stock styles.

Corsets, in straight front shapes, with or without the girdle, also all the regular stock styles.

Specialty.—Diseases of Women, Room 1, over Globe store. Hours: 1 to 5:30 p.m. Consultation free. Dr. Treverton.

NEVER SIGNED THE PETITION.

Eighth Ward Men Declare Their Names Are Forgeries.

M. Swartz, a prominent Polish Jew merchant of South Washington avenue, called at the office of the clerk of the courts office yesterday and stated that the name purporting to be his which is signed to the petition in the Eighth ward election is a forgery. With Mr. Swartz was a half dozen of his neighbors, whose names appear on the petition. All of them declared most emphatically that those names as they appear on the petition are forgeries.

The protesters were asked to sign their names to pieces of paper and those were compared with the signatures to the petition. If the latter are forgeries, the forger was very expert with his pen.

The signers to the petition are very much excited over the prospect of having to pay the costs in the case, which amount to upwards of $2,000.

Exercises in M. E. Church.

After a short business session of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church last evening, the following programme was rendered: Subject for the evening was "Modes of Travel"; the first was "Old Conveyances," by Miss Nellie Benjamin; "The One-Hoss Shay," by Miss Lulu Clark; "Introduction of Railways; Electric Railways," Frank Lewis; "A Street Car Experience," Miss Margaret Lee; violin solo, Miss Cure; "The Soliloquy of a Horse on First Seeing an Electric Car," Miss Ruth Benjamin; "The Old and New Modes of Navigation," Charles Constantine; "American Navigation," Mrs. Wetherby; "Automobiles," Frank Pinsky; "Steel Railways," Miss Merle Case.

Euchre Party.

Miss Sarah Moran, of Hudson street, gave a euchre party to her friends on Wednesday evening in honor of her cousin, Mr. J. F. Dunnott. The bridge was won by Mr. Patrick Judge, of the South Side, and Miss Agnes Laney, of Binghamton, N. Y. These present were: The Misses Agnes Laney, Margaret and Celia Clifford, Celia Moran, Sarah and Mary Devine, Agnes, Lizzie and Lydia Ker-igan, Julia and Mary McHugh, Margaret Farrey, K. Moran, Mary and Susie McHugh, Sarah, Katherine and Lizzie Moran; Messrs. Patrick Judge, Bernard Orr, P. Evans, John Devine, J. Morrison, J. McHugh, James Finnigan, M. Donie, James Golden, Martin and Patrick Moran, Mr. and Mrs. P. McAnulty.

Told in a Few Lines.

Mrs. Edward O'Malley, of Victor, Colorado, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. O'Boyle, of William street.

There will be a meeting of the Blessed Virgin sodality at the Holy Rosary church this evening.

Mrs. Roger Moran died Wednesday evening at her home on Sweeney street, after a few days' illness. She is survived by three daughters and one son. The funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock. A high mass of requiem will be held at the Holy Rosary church. Interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The runners and drivers in the Clark vein at the Marvin mine, who went out on strike Wednesday, on account of two of their number being discharged, returned to work yesterday morning on the reinstatement of the two who were discharged.

The Father Whitty society held a smoker last evening in their rooms in St. Mary's hall.

Vernon St. of School street, is slightly indisposed.

John Mackey, of Henwood's drug store, is convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lewis, of Peckville, visited Rev. G. A. Cure and family yesterday.

Mr. Gomer James, of Warren street, is suffering from the grippe.

Mrs. Fred Crippen, of Edina avenue, will give a tea this afternoon in honor of Miss Helen Snook, of Worcester, Mass.

David Jenkins, of Spring street, is suffering from a relapse of typhoid fever.

Mrs. R. Hetherington, of Deacon street, is seriously ill.

John J. Evans and son Daniel, of Deacon street, are suffering with the grippe.

An operation was performed on Master Dudley Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Griffin, for appendicitis, by Doctor Bowler, Welles, Connell and Burns.

The North End Crackerjacks will play a game of basket ball with the Taylor Stars at Taylor Monday evening January 25.

The drayman evangelist, Rev. W. H. Williams, will give an address, entitled "The Young Woman and Her Company," at the Young Women's Christian association, Saturday evening, January 25, at 7:45 o'clock. Free to all.

The service preparatory to Communion Sunday will take place this evening in the Providence Presbyterian church. The sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Guild.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Farewell Reception Tendered Rev. J. L. Kreamer—An Early Morning Fire—Revival Services.

On Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey, 215 Cherry street, a farewell party was tendered Rev. J. L. Kreamer, who recently resigned the pastorate of the Dunmore First Baptist church. Refreshments were served, and before the party broke up, the surprise was made by Dr. Kreamer by presenting him with a handsome house key, it being the gift of the ladies of the church.

Among those present were Rev. A. J. Van Clef, Rev. J. B. Dabney, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Protheroe, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Finch, Mr. and Mrs. George Englehart, Mrs. C. A. Finch, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Glencross, Mrs. Thomas Sansombaugh, Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey, Mrs. Curtis Wilds, Mrs. Margaret Singer, Mrs. W. Spangenberg, Mrs. Belknap, Mrs. Borst, Mrs. Weston, Mrs. John Gibson, Miss Mille Kline, Maud Belknap, Alta Borst, Bertha and Nettie Smith, Maggie Miller, Helen Sansombaugh, Bernice and Beatrice Burke, Messrs. Arthur Jones, Frank Spencer.

Revival Services.

The revival services at the Christian church on Tripp avenue, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Cobb, are growing more interesting every night. There was an excellent audience last night. The evangelist spoke from the fifty-eighth chapter of Isaiah, fourth verse, "Send me as a witness unto the people and a leader and commander unto the people." He showed us how Christ was God's witness to the people. Every man needs a leader in his conduct of life. We need leaders, good men, and not the leader for the people, but Christ. He was also sent for a commander unto the people. The great sin of our people is the need of obedience. This is seen in the children of today. Whom shall we obey in region? It should be Christ.

At the close of the services, this evening the rite of baptism will be administered.

Mr. Dunnott's Service.

"Samuel's Tailor." Women only will be the subject of Evangelist Dunnott's talk at the afternoon service today at the Methodist Episcopal church, and "Who is to Blame?" will be the subject of the sermon at 7:30. While the address in the evening will be to young ladies, everybody is invited.

Last night the subject was "Heil! Where and What Is It?" It was a masterly address. He roughly convinced his audience that there is such a place. Mr. Dunnott is a very attractive speaker and at times very dramatic, but thoroughly in earnest. It is not surprising that crowds always gather at his evangelistic services. The congregations are increasing each evening and the interest is becoming greater.

Early Morning Fire.

Shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday morning a barn on Throop street was discovered to be on fire. The company responded to an alarm from Box 10 and soon succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

The building was formerly owned by James Quick, but is now the property of some building and loan association. The damage amounted to about $100, which, it is said, is covered by insurance. The fire appears to have been of incendiary origin.

News in Brief.

A delegation of Red Men from Cataqua tribe, of Moosic, visited Utah tribe last night to attend the ceremon-

A Man to the Rescue!

The Woman in Peril Rarely Finds Help From Her Own Sex.

It is no wise to a woman's discredit