E., is indicated by the above heading. It will be held at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, Thursday, Jan. 31.

Next Season at Lake Lodore. Booking of Excursions for 1901 at That Popular Resort Has Already Commenced. The Delaware and Hudson company has just issued an attractive little brochure relative to the excursion season of 1901 at Lake Lodore, containing several beautiful half-tone engravings—the handsome new depot in the summer shade of overhanging boughs; the great white dance pavilion in the midst of the far-reaching groves, and various aspects of the boat-dotted, magnificent lake itself with its five-and-a-half miles of varied and charming scenery.

A Great Convenience to the Traveling Public. The Lackawanna Railroad is planning still further improvements in its dining car service. Having equipped its through trains with palatial dining cars and opened an elaborate restaurant in its Hoboken terminal, it is now arranging to supply a buffet service on through express trains between New York and Plymouth, Pa., via Scranton. This service will be started on Wednesday, January 24.

CLERGYMAN FINED BY MAYOR. Rev. F. S. Ballentine Rode His Bicycle Without a Light. Rev. F. S. Ballentine, rector of Christ's Episcopal church, and four other gentlemen were arraigned before Mayor Moir yesterday on the charge of riding bicycles without lighted lamps. They had been arrested on Thursday night by Special Officers Malott and Donlin. Rev. Mr. Ballentine undertook the defense of himself and his four fellow prisoners. He contended that the ordinance prohibiting the riding of bicycles without lighted lamps was an iniquitous measure and he told Mayor Moir that he should be ashamed to enforce it. He said it was special and class legislation and that it interfered with the constitutional rights of the citizen.

RECRUITING MEN FOR THE STANDING ARMY. Lieut. Rowell Has Opened a Recruiting Office in This City—What He Says About the Service. Recent legislation by congress increasing the regular army and the necessity of replacing the 25,000 volunteers in the Philippines has made it necessary for the war department to enlist not less than 35,000 men at the earliest possible date. The army recruiting service has been extended, and Scranton, from its size and as a railroad center, has been selected as a central recruiting station for Northeastern Pennsylvania, and a recruiting office has been opened at 123 Wyoming avenue by Lieutenant M. W. Rowell, Fifth United States cavalry.

THE DOGS FAILED. The hunters who went in with the five trained dogs, Wednesday, are wholly at a loss to explain the failure of their sagacious animals to pick up the scent. They are confident that the dogs feebly crossed and re-crossed Zyliankus' trail. One of the dogs, they say, suddenly darted off and was gone for about an hour, and it was thought he had struck the scent, but when he returned and was headed back under leash, he refused to work.

W. C. T. U. SOCIAL. Large Number of Members and Friends Present Last Night. The Central Women's Christian Temperance union conducted a very successful social in their rooms in the Guernsey building last evening. There were a large number present. The two papers read by Mrs. Ruth Cool and Mrs. Maria Vaughn were very interesting. In her "Echoes from the National Convention" she gave an entertaining review of the work accomplished at the convention and made some interesting comparisons as regards the strength and importance of the society in former years.

DR. HAND'S CONDENSED MILK. With Phosphates and Hypophosphates Added. The magnificent eight-sheet poster of the Dr. Hand's Condensed Milk company now making its appearance on the bill boards of this city and throughout the middle and eastern states is one of the most artistic and striking pieces of bill-board advertising now being done. This enterprising company has become a powerful factor in the condensed milk business in a very short time. The reason is simple. A good article and good advertising brings success every time. Your attention is respectfully called to this large advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

A Wide Difference. Oranges at 12c per Dozen. Oranges at 60c per Dozen. But it is true. Fancy Indian River Oranges command a high price, California Oranges a low price. We do business to accommodate all classes. E. G. Coursen 490 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

LOST MINER FOUND ALIVE. DISCOVERED TROTTERING ALONG A MAIN ROAD. Not Much the Worse for His Six Days' Thrilling Experience. Thought He Had Been in the Mine Only a Day or So—Supposition That He Encountered a Body of Black Damp, Became Stupefied and Fell Into a Sleep After Accidentally Stumbling Upon Good Air.

John Zyliankus, the Polisher, who was lost in the Johnson mine last Saturday, has been found. He was discovered yesterday morning at 6 o'clock trotting down the main road in the third vein guiding himself in the darkness by the trolley wire along the roof. One of his own countrymen, John Nartorskiy, was the first man to encounter him. Nartorskiy was going to his chamber along the main road and when about half a mile from the foot of the shaft saw a man coming towards him without a lamp and groping his way through the darkness by running his hand along the trolley wire. Nartorskiy recognized him at once as the missing Zyliankus and rushed forward to his assistance.

TAKEN TO SURFACE. Then he started for the shaft with the two miners assisting him. He was hoisted to the surface and as soon as his eyes became accustomed to the daylight he walked unaided to his boarding house on Madison avenue, three hundred yards away, accompanied by a large crowd which grew constantly in number as he went. The finding rapidly spread through the Johnson's patch settlement. There was great rejoicing, especially among Zyliankus' countrymen.

TOOK A SHORT ROUTE. After he left the fire boss' shanty, he says, he went towards his chamber by a short route through some old workings. He had been through them several times before, when he worked at the mines seven days in December, and thought he knew the way. The route which he took passes through only about fifty yards of old workings and is much traversed as the road about route along the main road is three times as far. It is supposed that instead of cutting straight through the old workings Zyliankus turned at a right angle when he was half way across and headed into the labyrinth of abandoned chambers.

TIME NOT COUNTED. He does not know whether it was hours or days from the time he was hoisted up and resumed his wanderings until he was rewarded yesterday morning by discovering the trolley cable above his head. He knew this would lead

BEALE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY. IS TO BE SENTENCED TODAY FOR EMBEZZLEMENT. Was Brought in on an Attachment in the Ketcham Case and Effected a Settlement, but Court Directed That He Be Held for Sentence in the Meade Case and He Was Remanded to the Custody of the Sheriff—Was Later Released on Bail.

Unless something intervenes before 9 o'clock this morning to change the current of things, Attorney George W. Beale will be called upon to pay the penalty for the crime of embezzlement of which he was convicted in December, 1899, in the local court. Through tolerance of the court, Beale has succeeded in staying off for a long time the visitation of the penalty for his shortcomings, which will likely come on him today. Last Monday an attachment was issued by Judge Archbald for Beale's apprehension and Deputy Sheriff H. F. Furber was directed to bring him in in answer for having failed to obey an order of court in the Ketcham case, in which he was charged with misappropriating $100 of a client's funds.

KETCHAM CONVICTED. The case went to trial and Ketcham was convicted. Then the brother who had advanced the $100 demanded its return from Beale. He didn't get it, and through an attorney secured a rule October 5, 1900, to compel Beale to show cause why he should not pay over the $100. Beale made no answer to the allegations contained in the petition on which the rule was based, and finally court made an order directing him to pay over the $100 at the same time causing an attachment to enforce it. Beale made an offset against the $100 a claim for $50 counsel fees and brought suit against A. E. Ketcham before Alderman J. W. Millet and got judgment for the amount. An appeal has been taken.

JOHN WELSH KILLED. Caught Between Cars in Bellevue Mine and Horribly Crushed. John Welsh, aged 23 years, of 429 Fourth street, was fatally injured yesterday morning in the Bellevue mine, where he was employed, and died a short time after being removed to his home. He was employed regularly as a company driver, but yesterday acted as driver, taking the place of a man who was unable to work. He was coupling two cars when he was caught between the bumpers and horribly crushed. He lived but a short time. The dead young man is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Welsh. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Holy Cross church.

GRIPPE. CASEY BROTHERS, Wholesale Liquor Dealers, 216 Lackawanna Ave. being postponed from time to time. Two weeks ago he was again called up for sentence. Again he escaped by making representations that he would pay up. He was given a week to do so but failed, and now is, it would seem, at the end of his tether. The rest of the cash of the Ellis estate, it appears, went the way of the Mrs. Mead share. The heirs of the deceased sister began civil proceedings against Beale to recover their one-third, and as a result Beale's home was sold. A Mrs. Cook, who failed to join with the other heirs in these proceedings, lost her portion entirely. WISCONSIN HEIRS. The heirs of the deceased Wisconsin brother could not get Beale to make a settlement with them, and engaged Attorney E. C. Newcomb to prosecute him. Beale settled by giving them a note signed by Joseph Scott, of Union county, who is Beale's father-in-law. Not long ago, Mr. Scott learned that a judgment for $1,500 was entered against him in the Lackawanna courts and he forthwith secured a rule to have it opened. He said he never gave such a note and pronounced the signature a forgery. Beale is alleged to have lost all his money in the Morris Run Coal company, of which he was a promoter.

Indian River Oranges. People who know about Indian River oranges know that there are but a few hundred boxes grown this year. Florida oranges and Indian River oranges are altogether a very different orange. Indian River oranges bring twice the price, and do not begin to be good until February. Should any one wish a box or half box of Indian River fruit, oranges, grape fruit, Tanguaras or Conquats, they can have the order at E. G. Coursen's or Dr. G. E. Hill & Son. The Tanguara orange or Mandarine are ready for market now. For a Cold in the Head. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. A LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE. The greatest commercial economist in the world today. Compared to any necessary investment in business, the profit from a TELEPHONE is incalculable. Residence and Commercial rates at a moderate cost.
