OCIAL AFFAIRS have been very few and far between for the past week. Interest has centered in the preparations for the mammoth entertainment for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless, which assumes such proportions at present as promise to surpass everything in the way of an amateur event ever attempted in this city with the exception of the ever beautiful Au-thors' Carnival of blissful memory. The Marie Antoinette Fete will include many features never arranged for a local entertalnment,

It is expected that the occupants of booths, as well as the participants in the dances, will appear in costume more or less in keeping with the historical period portrayed. The attendants in the booths will wear light bued gowns and powdered hair. There will be flower and confectionery booths in the loges at the extreme left and right of the orcrestra chairs, while at the entrance nearest the lobby will be the voting and art booths and the programme booths. Refreshments will also se sold during the evening by a committee of ladies.

CATARRH spares neither strong nor weak, old or young, sick or well.
All ranks of people have chronic catarrh; rich men, poor men, beggar men, thieves, lawyers, doctors, mer-chants, priests. Not only catarrh of the head, but catarrh of the throat, catarrh of the lungs, catarrh of the stomach, catarrh of the liver, catarrh of the kidneys, catarrh of the bowels and a multitude of women are afflicted with catarrh of the pelvic organs.

Catarrh is a word which includes a multitude of diseases. Nearly one-half more nor less than catarrh in some phase or location.

When it is said, therefore, that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located, a much larger fact is stated than at first appears. If it be true that Peruna really does cure catarrh wherever located, what a multitude of diseaser Peruna will cure.

Who is it that says Peruna will cure catarrh wherever located? Doctors say t, lawyers say it, preachers say it, a vast army of men and women say it who have tried it. The old and the young say it. They say it in the east, in the west; they say it in the north and the south.

All these say that Peruna will cure catarrh wherever located, and they say it, too, without any solicitation, hesi-

None has yet come to take their place, but the twentieth century is only at its beginning, and it must not be forgotten that in 1801 there was but one composer, Haydn, to uphold the traditions of the past. The men who were to carry music to a higher plane than it has ever reached were young and unknown or still to be born. With the closing of Verdi's life the end of a mighty chapter has been reached. Verdi has died full of years and honors. He lived to see the glories of all the great conposers of the century, from Beethoven to Wagner and Brahms. He gave pleasure to countless thousands for over sixty years. A sincere, modest man, a conscientious artist and a real genius, he grew with his age, looking ever for-ward and never backward, and his reward has been a sincere love and affection from all who
