

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MONTRÖSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Montrose, Feb. 1.—Court is still in session, Judge George S. Purdy, of Wayne county, has been here this week to hear certified cases.

CRIMINAL CASES.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Curtis Stone, prosecuting officer, assault and battery, etc., the case was tried by the court to return a verdict of not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. William Smith, charge, mayhem, jury found defendant guilty as charged in the indictment.

Commonwealth vs. Thomas Bovi and Commonwealth vs. Amos Rotnus, Blodvock Yanovich, charged with assault and battery, were tried jointly; jury now out.

Commonwealth vs. Daniel Reardon, Josie Chamberlain, charge, larceny and receiving, the case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon, but up to this hour an agreement has not been reached.

Commonwealth vs. Curtis Stone, charge, illegal trafficking. This is a suit brought by the Free Methodist Camp Meeting association against the defendant for conducting a stand for the sale of light beers, fruits, candy, etc., within one mile of the camp ground and against the wishes and without the consent of the association, contrary to the act of assembly.

Commonwealth vs. John O'Shea. No depositions having been taken on rule, rule is discharged. In re license of William Shafer; filed depositions on part of petitioner. In re division of wards of Susquehanna borough. Hearing in case continued until next week.

BEFORE JUDGE PURDY. G. W. Wedemmen vs. Sarah Harlick and Avery Harris. In hands of court. N. Major vs. First National bank of Susquehanna. Supplemental affidavit of defense permitted to be filed.

ROADS AND BRIDGES. In re road in Great Bend. Confirmed nisi. In re road in Auburn. Confirmed nisi; width fifty feet.

In re bridge in Liberty township. Confirmed nisi. In re road in Apalaco. Confirmed nisi. In re road in Lathrop township. Confirmed nisi.

In re road in Franklin. Confirmed nisi. In re road in Auburn. Continued to April term. In re bridge in Little Meadows. Continued to April term.

In re road in Thomson. Confirmed nisi; width fifty feet. In re bridge over Lackawanna creek in Forest City. View continued to April term. In re road in Springville. Confirmed nisi.

In re bridge in Franklin. Report of inspectors approved. In re bridge in Lenox. Rule granted upon contractors.

Postmaster S. S. Wright is home from Washington, D. C., and Harrisburg, where he has been on business. Holy Communion service will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church on Sunday morning.

Rev. Dr. James W. Putnam, of New York city, will preach at the monthly union service to be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

The men's 4 o'clock meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held at the fall on Sunday next.

The members of the senior class of the Montrose High school enjoyed the class sleighride, which they had awaited so long and patiently, last night.

Miss Julia Crusier, educationist, will appear at an entertainment at Factoryville this evening.

The Captain H. B. Beardsley camp, Sons of Veterans, of this place, has arranged with Charlie Collins, the well-known impersonator of "Fritz Stein," in the war drama of that name, for two presentations of the play in Montrose this spring.

Herbert Brewer left today for Germantown, where he has secured a good position in a large drug store.

Mrs. Emma Perkins has returned from a visit with friends.

Mrs. J. E. Courtright is a guest of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Wagoner, at St. Andrew's rectory, Alden, Pa.

It is stated on good authority that all that remains to be done now to ensure the establishment of a pants factory in Montrose is the raising of $1,000 to pay the rent of the building for four years. A committee has been at work today soliciting subscriptions, and the prospect for the factory seems bright.

The factory will be conducted by John E. O'Brien and Feinbloom & Co., and will be operated in O'Brien's building, on South Main street.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Feb. 1.—The Monday club will meet next week with Miss Eleanor Little.

Mrs. R. E. Passet, of Laceyville, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Spaulding.

The St. Anthony Literary club, which meets every Tuesday evening in the vestry of the Catholic church, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, William Connell; vice-president, Patrick Boyce; secretary, Thomas Boyce; assistant secretary, Mame Connell; treasurer, Chris Calahan. The club has about thirty members.

George J. Johnson, of Laceyville, was in town Wednesday. He recently sold the Winola woolen mill at this place about 30,000 pounds of wool, and while here visited the factory and saw them being spun up some of it. He regards the mill as quite an industry for Tunkhannock.

William A. Kettledge, of the Consumers' store, is confined to the house with the grip.

Elthelma Hakeslee, daughter of B. Hakeslee, was taken to the Methodist hospital at Philadelphia one day this week, where an operation will be performed for appendicitis.

Milton Britton, of Clinton township; Squire Charles Gardner and George Stanton, of Factoryville borough, have been attending court this week. Sheriff John W. Gray left on Thursday for Huntington with two prisoners, Joseph Moulton and Ernest Dickinson, who had been convicted of larceny and sentenced to confinement at Huntington reformatory, during this week.

Prof. George T. Bible, of the Stroudsburg State Normal school, will deliver a lecture at Platt's opera house on Friday evening, February 22, under the auspices of the teachers and scholars of the Tunkhannock independent school district. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of a bell and organ for the school house.

Miss Flora Parks, a trained nurse of Wilkes-Barre, has returned to her home, after spending a few days with Mrs. Elizabeth Spaulding.

Clarence Ashel, who is attending a business college at Elmira, N. Y., was called here this week to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Miller.

A temporary license has been issued to O. C. Osborne and Miss Alfrida Jones, both of Xenon.

Mrs. Knutson, of Auburn, N. Y., who has been the guest of Mrs. E. N. Stone for the past week, has returned home. The Baptist church is now being wired for electric lights.

Mrs. T. B. Cheyenne is confined to the house by illness.

Floyd Thompson, of New York city, visited his parents at this place one day this week.

COURT NOTES.

In the case of George White vs. Frank Mulligan et al, trespass, for false imprisonment, the jury found a verdict in favor of the defendants, after being out nearly four hours. The case may be appealed to a higher court.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Kneeland E. Allen, the defendant not appearing, the recognizance was forfeited and a bench warrant directed to be issued to bring the defendant into court.

John W. Gray, sheriff of Wyoming county, acknowledged in open court the following deeds for real estate sold by him, viz: Deed to Alfred Ayers, land in Forest City, sold as property of C. M. Newbury; consideration, $1,000. Deed to James W. Putnam, for land in Monroe, sold as property of C. M. Newbury; consideration, $50.

Judson Lutes vs. Cory Schooley, rate for interpleader granted.

In the case of George Myers vs. Andrew Dalley, James Dalley, Olin Sickler, Wesley Sickler and Wesley Gabriel, trespass for cutting timber from land of another, is now on trial. James E. Frear and Harding & Harding appear for plaintiff, and James W. Platt for defendant. In such cases, if the plaintiff is successful, the law gives treble damages for timber so cut, when it is done knowingly.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, Feb. 1.—There is a great deal of sickness in the community and doctors and drug stores are busy. La grippe seems to have the greatest number of victims.

W. F. White is ill with pneumonia. The condition of Miss Elizabeth Hartung, who is suffering with pneumonia, is thought to be slightly improved.

S. C. Manzer has leased the planing mill of T. B. Davis & Bro.

Claude Taylor, who has been very ill with the grip, is somewhat better.

William H. McMillan is a delegate to the Indianapolis convention of the United Mine Workers of America.

W. H. Jones has returned from New York city, where he took a course in embalming.

The Forest City Social club will open its rooms tonight with a smoker. Jack Nicholson, Feb. 1.—One of the most brilliant affairs of the season was the banquet given at the Nicholson lodge, No. 428, Free and Accepted Masons, which was held at the opera house Wednesday evening, January 26, 1901.

During the party of Eric evening the following programme was rendered: Overture, Mozart; piano duet, Mrs. C. R. Newton and Mrs. F. A. Baker; solo, "Come to Me, Sweetheart," Mrs. W. S. Decker; quartette, Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Reynolds; coin song by request, Mrs. W. S. Decker, Mrs. F. A. Baker and Nellie Shields; soprano solo, "For All Eternity," Mrs. E. M. Tiffany; violin obligato by F. A. Baker; soprano solo, Mrs. Jessie Smith; violin obligato by Mr. Hobbs; piano duet, "Le Reveille du Lion," Mrs. F. A. Baker and Mrs. C. R. Newton. The programme over the guests sat down to very prettily decorated tables and partook of the following feast: Raw oysters, stewed oysters, roast turkey, mashed potatoes, celery, gilet sauce, cranberry sauce, pickles, cabbage salad, olives, brown bread, biscuit, coffee, cocoa, chocolate, sponge cake, lemon sherbet, ice cream, fruit, tea, coffee. Mr. Shinn, Jr., took charge of the closing exercises with perfect success. C. R. Newton as toastmaster. Toasts were then responded to by Revs. O. R. Beardsley and N. B. Naab, of Scranton, and L. E. Sanford, of this place. Guest

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, Feb. 1.—The lecture on "The Grip," by Dr. P. S. Hemson, in the opera house, was a rare treat for Honesdale people, and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience. A large variety of foods were introduced by the speaker.

On Friday evening twenty-five masked couples were invited to the ball given by the Young People's Society at the opera house. The ball was a great success.

The Misses Volk gave private masquerade parties to a number of their young friends on Friday evening.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

UNIONDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Uniondale, Feb. 1.—The Democratic and Prohibition caucuses were held in their respective places Friday and Monday nights. Each caucus nominated men to represent it in the February election, both endorsing a number of candidates on the Republican ticket.

Rev. A. Eastman and daughter, Mrs. Taylor, visited friends in Binghamton last week.

Edith Spoor spent last Saturday and Sunday with friends in Forest City.

James Bonnett, who lives with his daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

Mrs. H. Bowwell visited her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Lawrence, who lives with her daughter on the east side of the town, celebrated his nineteenth birthday last Saturday. He is remarkably bright and cheerful for a man of his age.

DURYEA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Duryea, Feb. 1.—Several ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the farmhouse Thursday evening to welcome the new pastor and family to this town. A few weeks ago, Rev. Green had his furniture removed from his former home at Worchester, N. Y., to this place, but was unable to bring his family thither on account of the illness of his mother, who resides with him. But at last we have the opportunity to welcome them to their new home, a most beautiful little cottage. Rev. Green has two beautiful little children. The ladies who assembled to welcome them were Mrs. W. Wickizer, Mrs. J. Brynmier, Mrs. J. Curtis and Mrs. S. Anderson. Tea was prepared by the ladies for the weary travelers.

On Friday evening twenty-five masked couples were invited to the ball given by the Young People's Society at the opera house. The ball was a great success.

The Misses Volk gave private masquerade parties to a number of their young friends on Friday evening.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Except in the extreme northern portions, Wayne county thus far has been without snowing, very much to the injury of the ash wood and lumber industry. The numerous furies of snow have not been sufficient to make the winter a success.

The Klubb Club, which has been working eleven hours a day to fill their orders, they employ ninety-five girls.

Mrs. March, wife of Prof. Thomas S. March, principal of the Honesdale schools, is at Clearfield, Pa., attending the funeral of a sister-in-law.

County Commissioner George C. Robertson is confined to his home in Derry by illness.

The Albert Hook and Ladder company will hold a masquerade ball in their hall on Wednesday evening, February 6.

Men's Furnishings

Six items come up to the advertiser's desk from the Men's Furnishings store—and they look like very good ones; so good in fact that we're going to use ALL of them for today, just to give men a chance at some very choice bargain plums.
The genuine "Perfection" Garters of fine silk elastic and nickel clasps: 15c.
Night Garters of fine silk elastic, full, well made and splendidly trimmed: 50c.
Saturday all, second shirts in colors of pin,