WELSH BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

REVIEW MEETING OF THE ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERS.

Held in the First Welsh Baptist Church Yesterday Afternoon and Evening—History of the Organization and Its Pioneer Members—Reception Tendered Father Hubert by St. Peter's Society—John Scott Killed—Other Matters of an Interesting Nature.

A meeting to review the organization and progress of the Welsh Baptist association and churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania was held yesterday afternoon and evening in the First Baptist church, South Main avenue. Owing to the severity of the weather the afternoon meeting was interfered with, but in the evening there was a large attendance of ministers, laymen and church workers.

Edward E. Thomas presided at the afternoon meeting, and the devotions were led by Rev. J. T. Griffiths, D. D., of Lansford. The time was consumed by Rev. W. F. Davies, of North Scranton, who gave an exhaustive history of the association from 1849 to the present time. The report was concluded at the evening session.

Rev. D. D. Hopkins, pastor of the church, was chairman of the evening session, and Rev. J. D. Roberts, of South Wilkes-Barre, led the devotional exercises. Among the clergymen present were: Rev. W. F. Davies, of North Scranton; Rev. J. T. Griffiths, of Lansford; Rev. T. P. Morgan, of Edwardsville; Rev. J. D. Roberts, of South Wilkes-Barre; Rev. D. C. Hopkins, of West Scranton; Rev. D. C. Edwards, of Taylor, and others.

Prof. James R. Hughes, of the Scranton High school, read a paper on "The Sunday School as a Factor in Civilization," which was very interesting and instructive. He showed the relative necessity of the Sunday school work in conjunction with the church.

DR. GRIFFITHS' ADDRESS. Rev. J. T. Griffiths, D. D., of Lansford, Pa., delivered the principal address of the evening on "The Pioneer Ministers of the Welsh Baptist Association." In his remarks he said: "The Welsh Baptists occupy a very prominent position in the foundation and development of the Baptists of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and other places. The Eatons from Dolan, Dadescohrle, Wales, were the chief founders of the old Pennekock church, now Lower Dublin, in Philadelphia, which was founded in January, 1838. A church had been founded at Cold Springs, near Bristol, by the Rev. Thomas Duncan, of Rhode Island, in 1844, but that ceased in 1762, but the old Pennekock church still exists. The old Welsh Tract church came from Thysellwyn, Wales, in 1501, as an organized body of sixteen members, having the Rev. Thomas Griffiths as their pastor. The Montgomery church was founded by the Rev. Abel Morgan in 1719, the Great Valley in 1711, and others that might be named. Of the first six joint pastors of Pennekock and churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania, three were Welshmen, Samuel Jones and both the Morgans, to whom are to be added their immediate successors, Jenkin Jones and Morgan Edwards. The influence of such men as Morgan John Rhys, the Joneses, Drs. Benjamin Griffiths, William Shadrach and others will never be forgotten by the American Baptists, and among these the ministers of the Welsh Baptist association form an important and an essential part."

THE PIONEERS. It seems that the three ministers who are regarded as the pioneers of the Welsh Baptist association of Eastern Pennsylvania are the late William Owens, of Pittsburg; William Morgans, of Pottsville; and William Richmond, of Blakely. From the year 1840 to 1855 the Welsh Baptists of Eastern Pennsylvania and New York comprised one association, under the name of the Onondaga and Eastern Pennsylvania Welsh Baptist association, and during those fifteen years we had about eleven Welsh Baptist ministers, but the above three were regarded as the pioneers of Lanarkshire and Schuylkill counties.

William Owens was born in the year 1798 in the parish of Llanybylle, Carmarthenshire, Wales. He was baptized in the Kenen river when twenty-one years of age by the venerable John Davies, bookbinder. In 1821, with his family, he emigrated to America and landed in Lewistown, Delaware, and after a year there, removed to Philadelphia. In 1833 he moved to Pottsville, where he was ordained. In 1835 he moved to Pittsburg, where he remained until his death in 1874.

William Morgans, Pottsville, was a man greatly beloved. He was a native of Llantrisant, Wales, and began to preach under Dr. John Jenkins, Henssed. His death occurred in Pottsville, April 25, 1876. But little is known of his early work, but he labored zealously in the service of the Lord. William Richmond, Blakely, was the founder of the First Welsh Baptist church, of Scranton, which was organized in 1849. He was a native of Wales, and lived on a farm near Blakely. He died in 1857 at the age of seventy-five years.

WAS A PASTOR HERE. Rev. John P. Harris was a native of Pembroke, Wales, and was born in 1820. He settled at Minersville in 1841, and in 1857 he brought out a new and revised edition of hymns, which was adopted by the Welsh Baptist churches. He was the pastor of a church in Hyde Park in 1855, and died at Nanticoke in 1895. Rev. Richard Edwards, Pottsville, is still living in his eighty-first year. Throughout his life he has been a very useful man and highly respected by his brethren.

Rev. D. E. Bowen, Carbondale, was a very prominent and popular man in his day. He was located in the Pioneer City in 1842. He died at Sioux Rapids, Iowa, January 13, 1890, aged seventy-three years, after having preached the gospel for fifty-two years. Rev. David Evans, Danville, was a native of New Castle, Emlyn, Wales, and was born in 1816. He came to America in 1842 and settled in Schuylkill county. In 1846 he was ordained at Danville. He died at McKeesport, Pa., in August, 1885.

Rev. Ebenezer Edwards, Allentown, was at Pittston in 1851, where he began his ministry. Later he went to Cincinnati, Ohio. He was a writer of considerable note. Rev. John W. James was the first pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church of Scranton. He came to America in 1851, and in 1852 was ordained as pastor of the church in Scranton. He died in Mineral Ridge, Ohio, in March, 1885.

Rev. Benjamin Bowen was baptized at Pittston in 1852, and was ordained the same year as pastor of the Pittston church. He labored there for years with great success and then moved to Olyphant, where he died.

The speaker also referred to a number of other clergymen who were identified with the association, among whom were Rev. W. R. Jones, Summit Hill; Rev. Edward Jenkins, Tremont; Rev. Theophilus Jones, Rev. E. Oliver, Rev. Isalah Davis, Rev. John Roberts, Rev. P. L. Davies, Rev. A. J. Morton, Rev. B. W. Thomas, Rev. J. Spintner James, Rev. Fred Evans, Rev. Owen Griffiths, Rev. Thomas, and others who are now identified with the association.

Reception to Father Hubert. The St. Peter's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society tendered a reception last evening to Father Hubert, Birmingham (Father Hubert) in the basement of Holy Cross church, Bellevue. A large representation of the society was present, including a number of lady friends of the society.

Prior to the reception Father Hubert was presented with a purse by the members of St. Peter's, and in his remarks to them in the evening referred to that fact, and also to the time when he was a member of the society, and how interested he has always been in the organization.

Rev. W. P. O'Donnell, of Holy Cross church, also addressed the assembly, and prevailed upon his hearers to adhere to the cause of total abstinence, and profit by the kind words of encouragement spoken to them by Father Hubert.

Entertainment was provided by several local societies and the Astor, Pipe and Drum corps, and before closing, the ladies served refreshments.

Father Hubert will leave today at noon for Hoboken to resume his work at the West Hoboken monastery. This is his first visit to Scranton since he entered the monastery twelve years ago, and his stay has been a succession of receptions, missionary meetings and entertainments, all of which have been eminently successful and satisfactory. Rev. Patrick McCaffrey, of West Scranton, who entered the priesthood about the same time as Father Hubert, is reported to be seriously ill at Montgomery, Alabama, where he has been located for some time.

The Grocer's Boy and his Broom

The "In-er-seal Patent Package" for biscuit defies the boy and his broom. The dust he raises can no longer harm the biscuit. When he sprinkles the floor the dampness he creates will not take the crispness out of the cracker. The "In-er-seal Patent Package" is proof against damp, dirt and odor—no matter in what form they appear. The new package is revolutionizing the biscuit business. It does away with the old fashioned selling of biscuit and wafers from barrels or boxes. It enables the customer to obtain them fresh, crisp and clean, just as they come from the baker's oven.

When you order Soda, Milk, Graham, Oatmeal and Butter Thin Biscuit, Ginger Snaps, Vanilla Wafers and Reception Flakes, insist on getting those which come in the "In-er-seal Patent Package." Don't take a substitute.

Look for this seal on the end of the package.
