STANIS HAD MONEY TO BURN

BUT IT BELONGED TO JOHN YUDESKA.

The Sum of $90 Was Extracted from the Latter's Pocket While He Was Asleep—Columbia Company Passes Resolutions About Censure of Department—Death of Llew Herbert, the Well Known Basco—Miss Baker's Birthday Party—Weekly School Deposits.

Andrew Stanis, a young Poleander, who has only been in the country a few months, is a prisoner at the West Side station house, charged with robbing a fellow-countryman named John Yudeska, of $90. All but eighty cents of the money has been recovered, but the evidence against Stanis is so conclusive that he has been held for a hearing at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

On Sunday there was a christening at Anthony Stein's place, 134 North Main avenue, at which place Stanis was boarding. He had recently been working under instructions at the Pleasant mine, and was really supported by his boarding boss and friends, consequently he had no money.

Towards evening, Yudeska became intoxicated and was put to bed in Stanis' room. During the night the former was relieved of his money. Suspicion rested on Stanis, and when he was accused of the theft attempted to throw the money into a stove.

He was dissuaded from doing so by Charles Pallutis, to whom he gave $90 of the stolen money. Stanis then made his escape through a back door into Hennessy court, followed by his accusers. Patrolmen McColligan and Hart were notified and they found him on Jackson street, and placed him under arrest, after he had been set upon and abused by his accusers.

When searched by Lieutenant Williams in the station house, Stanis had $10 on his person. He was somewhat intoxicated, but feigned illness. He soon recovered, however, when locked up, and will have a chance to face his accusers this evening.

A Pile Remedy Which Really Cures. Mr. D. P. Collins, of Garnett, says: "I commenced using the Pyramid Pile Cure at a time when my case was bad. I thought nothing could cure it, but I had used a fifty cent package and I began to feel much better, and now I can honestly say I am entirely cured. It is the quickest and surest remedy I have ever tried or heard of." From Thomas Willison, of Port Jervis: "Just one package of the Pyramid Pile Cure did wonders for me, and I lose no opportunity of recommending such a remedy." Anos Crocker, of Worcester: "After having gone through an unsuccessful surgical operation for piles and after trying any number of salves and ointments without success, it is no wonder that I find words of praise for the Pyramid Pile Cure. It really cured me more good than all the remedies I had tried before. It is so simple and painless to use that I felt no inconvenience, whatever, while using it." It has been thoroughly tested by physicians in every state in the Union, and the best authorities recognize it as the safest, surest and cheapest pile cure known. The Pyramid Pile Cure cures every form of piles, itching, protruding or bleeding, without a particle of pain. It cures without detention from daily occupation, being in suppository form and used at night. Its effects are lasting and not merely temporary relief. More than all this, the Pyramid Pile Cure is entirely harmless, containing no opiate, narcotics or mineral poisons, and does no harm to the delicate. Druggists everywhere sell it and report universal satisfaction wherever used. A little book on causes and cure of piles will be mailed free by addressing the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Catharine Blewitt.

Mrs. Catharine Blewitt, wife of former State Inspector Patrick Blewitt, died Sunday night at her home, 310 North Main street, at the age of 72 years, but her recovery was not despaired of and her death was heard of with the keenest regret by hundreds who had known and admired her for great goodness of heart and kindly disposition.

Mrs. Blewitt was 61 years of age and had been a resident of this city for about forty years. For twenty-eight years she resided in the house where she died. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Eugene Hayden, of this city; E. F. Blewitt, former city engineer, who is now supervising the construction of important public work in Mexico; Mrs. Sarah Roche and Mrs. Genevieve Gallagher, of New York; the Misses Julia and Miss Veron Blewitt, teachers in the city schools; the Miss Frances and Angelo Blewitt and William Blewitt.

E. F. Blewitt was married by wife Saturday of the serious illness of his mother and at once started for this city. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed pending his arrival in the city. Mrs. Blewitt was a woman of strong character but kind and gentle of disposition and of boundless charity. It was the charity that springs from the heart which lets not the right hand know what the left does. Her good deeds were so unostentatious as her life and for them she will long be remembered by scores into whose lives she brought a ray of sunshine at a time when grief or adversity had laid a heavy load upon them.

Rev. W. R. Matthews, a well known western preacher and a former resident of Olyphant, died Monday morning at the home of his son, T. J. Matthews, in Spring Brook.

Funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Spring Brook cemetery. Plans will be made to meet the train leaving Scranton at 10:30 a. m.

The funeral of Dr. Leonard Kelly, Jr., of Olyphant, will take place at 2:30 p. m. today at his late residence at Olyphant. Friends wishing to view the remains can do so from 10 to 12 o'clock this morning. The funeral of William H. O'Connor, who was killed by a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train while diving over a trestle crossing Sunday afternoon, will be held from his late residence, 120 Webster avenue, Dunmore, this afternoon and interment will be made in the Ashland Catholic cemetery. Services will be conducted at St. Mary's church. The remains of the late Miss Katherine Clark who died in Philadelphia on Sunday, arrived in the city at 5 o'clock last evening and were removed to the home of the mother of the deceased in Green's place by Undertaker Casick.
