SPRINGVILLE.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Springville, Feb. 11.—W. M. Lathrop has recovered from his illness, so that he is about his usual vocation.

Mrs. Anna Blakestein, widow of the late Lewis Blakestein, has lately been granted a pension of $5 per month.

Mrs. J. Rush has been sick two weeks or more.

Mrs. P. W. Terry was taken sick while away from home, visiting her daughter, but is home and well now. During her absence, her husband was also sick and is not yet able to do any labor.

The sick of D. D. Layton advertised, was put over until Tuesday, the 12th, because of inclement weather. P. T. Maryott also adjourned his sale that was advertised for the same day.

W. H. Brown has gone out of the employ of Daniel Thomas and returned to his former home at Lehman, Luzerne county.

Mrs. Emily Riley is quite seriously ill with the prevailing disease. Her age is over 80 years, and she has been able to do her own housework until her present illness.

Wednesday last, Mark Scott suffered an attack of pleurisy while at work in his barn and had to get to the house on his hands and knees. He is better this morning.

Jeweler Herrmann has been sick since the fore part of last week with grip.

Tuesday evening the members of Vesta lodge, No. 157, Daughters of Rebekah, are invited to meet at the home of M. E. Compton and wife for a social, and it is very evident that the present weather conditions continue. Miles will have a crowd. This is the twelfth anniversary of the institution of the lodge.

A load of dancers went up to the Dolan house at Dimock Friday night for a hop. At 4 o'clock in the morning, Miles came home. They report a good time.

The funeral of Mrs. Delmar Stark, of Rush, took place at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday and was largely attended. Vesta lodge, No. 157, Daughters of Rebekah, in which she died, members being out in a body to attend the funeral. Interment was made in the Stark cemetery, two miles below Piercerville, on the Tunkhannock creek. The husband and two daughters are left to mourn. The family were raised in this vicinity and are well known.

BROOKLYN.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Brooklyn, Feb. 11.—F. B. Jewett has returned from a visit with friends in Illinois.

Miss Melia Brown visited Miss Maud Waldie recently.

The entertainment advertised to be held in the Methodist Episcopal church was postponed, as the entertainer failed to reach town.

Dr. N. E. Sage preached an excellent sermon on "Abraham Lincoln and His Religion," to the members of the Lieutenant Rogers post, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Patriotic Order Sons of America, in the Universalist church last Sunday.

The telephone from Brooklyn to Forest City has been repaired and the weather will allow. Several poles are up and the others are on the ground. The line is being put in by Waidie & Terry, but will probably connect with several farm houses near Brooklyn.

Miss Alice Quick died at the home of her uncle, Alvah Quick, last Sunday. She had been a consumptive for a long time. The funeral will be conducted from the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. E. C. Ely and children, who have been visiting her parents, returned to Carbondale a few days ago. A donation will be held at the home of Dr. Sage next Thursday afternoon and evening. Chicken pie will be served.

The Universalist Sunday school is preparing an entertainment to be given on Feb. 22. The programme includes a drama, "Uncle Sam's Reunion," and other numbers, after which warm sugar will be served.

Several "Unioners" will attend the Young People's convention in Scranton next Saturday and Sunday.

Hyman; "Half Hour with the Juniors"; paper "The Place of Prayer in an Epworthian's Life," Rev. J. L.

A POOR BREAKFAST.

Very Few People Eat a Good Breakfast.
"All I want for breakfast is a roll and a cup of coffee."
This remark is heard not only in hotels, restaurants and lunch rooms but it is the usual breakfast order in the home circle as well. After a twelve hours' fast it would seem that the first meal of the day should be a hearty, substantial one, and if we all lived natural, unartificial lives, it would be so, but none of us do, hence breakfast is a mere pretence.

SAYS A LATTER DAY PHILOSOPHER: "During many years of active business life, I never remember having eaten a good substantial breakfast, but supposed it was of no importance until I began to lose appetite for lunch and dinner."

"My physician told me I was a victim of nervous dyspepsia and must take rest and recreation, as no medicine would reach the trouble, but this advice I could not follow as my business affairs would not permit it, and to get relief I resorted to medicines and prescriptions, and it was purely accidental that I hit upon one remedy which did the business. While in a drug store one evening I noticed a number of boxes of Sturdt's Tablets, Dyspepsia Tablets, a widely advertised preparation for stomach troubles, and the force of example was too much for me and I bought a fifty cent package.

"I took a tablet or two after each meal, and in a week my appetite picked up. I began to feel my old appetite for work returning and could eat a good breakfast because I wanted it, and from that time to this, I take Sturdt's Dyspepsia Tablets as regularly as I take my meals, not because I now have any trouble with my stomach, but because I don't want to. A fifty-cent box of Sturdt's Tablets will last me a month and keep my digestion in good order, and I know of no better investment a business man can make."

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Susquehanna, Feb. 12.—Ex-Alderman Hayes and the Binghanton Republican are advised that "Susquehanna gas works" is a fine electric light plant. Susquehanna hopes to have a new water supply, the sewer is being laid, which is now both meat and drink, will take on an added richness—and the doctor, the druggist and the undertaker will dance for joy and be exceedingly glad. The populace can sing, with gusto, the grand old hymn, "O' my Father, 'neath the stars," and we'll gather at the river,"—and "quaff a microbe or two."

Will Atkinson, of Willow street, in the guest of Carbondale relatives.

In the show window of a Main street business place a subject of a traveling hypnotist has commenced the job of sleeping for fifty hours. The sleeper is a stranger hereabouts, but he is supposed to be some (alleged) business man who doesn't advertise in the newspapers.

Susquehanna county will take measures to secure the new state insane asylum, which will probably be erected in this section of the state. Just before the state and national elections, nearly enough "daff" persons can be secured in this county to fill the new institution.

The hypnotist's sleeping subject ought to be at a very good market, it is supposed that he isn't hearing a word about the boiler-makers' strike; and it is not fly time.

Labor Organizer Kennedy, of Binghanton, was in town last evening.

James Fowler, for several years a Lanesboro business man, has returned to Wyoming on Saturday, of apoplexy, aged sixty-two years. He was a brother of Mrs. Homer E. Spencer, of Susquehanna, and of Isaac Fowler, of Binghanton.

On account of the increased business at the Erie and Delaware division, with Thomas Garland as conductor, this being an anniversary of Lincoln's birthday, the banks were closed. The postoffice was closed for a portion of the day.

The H. R. Bishop Episcopal Church, D. D. will hold their annual convention at Grace Episcopal church, Oakland, at 11 o'clock on Friday morning next.

T. J. Young, of Binghanton, is in Lanesboro, called there by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. J. W. Austin, of Lanesboro, who for several months has been seriously ill at the home of Jesse Harte, in Oakland, has been taken to her home.

Thirty-five of the men who were brought here on Sunday night, to work in the Erie boiler shop, returned to New York City last evening.

In the register and recorder's office at Montrose, a marriage license has been granted to Joe Marchinkiewicz and Magale Syntchinkite, of Forest City. It is to be hoped that Mrs. Marchinkiewicz (to-be) will not hypnotize her husband.

The Erie property here is now illuminated by arc lights.

Hypnotist Santanelli is holding forth in Hogan opera house for the week.

The board of trade held a meeting this evening.

Charles D. Graves, a Susquehanna boy, now a New York artist, is illustrating a book, entitled "Deeds of Valor," a collection of anecdotes of the Civil, Spanish and Indian wars, about to be published by a Detroit firm. Mr. Graves is vice-president of the Art Students' league.

Nelson Stillson, a librarian of Philadelphia, was a caller at the seminary yesterday.

The game of basket ball on Friday night resulted in a victory for Wyoming in a score of 27-8 against the team from Providence.

Among the new students are Clark Jones, of Dalton; N. J. Arthur Gardner, of Moscow, who will take a course in commercial, and Walter Smith, of Windsor, N. Y., who enters the regular course.

Miss Grace Atchison spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Carbondale.

M. Shields visited his home in Nicholson over Sunday.

UNIONDALE.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Uniondale, Feb. 12.—The teachers' institute, held in the Methodist Episcopal church Saturday afternoon and evening, was largely attended and was one of the most successful ever held in Uniondale. Mr. M. Daniels' discourse on "The Missing Link" was highly entertaining. The solo rendered by Miss Clair Tenney was appreciated by all present. For one so small, Clair handles the violin very skilfully. Miss McKee's recitation, entitled, "A Hole in the Wall," was enthusiastically received. Miss Edith Smyth's paper on primary teaching was fine.

Mr. Charles Todd conducted the Epworth League services Sunday evening.

Mr. H. J. Oree, proprietor of the Uniondale leather factory, was transacting business in Forest City last Thursday.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss: FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. THEATRICAL.

ACADEMY.—Sawelle Dramatic company. Matinee and night.

CADY.—London troupe. Matinee and night.

A Strong Company.

The Saville company is drawing large houses at every performance. The company is exceptionally strong, and the specialties are excellent. This afternoon "Escaped from the Law" will be presented and tonight, "The New South."

STAGE NEWS.

Augustus Thomas will be fittingly designated the great geographical playwright. Already we have had from his trenchant pen "In Missouri," "Alabama" and "Arizona." He has now written "Colorado," and a drama with that title, which has been bought by the Grand Opera House, New York. According to the contract the manager has to stage it in New York early next season. Mr. Thomas has been working upon this piece ever since his trip in Colorado last spring, except when he was interrupted by his campaign speeches. He said yesterday that Mr. Foxbairn had promised to engage a special act with a view to expanding the Colorado character with a proper amount of realism.—Morning Telegraph.

David Blasco, in a printed appreciation of Stephen Crane, states that he is going to stage a play from the novel on which Crane was engaged at the time of his death. It is called "The O'Ruddy" and A. E. W. Mason, the author of "The Adventurer" and "The Sign of the Cross," is to be engaged in completing the novel for publication. Not long ago Crane's "The Red Badge of Courage" was announced as having been secured for dramatization.

"The Lash of the Whip" is the title announced for a new comedy from the French that is to be acted in the Metropolitan early in March. It is by M. HOLLAND, Edith Williams, Sidney Hiers, Jessie Bieder and Katharine Florence are mentioned for the cast. As Holland and Williams are the principal members of the organization known as Charles Foxbairn's Comedians, it is expected that a new cast will be engaged by the translation of Blasco's "An Historical Comedy," in which they were to have appeared. Dickson Manufacturing Co., Toledo, O., is the authorship of "The Lash of the Whip."

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK BOND MARKET.

Reported by Spencer Trask & Company.
The past week has shown further enlargement of bond dealings, which have been advancing prices, some outside gains have been made in speculative issues, but strength has also been developed in the better grade of investment bonds. Issues of the character of St. Louis, San Francisco and Southern Railway, and Southern Pacific Collateral Trust, etc., have been the feature of the market. Business will exist for further improvement, and it is believed that the credit of bonds will probably hold better position in investment circles. Details of financing the recent equipment of the Baltimore and Ohio and Union Pacific companies are now known, and have been received with general commendation. It is quite probable that the new issues, with convertible stock features, will be fairly taken for investment use. This will naturally absorb large amounts of available investment funds, but in view of the present low rates for money, which are likely to continue for some time to come, we do not believe that attention will be diverted from the better class of Stock Exchange bond issues at their present cost. Under all conditions, further gains in the bond market will probably be recorded.

JONAS LONG'S SONS.

"WATCH FOR THE GLOVE SALE."

The Character and Quality of the Store

Why does The Big Store thrive and grow? Is it because of the convenience in buying what you want under a single roof; or is it because of the character and quality of the merchandise; or is it both? Better yet! Isn't it because the quality is always accompanied by the lowest possible prices? The markets of the world are within three hours of us. Our buyers are in constant touch with them. Nothing new appears but what it reaches here first—no matter what the price. Thus you get variety from the best to the cheapest that is worthy a place in the store—but no trash. If there are any imperfections; things you want and cannot find here, point them out to us. We welcome suggestions at any time that will tend to the betterment and development of the store.

Printed Foulards and Wash Silks.

Pick up any fashion magazine that comes your way and observe the universal use of Foulards for costumes—everything tends to the use of this beautiful dress material. Two new and exquisite lots on view here. 50c and $1.25 the yard. Many styles between, of course, at most every price you care to pay. Another thing: Most every style is an exclusive one—duplicates are sparsely scattered, at the most. Wash silks, too. Particular attention to this lot:— 50 pieces of all pure silk Japanese Habutai Silks in a great variety of designs and colorings—1 1/2 the yard; cheap at 50c.

No let-up as yet to the sale of Black Silks. Skin around and compare prices before you choose the dress, waist or skirt.

Our $3.00 Shoe for Ladies.

The man who makes these three dollar shoes, if we asked him to, would brand some fancy name into the soles of them, and we'd perhaps create a flurry in their sale. We'd rather you'd take them for what they are. A shoe made for Jonas Long's Sons by the best maker of women's shoes in America. A shoe that we can say to you frankly: If they don't give splendid wearing service, are not comfortable and durable, are not better wearing than any Three Dollar shoe you ever saw, bring them back to us and get your money, or another pair.

That's the maker's promise to us, and we make it to you. We'll hold him to it in every instance, if you will tell us the faults of the shoes. Here is what they are: Made of R. H. Fawceter's finest Vic Kid (the standard of the world) strictly McKay sewed, most perfect and better than hand-sewed. From the heaviest soles (mannish shoes) to the lightest hand-turneds. Patent leather of kid tips. Widths from A to E and sizes from 1-2 to 7.

Without any exaggeration we add: As good or better than any other shoe sold at Four Dollars in Scranton.
