HEATING OF THE COURT HOUSE. A. B. Stevens Sends a Letter to th Commissioners.

sent to the county commissioners by A. B. Stevens, with reference to the heating of the court house: Scranton, Pa., Feb. 1s, 1901.
To the Commissioners of Luckawanna County,

The following is a copy of a letter

Scratton, Pa. Gentlemen: Referring to the question as to why the court house is not astisfactorily heated, let me say that it is owing entirely to a defective system, and not to the lack of steam.

With all due deference to T. I. Lacey & Son, I must say that their statement is not true when they state that the heating has never been satisfactory since the city steam was used. I was manager of the heat company when the first contract was made for heating the court house, and during the winters of 1894 and 1895 it gaveen tire satisfaction. Since the change has been made in the court house, adding 30 per cent, to the space to be heated, and the connection of a fan, and the change in the system by the architests, it is not surprising that satisfactory results are not obtained from the lateral pipe that was only intended to supply steam to the building as we found it when the contract was first made. If the High school, the City building, the post office and the Commonwealth building, all on the same main as the court house, are satisfactorily beated, it is evident that the fault is with the court house system, and not for lack of steam.

Very truly yours, A. B. Stevens.

NO RISKS IN SCRANTON.

Order Issued by the President of a Large Fire Insurance Company. The Reasons He Gives.

One of this city's most widelyknown insurance agents received a letter yesterday from the president of one of the largest Philadelphia nice insurance companies, of which he is the local agent, directing him to take no fire risks whatever in this city until further notice.

In this letter the president explains that the company has decided that the recent destructive fire was not checked because of the inefficiency of the fire department, and points out that the company cannot insure "practically unprotected property." In conclusion, the letter says:

"You will therefore on receipt of this letter discontinue accepting risks: decline to renew policies that may be in force and refuse to make endorsements on those that may be in force. We trust your citizens will in the near future see the importance of putting the fire department on an effective basis and when this is done, we will be able to renew our former relations with your office."

Select Councilman Chittenden, the father of the reorganization ordinance which was defeated at last Thursday night's meeting of common council, was shown the letter and stated that unless common council reconsidered its action and passed the ordinance putting the department on a paid ba-Throat sis at once, the citizens of this city might wake up some morning and find themselves up against a pretty tough proposition, namely, the entire withdrawal of a large number of the insurance companies or a great big increase in rates.

Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, of the local board of underwriters, when shown he letter, said that while to his knowledge, no other insurance company had sent out such a radical order regarding this city, that nevertheless they might be expected to do so in the near future if councils did not take prompt action looking toward a reorganization of the fire depart-

NEW Y. M. C. A. MOVEMENT IN-AUGURATED LAST NIGHT.

A Committee of Fifty Who Will Seek to Secure Five Hundred New Members Before May 1, Enjoyed a Banquet Last Night in the Temporary Headquarters of the Association-Addresses Were Made by H. C. Shafer, L. F. Bower, J. G. Shepherd and Secretary Geo. Mahy.

A movement to secure 500 new mem bers for the local Young Men's Christian association before May 1, on which date the corner stone of magnificent new building will be laid, was inaugurated last night in the emporary quarters of the association in the Guernsey building, on North Washington avenue, with a banquet erved to the members of a committee which is to have the work in charge.

This committee consists of fifty of the active members of the association, who have been selected by an executive committee consisting of A. . Warman, C. W. Fulton, J. G. Shepherd, W. T. Hackett and L. F. Bower. It is subdivided into committees of ten and each single individual member is expected to secure at least ten new nembers before May 1.

Last night's banquet was largely ittended, nearly every member of the committee being present. The guests were sented at three long tables and were served with a bounteous repast by Caterer William Hanley, jr., commencing at 8 o'clock. At the conclusion of the banquet proper, a number of bref addresses touching upon Young Men's Christian associaton work were

PRESIDENT SHAFER.

President H. C. Shafer was the first peaker and explained at some length he purpose of the movement. The list of new members, he said, would be put in the corner stone of the new building, to be read centuries from now by some other generation.

An an inducement to join now, President Shafer said that members would receive tickets goods until August, 1902. so that practically seven months use of privileges were to be had in the new building for the old rate of $5. while after Jan. 1, 1902, the sum of $10 would be charged.

Mr. Shafer closed with a stirring appeal for united and carnest action to push the corner stone membership canvass until the five hunded members were secured, and introduced Mr. L. F. Bower, the treasurer of the association, whose address on "Why Young Men Should Serve the Y. M. C. A." was well received.

Bower said that many men wreck their lives because they work only for self. The work of the Young Men's Christian association offered one of the best fields for practical unselfish work in the speaker's knowledge. The more time and thought and money men give to others the broader and better themselves become.

AN ATTRACTIVE FIELD.

"After all, the truest egoism is found in the purest altruism," said he. We who concentrate our minds upon our own success fails of success. The Young Men's Christian association is an attractive field for the work young men, because of its catholicity, It represents all denominations and welcomes men of no denomination, and yet its center is Christ, and from him radiates its force and helpfulness. Its membership is composed of diverse and heterogeneous elements and yet its common purpose to bless young men in body and soul welds that heterogeneous mass into a mighty force for righteousness." J. G. Shepherd answered the quesion, "What Am I Here For?" by replying inspiration, enthusiasm, marching orders. He told of his great surprise at the wonderful spread of the Young Men's Christian association in tifty years. "We must push our standard higher," said he. "Instead of five hundred members we should reach out for 1,000. I am not going to rest content with ten members; I am going to work for twenty." General Secretary Mahy explained briefly the methods to be used in the canvass, and the various chairmen then met with their sub-committees in group conferences. The general impression seemed to prevail as the meeting broke up that the five hundred new members would soon be a

A GOOD DEAL OF NONSENSE.

" Blood Purifiers " "Tonics."

Every drop of blood, every bone, serve and tissue in the body can be renewed in but one way, and that is, from wholesome food preperly digest-ed. There is no other way and the idea that a medicine in itself can purify the blood or supply new tissues and strong nerves is ridiculous and on a par with the rol-de-rol that dyspepsia or indigestion is a germ disease, or that other fallacy, that a weak stomach which refuses to digest food can be made to do so, by irritating and nflaming the bowels by pills and catharties.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure inligestion, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive principles which weak stomachs lack, and unless the deficiency of pepsin and diastase is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure stomach trouble by the use of "tonics," "pills" and "catharties," which have absolutely no digestive power, and their only effect is to give temporary stimulation. One grain of the active principle in

3,000 grains of meat, eggs and similar foods, and experiments have shown that they will do this in a glass bottle at proper temperature, but of course are much more effective in the stom-There is probably no remedy so uniersally used as Stuart's Tablets because it is not only the sick and ail-very meal to insure perfect digestion and assimilation of the food. People who enjoy fair health take Stuart's Tablets as regularly as they take their meals, because they want to keep well, prevention is always better than cure and Stuart's Dyspepsis Tablets do both: they prevent indigestion and they remove it where it exists. The regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit and efficiency better than any, other argument.

SHE CAUSED TROUBLE.

MRS. REAP WOULD NOT GO BE-FORE ALDERMAN.

Eventually She Did but Not Until She Had Given Agent Wilson Much Annoyance.

Agents for the Municipal League experionced no end of difficulty yester-day in serving warrants upon violators of the liquor laws. The officers were determined, however, not to show any eniency towards the widows who run 'speakeasies" and were not daunted by such little tricks as are shown in he following: "I see your greasy face," cried Mrs. Winifred Reap, of 717 Madison avenue, Dunmore, when she saw Agent Robert Wilson and his men coming to arrest her. She locked and barred the Backus team, made a desperate effort doors and windows, and rushed to to overtake the Elk, when the Backus her room, partly undressed herself and Elk teams met, and rolled 224 on and snuggled up under the bed coverings.

The officers burst in the door and moral suasion would induce her to accompany them. Wilson looked at theoman, saw that she was determined in her course, and consulted with his ence was the summoning of a nearby physician, who, despite her protests, dell's 201, also rolled against the Lu-examined her and decided that all zernites. The individual averages up claims to being sick were fradulent, Accordingly a cab was pressed into service, and, after some time was spent in gettting the woman into nitable clothing for the street, Mrs. Winifred Reap found herself whirling towards the city at a lively gait.

Before reaching Alderman Millar's office more obstacles were encountered. for Mrs. Reap flatly and positively refused to relinquish her seat in the cehicle. "We'll see," said Wilson pointedly, as he gave the signal to his assistants, and the speakeasy proprietress was eiged bodily and carried up two flights of stairs to the alderman's

Angered at being foiled at every turn, Mrs. Reap started in to abuse the witnesses, the officers and even the alderman, and for the time her tongue fairly made the building quake.

While the turmoll was at its height, Alderman Millar managed to weigh the evidence, and decided that Mrs. Reap had caused enough trouble to justify placing her bail at $1,000, tu default of which she was committed to the county jail.

Mrs. Mary May, of 629 Wilbur street, was also arraigned before Alderman Millar on the charge of keeping a tippling house. Robert Wilson is the prosecutor. She was committed to the county jail in default of a $100 fine and costs. Mrs. May has a family of five children, who were given in charge of Mrs. Duggan, agent for the board of charities.

SHE DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

In Fit of Insanity Mrs. Fred Gardner Swallowed Fiery Fluid.

Coroner J. J. Roberts yesterday performed an autopsy on the remains of Mrs. Fred Gardner, of 643 Willow street, who was found dead Monday death by taking a strong dose of car- Phillip bolic acid, as the condition of her stomach gave ample proof of this. It is supposed that Mrs. Gardner drank the acid while in a fit of insan-tty, as of late she has been acting in a very peculiar manner, and for some weeks her strange actions have aroused comment. She is survived by husband and seven children. The funeral will be held from the family residence tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made in the Dunmore cemetery.

ELLMAN MUST STAY IN JAIL. Judge Smith Allows the Appeal but Refuses the Supersedeas.

Judge P. P. Smith, of the Superior terday allowed the appeal of CHITT. the detendant in the case of the comnonwealth against Jacob Ellman, but declined to allow the appeal to act as supersedeas. It was directed that the appeal be heard at the March session, to be held in Harrisburg. The reason for Beavers refusing the petition that the appeal be allowed to have the effect of a supersedeas, the judge would not state. saying he preferred to reserve the discussion of this matter for the court when the case is presented. This means that Ellman will have to remain in fail pending the hearing
