Two Appendicitis Cases.

An operation for appendicitis was performed on Miss Katie Finnigan, of this city, yesterday at the Emergency hospital by Dr. Gillis, which was eminently successful. The patient will, it is expected, rapidly recover, as she rallied strongly during the day.

Another operation was performed for the same disease at the Emergency hospital yesterday, but the outlook for this patient is not considered as hopeful. The patient is Andrew Demkewiskey, and he was brought from Mayfield for treatment. The inflammation had reached an acute stage and his condition is very critical.

An Alarming Rumor.

A rumor gained considerable circuit tion yesterday afternoon to the affect that a "fall" had occurred in the Laure! Hill mine, of the Powderly colliery and John Surdoval and Bartley Burke had been either crushed beneath the rock or entombed back of it. A large crowd soon gathered at the mouth of the mine, back of No. 1 pock-An investigation was at once made, but, fortunately, the rumor tery. proved to be without foundation.

At Dr. Wheeler's Hospital.

Orange W. Gardner, of Eighth ave nue, a clerk in Reese Bros.' dry goods store, was operated upon yesterday morning in Dr. Wheeler's hospital for appendicitis. Last evening it was said there that the indications were favorable, as far as could be determined so soon after an operation, for his speedy recovery. The patient was in good shape and resting comfortably.

AT THE COUNTY JAIL A Much-Wanted Man Is at Last Apprehended.

A warrant was sworn out on Christmas Day for the apprehension of Jullus Sanford, aged 22, charged with taking a pocketbook containing a sum of money from Mrs. Lillian Rowley, of 74 Belmont street. The warrant was given to Contable Gilby to serve, but Sanford had skipped out and no trace of him could be found untii Monday, when he reappeared and the constable arrested him. He haled him before Alderman Delevan, where the prisoner admitted his guilt and the alderman held him in $500 bail for trial. Constable Gilby took him to the county jail the following day.

Sanford went to Mrs. Rowley's house ostensibly to take up his residence as boarder. Mrs. Rowley is a widow. As soon as her back was turned, he snatched the purse and went to parts unknown. Several other charges have been pending against him, one for stealing a bicycle. He was an inmate of the county jail in Scranton last When Constable Gilby arrested Sanford on Monday night, Sanford was walking with a young lady She affectionately kissed him goodnight, whereupon Gilby told her that the prisoner was a bad man and warned her not to trust him.

Lenten Services.

Yesterday was Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, and appropriate services were held in St. Rose church. At the morning mass the most interesting services of the day were held, and those of the faithful who were able to get to that service received the blessing and were marked on the brow with the cross of ashes. In the evening at 7.30 o'clock another interesting service was held. Rev. John Byrne, of Watertown, preached the sermon. It was a strong, forceful one, and was listened o attentively by the congregation. He exhorted his hearers to bear constantly in mind the example of their Master during the forty days of his fasting, early on Monday morning, was held and the speaker urged them also to be yesterday afternoon at the residence of as faithful as possible in their religious Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. The Archbald Water company are having their own troubles these days. During- the drouth last summer this ompany were able to supply their own customers and several other water companies along their right of way, but at the present time, there is an absence of the fluid that bids fair to be a famine, unless Old Sol will meit the snow and fill up the dams with water. The Laurel Run dam of the above company is comparatively dry, the water at Scull Pond has lowered so that the ice has formed about the strainer pipe so that water cannot be drawn from that source. The White Oak dam is now being made use of to such an extent that unless a thaw or rain comes the supply will become limited. Where there used to be a pressure of a hundred pounds to the square inch, it is now less than forty, which is practically useless for fire fighting purposes and breakers along the line are obliged Don't neglect a cough—take and breakers along the distribution account of insufficient
