COMMON COUNCIL MEETS.

A Large Attendance and Short Session-Appropriation for Semicentennial Comes Up.

Common council met in regular session last night. There were present: Chairman Kennedy, Nealon, Loftus, Thompson, Wedeman, Murphy, Evans, Smith, Swingle and Masters.

The street committee reported favorably on the resolution permitting Thos. Theophilus to connect with the Spring street sewer and the action of select council was concurred in.

The city solicitor's opinion concernin gthe city's right to allow the Klots silk mill people to attach a fire alarm box on the city system was read. He stated there was no obstacle, as he saw, to granting the request, and on other hand he thought it would be advisable to do so. Mr. Smith up held the company's side. Messrs. Lof-tus, Nealon. Evans and Murphy thought there should be some definite agreement as to who should bear the xpense of repairs on the system, etc. The matter was referred to the fire, light and water committee.

The streets, bridges and sewer committee, to whom the communication of J. F. Reynolds, esq., concerning the unpaid balance of the sewer contract due Glies & Loveland, reported in favor of paying the balance. There is but a half hour's work or so necessary to complete the work. Council received the report and ordered the bill to be

The following communication was received from the semi-centennial celebration committee:

To the Honorable, the Select and Common Councils of the City of Carbondale:

Gentlemen: At the meeting of citizens held ast night it was unanimously decided to comemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the charter ing of the city of Carbondale. The matter was placed in the hands of a general committee, who have been differntly at work, the insternal socieics co-operating with the members thereof. Your committee has therefore decided that we celebrare the event in a suitable and impres-sive manner on the dates of Sept. 1 to 4 metusive. At the last meeting of the general committee the financial committee was instructed to appear before your honorable bodies and present this rouest to you. We, therefore, the financial committee, in be-saif of the general committee and the citizens of Carbondale, ask that you by proper logislation taske a sufficient appropriation to celebrate the event in a creditable and honorable manner.

Without discussion, Chairman Kennedy referred the communication to the committee on estimates and council then adjourned. The meeting was one of the most largely attended and briefest which has been held in some

Two Youngsters of Forest City Fool with Powder.

William Owens, aged 16, and Louis Halford, aged 15, both living in Forest City and employed in a mine at Vandling as driver boys, celebrated their day off on Sunday by going to the Clifford mine in Forest City to get some powder, which they intended to use for some purpose of their own. While they were conveying the powder from the mine it exploded and both of the lads were severely burned. The Owens boy is the most seriously wounded. His face, hands and abdomen were blackened by the grains and he is now in a very critical condition. Young Halford suffered burns to his hands, neck and face. The two were taken to the Emergency hospital in this city, and last evening both were reported as somewhat improved. The eyes of each boy are shut tight, the eyelids having swollen so, and it is as yet uncertain whether their sight has been affected spond with Mr. Carnegie? We would know then how large a place had to be Carbondale Leader. Inasmuch as Mr. Carnegie donated $20,000 to Port Jervis only last week, a city not as large as Carbondale, and short time ago gave $10,000 to Sag Harbor, N. Y., a town whose normal population is about 4,000 persons, for new public libraries, it would seem that the Empire city is certainly in a class large enough to ask for a gift from the library philanthropist. Mayor Kilpatrick might write Mr. Carnegie if he was assured that this city would live up to the conditions that are exacted from all citles where he has endowed libraries-to expend an annual sum equal to ten per cent, of the endowment in the care and building up of the library. Carbondale probably needs a public library, or the rehabilitation of its present one, as much as any community in the state.

A New Disinfector.

The board of health of this city has just invested in a Lentz formaldehyde gas disinfector to use in houses where contagious diseases have existed. The new disinfector will take the place of the old sulphur fumigation, which has always met with serious objection because of its unpleasant features and also because it did not do the work it was meant to do. The new contrivance is a very simple piece of mechantem and warranted to kill all bacteria in an infected room or house, and is easily manipulated. It has not yet been used by the health omcers.
