PITTSBON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, Feb. 26.—The commissioners of Marcy township are anxiously awaiting a decision by the Sunbury courts on a petition filed there by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company in relation to the building of township roads. Under the law of 1893 corporations were allowed to work out their taxes on the streets. The law of 1899, establishing the office of township commissioner, gives these officers that right. The Pennsylvania Coal company has served notice on the township commissioner that it will continue to work out its taxes as previously. The commissioners object, but before bringing the case to law await the decision of the Sunbury court.
