TWELVE PAGES.

SCRANTON, MARCH 2, 1901.

There is no question that the new lamps of the electric light company are the finest in existence.

The Ripper in Operation.

IF THE spirit shown by the initiatory administration of the new charter in Pittsburgh shall be the spirit indicated in the editorial comment upon the measure of the Commercial-Gazette...

Unfair Criticism.

CHARGES of "perfidy" and "hypocrisy" are now being directed in some quarters against the administration for its refusal to give to Cuba unconditional freedom forthwith.

Specious Motto.

A SPECIAL dispatch from New York, appearing in the Atlanta Journal of Feb. 21, confirms the information which has been current here that some of the silk manufacturing interests at present located in Scranton or in its vicinity are considering the removal of their plants to the South.

An Unsafe Motto.

THE SANGUINETE silk manufacturing company operate large mills in Philadelphia, Scranton and Paterson, Pa. Their New York stores and offices are those of the large silk importing firm of William Ryb & Co., at 34 Howard street.

Democracy's "Eternal Principles."

secure more favorable labor conditions elsewhere than they now have here, they will move. A removal would be expensive. But strikes, also, are expensive.

There has been an easy-going disposition on the part of public sentiment heretofore since the miners' strike to assent readily to every proposition presented in the name of organized labor, irrespective of its merits or general effect upon the community.

Mr. Conger's withdrawal does not seem to be understood in foreign lands. The average diplomat across the water cannot realize that it is possible for one to leave the service of a government unless kicked out.

Weekly Letter on Municipal Affairs.

THE RAPID GROWTH of municipal trading, or municipal ownership, as it is called on this side of the Atlantic, in Great Britain during the year 1900, made it necessary to inaugurate the most searching parliamentary inquiry into the question of municipalization.

Steady Growth In American Exports

Washington, March 1. THE STEADY growth in the exportation of manufactures and the extent of this prosperity to all branches of manufacturing industry is illustrated by a table just compiled by the treasury bureau of statistics, which shows the exports, article by article, of all the leading manufactures which have been sent abroad in the calendar year 1900, comparing the figures of that year with two preceding years. In a list of forty articles, thirty-two show an increase in 1900, as compared with 1899, and in twenty-eight cases where a decrease is shown the conditions are exceptional. In manufactures of cotton, for instance, there is a drop in exports of about $1,000,000, but this is due to the general subordination of the cotton trade to the wool trade in China, which is now our largest purchaser of cotton goods.

Nubs of Knowledge.

London news, at the present time, completed dwellings, containing over 1,500 tenements, erected solely for the benefit of the working classes. One housing scheme, the largest ever attempted in London or elsewhere, involved the expenditure of £2,925,395.

English History in Rhyme.

Here is a bit of history in rhyme, written shortly after the accession of Queen Victoria, that will need to be revised: "First William the Norman, then William his son; Henry, Stephen and Henry, then Richard and John.
