INCREASE GRANTED CENTRAL FIREMEN AND ENGINEERS.

Crews on the Big No. 426 Class Engines Receive Material Increase, Effective March 1 .- Grand Master Sargeant of Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen Will Be in the City on Wednesday-E. E. Nowell Appointed Yard Master to Succeed S. S. Finnerty-Came Here from Hoboken-Board for Today.

The engineers and firencen of the No. 426 class, the big engines used by the Central Railroad of New Jersey in their transferring of coal, have received a material increase in their wages. A bulletin issued by tleneral Superintendent J. H. Olhausen, from forsey City, antonneed the talse, and stated that it went into effect March

The engineers of this particular class of engines will henceforth receive four cents per mile, with the company making a guarantee of lenmiles an hour in cases of unformeen stops, etc. This increase is good on all of these engines, except in pusher or drill service

The firemen on No. 126 orgines, when only one man does the firing, will receive two and seven-tenths cents per mile, with a ten-mile guarantee, Their pay also, is subject to the pusher and dell reservations. The rates given above will be applied on the mileage shown on working time-tables, be tween the terminals, and the actual time made will be allowed. The company agrees that the total pay for the month shall in no case be less than what has been heretofore received, by the rates in effect.

The increase is about one cent a mile, and affects over lifty men, employed on this class of engines.

New Yard Master.

s. s. Finnerty, for the last seven or eight months general yard master on the Scranton division of the Delaware, Luckawanna and Western railroad, has been transferred to another branch of the company's service, and a bulletin order posted on the Lackawenna board yesterday announced the appointment of L. E. Nowell to all

The latter is made general yard master, in charge of the Scranton terminals, including the Cayuga, Taylor, Keyser Valley and Winton districts. Yard Master Nowell entered upon his duties yestershiy.

He comes from Hobeken, where he filled the position of assistant general yard master. The place to which he s promoted is a most responsible one but his work at Hoboken convinced the powers that be of his ability to successfully take care of it.

Air Brake Instructions.

Sickness in the family of the Centrut Railroad of New Jersey's air brake instructor, caused a lay-off of the instruction car for a week, but sine February 25 lessons have been again given at Mauch Chunk. When the ay-off was buildined Peb. 18, the time limit regarding the bunding in air brake certificates by Central trainmen was extended to June 21. May I being the original date set.

The car will remain at Mauch chunk until March 10, and then will be stationed at Ashley until April 1. after which it will be transferred to Phillipsburg until the 15th and then to Jersey City.

Mining Legislation.

President T. D. Nicholls, of Anthrache District No. 1, yesterday stated to Tribune man that the sympathy of the miners of the other districts is entirely enlisted with the mining legislation that the offices of this district are endeavoring to secure the passage or at Harrisburg.

Their formal approval was signified et conventions of Districts 2, 4, 5, 7 and 9, and at subsequent meetings i was decided by the officers and members to write the members from their legislative districts to do their ntmosto send through the various bills now under consideration

There is just one month left, and b that time there are just two regular neetings of each branch of councils. There will be, however, no necessity of alling any special meetings to condder these ordinances, as it will be secessary to have several meetings a week in order to pass the ordinances providing for the reorganization of seranton as a city of the second class. If the gas franchise ordinance passes select council without the adoption of an amendment providing for a maximum cost of seventy-five or eighty cents, and this is very improbable, a vigorous fight will be made for the adoption of such an amendment in the common council. Never before was there such a large umber of applications for new houses and houses which were licensed for years but have not been for the last me, two or three. The prosecutions of the Municipal league have had an effeet all over the county, but more especially in this city.

How great a change has been brought thout may be gleaned from the fact that the Twelfth ward, which has not had a Heensed drinking place within its confines for years and years, has actually two applications on file. They are from Martin Nealon, who wants to onduct a hotel at 301 Prospect aveme, and W. B. Lafferty and P. J. Mawn, who propose to entertain the Brink in appeal to the Superior cours was public at 209 Prospect avenue. Attorney E. W. Thayer, who appeared for Raine, said he was not guilty of selling liquor illegally and that the people of his vicinity are almost ununimous n their desire to see him got a license. There was also strong objection to be granting of a license to Oscar S. Handrick, at Clark's Summit, for the alleged reasons that a hotel is unnecessary there and that it is close to a coninious were handed down vester day in the matter of the two appeals of Morris Wormser, from summary conviction before the mayor of having violated a city ordinance regulating the tax that transient merchants are required to pay in this city. The appeals were heard at Argument ourt the week before last, when the ordinance under which the conviction was had was attacked on the ground that it was unconstitutional.

The ordinance of the city of Scrution regulating the licensing of translent retail merchants was passed Oct. 21, 1809. We have to difficulty minatever in finding as a matter of fact that the defendant at the time of his arrest was a "tran-slent retail merchant." The evidence is clear on this point. The main contention of the deim, because he "entered into" or "hegan" or desired to begin" his business on Sept. 29, 1890, arly a month before the ordinative was an ter the date of the ordinance. The allegations at he had "began" business before the passage the ordinance and that the continuance of the sines is not within the terms of the ordinance is the buildest kind of a technicality and will not stand the test of muson for a moment. The prelimative their provides that the license is o he renewed monthly during the continuance of the sale. After Oct. 23, 1889, the defendant in business as a transient retail merchant the city of Secunton and had no license. His arrest and conviction on Nov. 10 was coper and valid. After hearing the evidence find the defendant guilty of violating the exceedings of the ordinance of the city of Scram-on or Oct. 25, 1890, providing for the blocasing transient result morehants, and we sentence in to pur a time of $100, and in default of the as ment of said fine under imprisonment in the comity jail for the period of thirty days. This Verdict Rendered by Coroner's Jury. Coroner J. J. Roberts last evening conducted an inquest in the case of learge McNerney, who was found dead Friday afternoon in his room in a boarding house at 220 Mulberry street with the gas turned on. The jury consisting of Thomas A. Potter, Richard Davis, Luther Lewis, Richard J. Edwords, J. E. Taylor and John J. Owers brought in a verdict of accidental death by asphyxiation. Thomas Kennedy, a bounder, was the first witness heard. Kennedy's room is on the third floor of the building and next to the one occupied by McNerney. He first detected the odor of gas at about I o'clock Friday afternoon. He returned home shortly after 3 and again the odor was strong. He investigated and located its origin in McNerney's room. With the assistance of another boarder, Harry Connelly, he forced in the door and found the body lying on the bed. Harry

Connolly corroborated Kennedy. Mrs. Elizabeth Hessling, proprietress of the boarding house at 220 Mulberry street, testified that McNerney had been with her three weeks and three days up to the day of his death. She called him at 6 o'clock in the morning and received a reply, but he did not ome down-stairs. The stooper for urning on and off the gas in this coom, she said, was loose, and she heeves that McNerney might have acidentally struck the gas jet and
