

INTEREST IN MISSION WORK

CONFERENCE FOR PURPOSE OF STIMULATING IT.

Opened Last Night in the Second Presbyterian Church—Able Address Delivered by Rev. Eugene P. Dunlap, D. D., of Siam, Asia, Who Has Labored There as a Missionary—What Has Been Done Toward Civilizing and Christianizing the People of That Country.

The missionary conference of the Presbyterian churches of the middle district of the Presbytery of Lackawanna was opened at the Second Presbyterian church last evening with an interesting address by Rev. Eugene P. Dunlap, D. D., of Siam, Asia.

The middle district of the Presbytery of Lackawanna comprises all the ministers of that denomination embraced in the territory between Montrose and Carbondale, and the conference will continue today and tonight. There is but one object in holding the conference at this time, and that is to promote and stimulate the interest in missionary work in this district. The women are also invited to attend the sessions, with the exception of the parlor conference this evening, but the paramount idea is to reach the male sex. A strong list of speakers, including some of the officers of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, has been secured, and Dr. Robinson is sanguine that the desired result will be attained.

THREE ADDRESSES MADE.

Simultaneously with the services at the Second Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. J. F. Patterson, of Orange, N. J.; Charles Hand, treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, and Dr. A. W. Halsey, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, were delivering a powerful address on missionary work at the Providence, Green Ridge and Washburn Street Presbyterian churches, respectively.

Rev. Dr. McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church, began the session at the Second church last evening by invoking divine aid on missionaries and all missionary work. He then introduced his discourse Dr. Robinson announced that the lecture would be illustrated with stereoscopic views of Siam, but two things prevented that, the difficulty in getting a lantern properly installed and Dr. Dunlap's failure to bring his stereoscopic slides.

Rev. Dr. Dunlap is a pleasing appearing man, with a clear voice and talks with the ease and grace of a practiced speaker. He prefaced his talks with a definition of civilization.

"Civilization," he said, "is an improved condition of man, and means the advancement, refinement, art and progress in general; it is the lifting up of man morally and physically. To civilize is to give law and culture, is to humanize and elevate; and we shall bring that missionaries have great influence in civilizing, humanizing and elevating man."

To civilize is to work gradually, the doctor declared, and cannot be accomplished by artificial means. It is the work of the missionary to publish the truth.

INNOVATIONS IN SIAM.

Siam, he said, owes everything to the civilization brought by the missionaries. Among the numerous objects which the American mission work are responsible for, the following were enumerated: The printing press, with types of the Siamese characters, the first newspaper and calendar, the evils of gambling, opium, intoxication, the three national vices, were exposed; geography, chemistry, medicine and surgical science, hospitals, sewing machines, and all manner of machinery, are credited to these busy workers.

Slavery is another of the crimes which they have fought so hard to blot out. In 1840 a cruel, despotic usurper succeeded to the throne, but recently one of the men educated by the missionaries was set up for king and he has made good use of his advantages, as attested by his illustrious reign. "If you shall meet an American missionary be his friend, co-operate with him and seek his advice," are the directions issued to people. Everywhere the Siamese entertain the highest regard for the American missionaries and they are given freedom and access to all parts of the empire.

In discussing the allegations made that the missionaries are visionary, tactless and thoughtless, and are the cause of all the recent trouble in the East, Dr. Dunlap said that nothing so painful to the hearts of the returning missionaries as to hear these reports. To refute this argument, he pointed to the excellent regard with which the people of Siam consider the Americans. Previous to his departure, Dr. Dunlap told of his endeavors to raise money for school buildings in Bangkok. Inside of three weeks they had raised $10,000 among the noblemen of the country, and had met no refusals. The programme for today is:

JUDGE ARCHIBALD RETURNS.

Federal Court Appointments Will Not Be Made at Once.

Judge R. W. Archibald returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where he was summoned on Monday. When seen by a Tribune man yesterday afternoon he said he was hopeful of being named as the judge of the new Middle Federal district. He gave it as his opinion that the appointment would be made for several weeks. He confirmed the statement made in the Tribune yesterday to the effect that the court bill provides the necessary appropriation.

There promises to be a very earnest contest for the appointment in this county in the event of Judge Archibald going on the Federal bench. The name of Hon. H. A. Knapp is frequently mentioned, but it is said he is not especially desirous to go on the bench. Men who will be avowed candidates for the appointment are City Solicitor A. A. Vosburg, George M. Watson and J. W. Carpenter.

TO "HAVE A TEST CASE."

Saloon Men Want to Know What a License Will Cost.

An assessment of $5 each has been levied on the saloon men of the city, to raise a fund to test the matter of the amount that shall be paid for liquor licenses in this city during the coming license year. The saloon men will tender to County Treasurer Scranton the sum of $500, the price of a liquor license in cities of the third class, and he will refuse to accept it and demand $1,000, the price of a license in a city of the second class.

The saloon men have engaged Attorneys Everett Warren and Joseph O'Brien, who will present the matter to Attorney General Eklund and get a ruling from him on the question of the price of the license in Scranton the coming year. This is done for the reason that the state has a financial interest in the granting of licenses.

WILL FURNISH A BOND.

New Gas Company to Submit New Proposition Tonight.

The gentlemen comprising the newly-organized "Consumers' Gas company, now seeking a franchise from the city, will at it is understood, submit a new proposition at tonight's meeting of the select council.

They will guarantee to put up a bond in the sum of $25,000 to prove their sincerity; this bond to revert to the city in case they sell out or to amalgamate with the present gas company after the franchise is secured. This proposition will be submitted to counteract the influence of Mr. Chittenden's amendment, presented last Thursday night, but postponed for a week, making it mandatory upon the company to furnish gas at a figure not greater than seventy-five cents per thousand.

The gentlemen interested in the new company do not like Mr. Chittenden's amendment. They maintain that to sell gas at seventy-five cents would be cutting it down to too low a figure. The argument will be advanced that inasmuch as Mr. Chittenden's main contention was that if such a price were not fixed the company would sell out, their proposition to forfeit $25,000 will be preventative of this, or if it is not, the city will be in just $25,000.

The ordinance is now on second reading, and those behind it say there will be enough votes on hand tonight to defeat the Chittenden amendment and secure its passage on second and third readings.

MASQUERADE AT MUSIC HALL.

South Scranton Ladies' Society Holds High Carnival.

The South Scranton Hebrew Ladies' Aid society last night gave its fourth annual masquerade and civic ball, and the affair proved a glorious success. It took place at Music hall and many were the fantastic, comic and elaborate costumes seen on the floor.

Lawrence's orchestra was in attendance, and it was to the strains of the music accompanied by these musicians, the assistant floor manager, Jennie Roth, and the floor committee, Mrs. Regie Grauman, Mrs. Rosie Lebovitz, Mrs. Emma Engel, reception committee, Mrs. Regie Weisberger, Mrs. Regie Teichman, Mrs. Mollie Altman; committee of arrangements, Mrs. Sophie Harris, chairman, Mrs. Rosie Schwartz, Mrs. Hannah Schmulovitz, Mrs. Rose Freedman.

James Foy Dies at Hospital from Injuries Received.

James Foy, about 30 years of age, was struck by a passenger train on the Lackawanna road near Chinchilla yesterday afternoon and fatally injured. Foy's head was smashed to a jelly and his body horribly mangled. Foy was a farm hand and was walking along the tracks. Just how he came to get in front of the engine is not known, but it is thought that he was confused by the sound of another train and stepped upon the wrong tracks.

He was still alive when picked up and was conveyed to this city on a Lackawanna train. A Lackawanna hospital ambulance met the train on its arrival here and took him to that institution, where he died ten minutes after being received.

made by the fire underwriters, which the latter say must be complied with by the city before the increase in insurance rates of twenty-five cents on every $100 will be taken off.

"I think," said he, "that every fair-minded citizen must admit that what the insurance people ask is fair and reasonable. We need all these things, I have done a little rough figuring today, and I estimate that this increase will mean about $80,000 extra expense to the people of this city every year. If in any possible way that sum could be used to properly equip our fire department, it would be very nice. The people will pay that amount to the insurance companies, but if they were asked to pay it to the city for just one year there would be a deal of protesting."

A DOMINO MASQUE.

Enjoyable Affair at Excelsior Social Club Last Night.

A very enjoyable domino masque was held last night the Excelsior Social club, the large number of couples attending presenting a unique appearance in their fantastic costumes and many humorous situations arising from cases of mistaken identity.

About thirty couples were on the floor, a large percentage of whom were out-of-city guests.

Fate's full orchestra was in attendance and, stationed at the north end of the ball room, played the music to which black domino danced with white, and pink with yellow. At 10:30 o'clock the unmasking took place and about midnight a tasty luncheon was served by the club caterer. The club's amusement committee was in charge of the affair and in the way of decorations and other minor details left nothing undone to make the night a success.

The members of the committee were Colonel Arthur Long, Herman E. Ries and Isadore Krotosky.

MUNICIPAL MILK INSPECTION.

Interesting Paper Read by Dr. Helmer at Philadelphia.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Philadelphia, March 6.—"The Problem of Municipal Milk Inspection," was the title of a paper read by Dr. Jacob Helmer, of Scranton, at today's session of the annual meeting of the State Veterinarian association. Dr. Helmer asserted that the laws governing the inspection of milk are inadequate and offered numerous suggestions as to the manner in which this system might be improved. He said, in part:

"State legislation relating to the sale of milk in cities, towns, boroughs and villages of Pennsylvania, practically gives no authority to boards of health and councils for anything more than the appointment of an inspector to manipulate and analyze samples of milk. With few exceptions, nothing more than this is done throughout the state. The milk laws are good as far as they reach. Their deficiency consists in that they are not comprehensive enough."

"A successful milk inspector would inspect every cow, the character of milk-house, the cleanliness and health of those who handle the milk, and every little intricate point."

Dr. Helmer suggested additional laws which would aid the inspection of milk and be a preventative of the contagion which is spread by unsanitary milk.

The association will work in conjunction with the American Association of Veterinarians.

A delegation from the association will go to Harrisburg tomorrow to protest against the Stiles bill amending the law governing the practice of veterinary medicine, which has passed the senate and will go before the house committee tomorrow.

WORKING FOR THE JUVENILE COURT.

New Century Club Ladies Visit Harrisburg.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Harrisburg, March 6.—A delegation of ladies from the New Century club of Philadelphia, appeared before the judiciary general committee of the senate this afternoon and advocated the speedy passage of the bill creating a juvenile court in the several counties of the state. Those who spoke in favor of the measure were: Mrs. Fred Shoff, Miss Mary Garrett, Mrs. Mary Munford, Mrs. E. C. Glick, Mrs. A. R. Ramsey and the Rev. J. C. Mead. The committee decided to report the bill favorably to the senate tomorrow.

The measure provides for the establishment of a juvenile court, which one of the quarter sessions judges shall preside when there is occasion for the holding of such court. The bill further provides for the regulation of the treatment and conduct of dependent Chinese under the age of 16 years; provides for the appointment of probation officers; prohibits the commitment to jail or police stations of a child under 14 years of age; provides for the appointment, compensation and duties of agents of juvenile reformatories; imposes certain duties upon the board of public charities; regulates the incorporation of associations for the care of dependent, neglected or delinquent Chinese; prohibits foreign associations from placing and persons from receiving children in homes for adoption or under indenture, except under certain conditions, and provides for the appointment of a board of visitors.

Attempts to Kill Wife and Her Father and Then Commits Suicide.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Atlantic City, March 6.—Albert Zimmerman, 49 years old, shot his wife through the head this morning and attempted to kill her father. He then turned the revolver upon himself and sent a bullet through his brain, which killed him almost instantly. The tragic occurrence took place in the Zimmerman home, on the outskirts of Absecon, near here.

It appears that last night, in company with his wife, he made a personal call on a neighbor, and that he left his wife there with the statement that he would return for her. She waited until 11 p. m., and, her husband failing to return, she went to her home alone and waited until 2 a. m. for him. A quarrel ensued. Zimmerman was under the influence of liquor. He left his wife in the parlor of the cottage, went up stairs and secured the revolver, and upon re-entering the room, without warning, placed the weapon close to her cheek and fired. The ball went through the cheek and came out at the back of the head. It is now a fatal wound. Mrs. Zimmerman ran from the house and the revolver was turned on her father, who had come to her assistance. The ball missed him. Zimmerman then shot himself in the left temple.
