COOK STOVE WAS SMASHED

EXPLOSION IN THE HOUSE OF G. A. WILLIAMS.

Water in Pipes Leading from Range Froze and When a Fire Was Started They Burst with Terrific Force. Meeting of the Republican Club Will Be Held This Evening—Funerals of Edward James, Sr., and Mrs. James Hart—Talk about Missions—Other News Paragraphs.

An accident occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Williams, on Rock street, which completely demolished the cook stove and contents of the kitchen and damaged the doors and wood-work in the room considerably.

Mrs. Williams had been spending the afternoon with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, on South Main avenue, and had permitted the fire in the stove to go out. Her neighbor, Mrs. William Carless, had ignited the fire late in the afternoon and left it apparently all night.

Suddenly there was a terrific explosion in the house, which could be heard several hundred feet away. The pipe connecting the water-front in the stove with the hot water boiler had been filled with water, which was frozen, and when the pipe became heated caused the explosion.

The stove was literally smashed to pieces, parts of it being blown into the wood-work and one of the lids was found imbedded in the ceiling. The doors in the room were broken and when the occupants entered the place looked like a joint after a raid on it by Mrs. Nation's Hatchet Brigade.

The damage will amount to several hundred dollars. Mr. Williams had been away from home for several days in Washington and in consequence the house had been closed.

Republican Club Meeting.
A regular meeting of the West Side Republican club will be held in the rooms over Halsey & Warner's this evening, and it is expected that the full strength of the club will be in attendance, as several important matters are to be acted upon.

The principal feature of the meeting will be the report of the committee, Messrs. Thomas, Paine and Leysion, appointed at the last meeting to draft a protest against the present re-appointment bill now before the legislature. It is probable that the representatives from this county will be asked to oppose the re-appointment as now outlined.

The financial secretary of the club will also make an important report, which has a particular bearing on the club's standing, and definite action will be taken in reference to delinquent members.

On March 14, one week hence, Thos. H. Dale will address the club on a very important subject. The committee in charge of the special meeting expect to present other features for the consideration of the members.

Missionary Work in China.
Rev. Dr. Halsey, a missionary secretary, spoke at Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening. He also read letters from Japan, Corea, China and other countries, showing the progress of the work and the sufferings of the missionaries, especially in China. As illustrated by the speaker, the native Christians, under their sufferings of superstition, caste and religion of the fathers, are more in earnest in their new Christianity than the many churches of America.

Dr. Halsey is a fine speaker and holds his audience with close attention, and it was regrettable that so few people were present to hear him.

Mrs. James Hart Buried.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Hart, wife of Patrolman James Hart, took place yesterday morning, at St. Patrick's Catholic church, a requiem mass was celebrated, and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

A number of beautiful floral designs were in evidence. The pall bearers were John Falley, Joseph Taylor, Michael Burke, Michael Bolton, H. Pugh and Patrick Durkin.

Funeral of Edward James, Sr.
The funeral services over the remains of the late Edward James, Sr., which were conducted at the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church yesterday afternoon were attended by an assembly of friends. Deceased was a well liked man of sterling qualities, an amiable disposition, and made friends who continued so all through life.

The ministers who spoke were Rev. William Lewis, Rev. William Morgan, Rev. Hugh Davis and Rev. J. T. Morris, all of whom were devoted friends of Mr. James. Each paid a merited tribute to his well-spent life and consoled the bereaved ones with the thought that he had gone to his reward.
