A STORMY NIGHT.

Much Damage Done to Trees, Wires and 'Phones Sunday. Sunday night and early Monday morning will probably go down in local chronology as "the night of the big wind."

COMMON COUNCIL.

In common council there was but a quorum. The only new matters of business were the granting of $5,000 from the city to the water company...

THE BOARD OF REVISION AND APPEALS HAS COMPLETED ITS WORK.

The board of revision and appeals, after a large number of meetings and listening to many styles and degrees of "kicks" from property owners...

MR. CARNEGIE'S OFFER.

Every one in town says it would be a pity to turn it down. The fair offer of Andrew Carnegie to endow the city of Carbondale with a public library building...

WILL PREACH TRIAL SERMON.

Rev. M. C. Elliott receives an invitation to do so in Wisconsin. Rev. M. C. Elliott, pastor of the First Congregational church, has received a request from a church in Wisconsin to preach a trial sermon...

FINANCES.

There are several questions standing on record against the city, all of which bear six per cent interest from the time of issue. I would cordially request the city council to appropriate a sufficient sum to satisfy them.

STREETS.

The work on the streets during the past year has been very satisfactory and I desire in conclusion to express my appreciation for the services of City Engineer Kemp and his assistants. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant.
