STAGE HANDS BALL.—The many patrons who will gather on the evening of April 12 at Music Hall, are assured of a very delightful time at the hands of the Union Stage Hands, who will conduct their annual ball on that evening. The program is a very attractive one, and the union is considered a strong and harmonious body of intelligent and gentlemanly young men, and this affair will be one of the most enjoyable events of the season, being in charge of an active, energetic committee.

ESTIMATES COMMITTEE'S WORK Has a Very Hard Proposition Now Confronting It.

The members of the estimates committee, which has not yet met on account of delay in the printing of the estimates, realize that they are going to do some of the finest paring that an estimate committee has ever been called upon to do in the history of the city. The increase in the salary list by the creation of additional offices under the second class city, the large number of additional electric lights to be provided for, the necessity of taking care of almost $10,000 worth of claims referred to the committee by councils and the $7,500 increase in the water rate, all confront the committee. These are all fixed charges and must be provided for. Nearly every department in the city wants an increase in nearly every item of expense and yet the revenues of the city at the present cannot exceed by more than a few thousand dollars the revenues of last year.

STRIKERS ARE RESTING. Action of Mill Owners Is Being Awaited—Settlement of Strike at Wilkes-Barre.

All is quiet at the silk mill strikers' headquarters nowadays, and all action is in suspense until an answer has been received from the mill owners regarding the question of arbitration. The executive committee met yesterday morning, but realizing that nothing can be done until the operators have expressed their sentiments, but little business of importance was transacted. It is expected that Valentine Bliss and Superintendent Davis, of the Sauquoit mill, will be home within a few days from the South, and immediate action will then be taken, at a meeting of the owners and superintendents, to either settle the strike by entrusting it to a board of arbitration or by using any other practicable means. The local strikers feel considerably encouraged by the successful issue of the Wilkes-Barre strike at the Bamford silk mill, where the girls will resume work next Monday. They have been out eight weeks. The settlement of the difficulties was effected at a meeting between a committee from the Wilkes-Barre Central Labor union and Superintendent Armstrong. Some of the girls received an advance in wages of $2 a month, some $2 and others $1, a general increase of about fifteen per cent. being made. The weavers of the mill do not share in the advance at present, and the reason given for this by the owners is that only experienced help can receive the comparatively high wages usually paid in this department, but when the Luzerne girls have been working longer at it they will be granted an increase. The strike will be declared off tonight. About two hundred and twenty-five girls are employed at the factory.

FLED FROM THE BOXERS

THRILLING EXPERIENCE OF MISSIONARY DREYER.

F. C. H. Dreyer and Wife Have Returned to This City After Six Years' Mission Work in China. Were Stationed in Central Province and Left the Mission Just in Time to Avoid the Storm—Miss Rose Palmer of North Scranton Accompanied Them.

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. H. Dreyer, formerly of this city, who for the last six years have done missionary work in the very heart of China, are the guests of Mr. Dreyer's parents, at the latter's home, 122 East Pine street, Dunmore. They arrived in this city Monday night, safe and sound and full of thanks that they had escaped unharmed from the terrible carnage of the Boxer uprising. Many adventures, the very recollection of which is sufficient to send cold shivers coursing down one's back, were encountered by them, and not least among these was their departure from the province of Shan Si, with its forty-five days' journey to Hong Kong, during almost every day of which bands of yellow robbers accosted them and with threats and blows forced them to part with their possessions. It was six years ago when Mr. Dreyer left this city, entering the missionary field, at the suggestion of Rev. D. M. Stearns, then pastor of Grace Reformed Episcopal church. His work was conducted in connection with the China Inland mission. During all his service in the Orient he was located in the province of Shan Si, at Ping Yang. The mission was a flourishing one, there being about one hundred and twenty native converts at Ping Yang, and about two thousand in the entire province.

ORIGIN OF THE TROUBLE.

The trouble in this territory began with the transfer to it of Yuhshien, the anti-foreign governor of Shan Tong. The bitter "down with the foreign devils" attitude assumed from the first by the governor could not fail to have its disastrous results, and about a week after he assumed office, a number of the homes of prominent native Christians were plundered, and whenever a white face was seen on the streets it was the signal for violent language and frequently assaults from vicious looking Boxers, armed to the teeth. Things at last arrived at such a pass that the officials of the district advised the missionaries to make their escape while there was yet a possibility. After considerable delay an escort was granted the small band, which consisted of Mr. Dreyer, Mr. Lathrop, ten ladies, two children and four native converts. Among the ladies in the party was Miss Rose Palmer, of Green Ridge, who had been doing missionary work in the northern part of the province, but who came down to join the party leaving for a port to harbor the storm. On June 15 they left Ping Yang for Hong Kong, a southern city and treaty port, where they were sure of protection. Only a few days after their departure the Boxers, who were in the news, as they slowly proceeded on their sorrowful journey, that the Boxers had burned down the chapel and hospital, and already twenty of the native converts, good peaceful men, had suffered cruel deaths as the result of their fealty to the faith they had adopted.

SLEW THE MINISTER.

Rev. Dr. Miller Wilson, a dear friend of Mr. Dreyer, the pastor in which the mission at Tai Yuen Fu, the capital of the province, was at his post when the Boxers attacked the mission. Mad with a Dervish-like fanaticism, the attacking party slew the minister and looting his person, they carried off his wife and little one. Meanwhile the refugees en route to Hon Kong were passing each day in suspense and actual danger. The escort of thirteen soldiers grossly extorted money for every service and in time of peril proved to be no assistance whatsoever. On the second day of their journey a body of fifteen men made a fierce onslaught on the four carts in which the party were journeying. Brandishing long, razor edged swords they rushed over the people, and at almost two years no rain had fallen, and the drought which followed with its attendant suffering was artfully laid at our door by the emissaries of the oppressor. "They stirred the people up to think that the missionaries were the cause of evil magic had caused the famine, and by their machinations were keeping away the rain, and this sentiment became very general among the more ignorant classes. "Our own converts, however, stood by us admirably and while of course a few recanted, the majority showed great faithfulness and fidelity. They offered us money and were willing to give us refuge and all the assistance in their power. It is regretted that the scandalous conduct of the foreign troops in China, as I think that their actions brought a practical lesson which offset the principles the missionaries have ever been attempting to disseminate. The deeds of the foreign troops are actually worse than those of the natives.

CANNOT COMPREHEND IT.

"The heathen Chinese can understand it, if a nation which ought to be properly punished, but his simple mind can not comprehend the spectacle of the representatives of so-called Christian nations behaving themselves in the way they have, and committing the outrages which have marked their advent. Many innocent people have suffered shamefully at their hands, while those really deserving of punishment have escaped unscathed."

TRUST HIM NOT.

Fake Convoys for Tribune Bindey Work Is Victimizing People. The public is warned against a new swindling scheme. A number of attorneys have recently been visited by a smooth-tongued individual who represented himself as a solicitor employed by The Tribune bindery. In one instance he walked away carrying 20 valuable books, as their owner supposed to be rebound. The books disappeared and have not yet been located. No doubt they were sold to some second hand dealer. The Tribune bindery employs no regular solicitor. Whenever a canvasser is made for work it will be made by collectors carrying proper credentials. EVILS OF ANTIPIRYNE.

It Depresses the Heart and Causes Derangement of the Kidneys. The use of antipyrine for the relief and cure of headache is a practice that cannot be too severely condemned. It has a depressing effect upon the heart, while the continued use causes a derangement of the kidneys. Krauss's Headache Capsules contain no antipyrine, chloral, morphine, caffeine or any other injurious ingredient, and can be taken with safety by the most delicate woman or child. They are a purely vegetable preparation, prepared in soft, soluble gelatine capsules, which are easily dissolved by the warmth and fluids of the stomach. They cure quickly and leave no bad after effects. They are so pleasant to take, so beneficial in action that no one would be without them after having once given them a trial. Every box of Krauss's Headache Capsules is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money refunded. Price 25 cents a box, at drug stores.

AFTER EFFECT OF GRIP.

Are Often More Serious Than the Grip Itself.

Physicians and grip sufferers alike are agreed that the after effects of the disease are most to be feared than the acute attack; you can never be sure that the disease has left the system completely. LaGrippe naturally attacks the weakest organ and leaves it still weaker. Not only pneumonia, consumption, bronchitis and throat troubles follow the grip, but kidney, liver and stomach are troubled just as liable to result, provided any of these organs should happen to be in a weak condition at the time of attack. To get rid of the grip germ, to get it entirely out of the system and blood, few remedies are so good and none safer than Stuart's Cathartic Tablets; they are not a compound of powerful and dangerous drugs, but a pleasant, palatable, non-toxic remedy in tablet form, composed of the wholesome antiseptic principles of Eucalyptus bark, blood root and similar germicide remedies which are perfectly wholesome and harmless to the system, but death to the germs of grip, catarrh, consumption and diseases of the throat and air passages. Mrs. Charles Gormley, of Memphis, says: "Last winter an attack of the grip left me with weak back, a persistent cough and loss of appetite, and after using various remedies for several months with little or no improvement I finally bought a 50-cent package of Stuart's Cathartic Tablets at my drug store, and as they were pleasant to take I immediately took them at all times of day or night and I was astonished to secure such fine results from so pleasant and convenient a medicine. In two weeks my cough disappeared, my appetite returned, I improved in flesh and color and no one would now think that I ever had such a thing as the grip. "My druggist told me he sold more of Stuart's Cathartic Tablets, for the cure of grip, colds and catarrh, than any other similar medicine."

ARGUMENT IN LICENSE CASE

WAS LISTENED TO BY THE FULL BENCH.

Reasons Advanced for and Against the Granting of a Liquor License for $550 in Scranton for the Coming Year—An Early Decision Is Expected—Minooka School Muddle Has Been Settled—Suit of Replege Against Frothingham and Reynolds—Court Notes. The full bench yesterday heard arguments on the test case brought by Martin Flynn to discover whether or not the liquor dealers of Scranton must pay $550 or $1,100 for their licenses this year. The first figure is that provided by the third-class city act, and the last the one provided by the second-class city law. Mr. Flynn is suing for a mandamus to compel County Treasurer Scranton to issue him a license for $550. At yesterday's argument he was represented by Attorneys Ira H. Burns, Joseph O'Brien and M. J. Martin, while Attorney S. B. Price appeared for the treasurer. Mr. Burns, in offering the main argument for the plaintiff, based his remarks almost entirely upon an opinion handed down in the case of the Commonwealth vs. McGrath by Judge C. E. Rice of the Superior court, when that jurist was president judge of the Luzerne county courts. At that time the borough of Hazleton was reorganizing as a city of the third class, and a case was brought to determine whether the saloonkeepers should pay for a borough or a third-class city license. The borough was organized as a city on April 4, and Judge Rice decided that the charge should be made for only a borough license. Mr. Burns contended that a similar condition of affairs existed in this city. Scranton is now a city of the third class, he said, and will not be a city of the second class until 10 o'clock on the morning of Monday, April 1. The licenses become effective on March 31, he said, and must therefore be third-class city licenses. Four days elapsed in the Hazleton case, while ten hours would elapse in this city. The same principle would apply, however. Attorney Price, in reply, denied that Scranton is now a city of the third class. It is a city of the second class, he said, and has been ever since the governor's proclamation was received. Therefore when the licenses become effective they will be second-class city licenses and nothing else. Granting, he said, that Scranton would not become a second-class city until Monday, April 1, at 10 o'clock, and that the licenses go into effect ten hours before, the common law principle is that in such a case nothing less than a day can be counted. Mr. O'Brien took issue with Mr. Price on this point, and said that modern conditions had changed that principle. A decision will be handed down very soon. The three judges consulted on the case immediately after adjournment.

MINOOKA SCHOOL MIDDLE.

The equity case brought by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company to prevent the sale and directors of Lackawanna township from expending $14,000, realized from the sale of bonds, was settled yesterday by a mutual agreement between the opposing counsel. The company, which is the largest taxpayer in the township, sought to prevent the issue of bonds and failing in this, sought to prevent the disbursement of the money realized from their sale. The agreement entered into provides that the plaintiff shall pay the costs, and that the defendants shall not purchase any additional land for school purposes for a year.

REPLEGE SUES FROTHINGHAM.

Attorney D. B. Replege is the plaintiff in an action brought yesterday against Arthur Frothingham and Miss Annette Reynolds. Mr. Replege sued Frothingham for malicious prosecution and got a verdict. The latter took an appeal to the Superior court and the decision was against him. Since then Replege has been trying unsuccessfully to collect the amount of the verdict and has now brought suit to recover on the bond.

WANTS PROPERTY DIVIDED.

John Davis yesterday filed a bill in equity through Attorney George D. Taylor which is directed against Annis and Thomas Davis. The bill sets forth that the parties are joint owners of two pieces of land in Jermyan and one in Greenfield and he asks that the properties be divided equitably between the three and if that is not possible that they be sold and the proceeds divided.

ASKS FOR A DIVORCE.

Mrs. Mary E. Cuyler, who lives on Cross street, this city, yesterday filed a petition asking for a divorce from her husband, Almond C. Cuyler, to whom she was married May 23, 1891. He deserted her without cause, she says, on May 23, 1898. Mrs. Cuyler's petition was filed by Attorney John M. Harris.

YESTERDAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Harry Griffiths, Scranton; Maggie Lee, Scranton; Joseph P. Davis, Scranton; Lucia Cardella, Scranton; John F. Davis, Scranton; Margaret J. Davis, Scranton.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

The case of William J. Jones against C. M. Butts was yesterday ordered to Walter Bazzis. In the equity case of Angus Cameron against Angus C. Gray the rule for a jury trial was discharged. The title Guaranty and Trust company was yesterday authorized by court to act as trustee in the general case of this city. In the case of C. E. Wray against E. L. Tallman, a rule was yesterday entered on the defendant to show cause why he should not be discharged on common bail. Sheriff Scholtz requested to come yesterday that an extra keeper is needed at the county jail and the appointment of John B. Jones, of West Scranton, to the position at a salary of $28 a month was granted.

NERVES LIKE A FLAT-IRON.

A woman who suffered for three years from nervous prostration says two bottles of Lichty's Celery Nerve Compound effected a complete cure. She hardly knows today whether she has nerves or not, she never feels them. It is certainly a wonderful remedy. Sold by Matthews Bros.

PEDDLER ARRESTED.

Patrolman Dave Davis arrested a man named Osterhout, on Lackawanna avenue yesterday, for being a nuisance and obstructing the sidewalk. He is a peddler of cheap tracts and has been selling oranges from a basket. Ask for Kelly's union crackers.
